Locals.

98 If you are going on-ry or excursion to visiting p-ce, tell us all about it, when you are going and to whom you are entertaining.

We are authorized to announce J. P. HILES a candidate for re-election to the office of Jailer, subject to the action of the Democratic Primary, August, 1916.

Monday is Court Day. Bring that in with you.

M. T. Haskell is spreading anything but fertilizer on the streets this week. Let loose of it, Mayor.

The Commercial Club will meet with Mrs. F. E. Henry this afternoon.

FOR SALE—A gasoline iron, in good condition. Will sell cheap. Inquire at this office.

The Main Street Garage sold a Buick touring car to W. I. Butler, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hunt have moved to the E. H. Parker property, North street.

Geo McWilliams, the Paris shoe man, accepted a position here and moved his family to Carlisle.

Two young men pulled varies wine visitation at the circles last Saturday night, under arrest.

Grover Caywood left Monday to accept a position as operator for a moving picture house in Rochester, W. Va.

Our Palm Beach and Cool Cloth Suits are the "correct hat" in June. See us.
J. P. TUNE & CO.

Owing to the press of work here, the J. Earle Owen advertisement was usually tardy in Emog in the future.

The car of the Canine and Fish Company, of Paris, was here last week and sold out overnight in the local newspaper.

The Bethel Dude School will give a Minstrel at the Maple Grove school house next Saturday night. Admission 10c.

An election to select two Trustees of Bethel, Ky., will be held and Wyatt M. Leslie will be last Saturday at the school building.

We are reliably informed that a deal through which one of our leading exchanges will be sold to a rival concern, is pending.

Put a piece on millinery and it's time to get busy and get your new hat. Let us Sunday in Go-In-Sunday School Day.

Miss Essie Hanson,
Bethel, Ky.

Ernest Hall caught 17 rats in one night last week. Ernest says he thinks the Rat Vote, for which he is interested with which to vote, is the rat that was responsible for the big catch.

Erle Watkins will graduate next Tuesday night at Pharmacy next Thursday. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Watkins will go to Louisville to attend the graduation exercises.

Just received a new lot of middies and Sailor hats, in colored patents hats that cannot fail to please you, and the prices are right.

Miss Essie Hanson.

With the roll of a poker and a hatchet Hon. Hayes, colored, defeated all the county jail on a charge of grand larceny, charged by the grand jury and sent back, dropped by the grand and held to the grand jury Friday night.

Dr. M. Hills went to Lexington Wednesday to attend the annual meeting of the State Homeopathic Medical Society. Dr. Hills was on the program for a discussion of Tuberculosis and Cancers in Infants with Cases.

If any customer wanting to come to my store after one o'clock will telephone me, I will be glad to show them hats. I make this notice because we have been closing at 12 and some find it inconvenient.

Mrs. H. T. Mann.

Howard Veach had a narrow escape Monday when the limb with which he was trimming a tree broke and fell to the ground and then dropped back on the tree, which, fortunately for Howard, the limb had not snapped.

Mr. Frank C. Taylor had a slight through a bad bloat. Monday. The operation of closer bloat is causing considerable anxiety among farmers in all sections of Fayette, owners of all cattle being loth to part with the purchase this week.

J. T. Gardner has just completed the fitting of the school room in the Carlisle district high school, which is reported complete. This is a decrease of 19 children over last year. More than 60 who should have been just moved out, but, of course, some others moved in.

A meeting to form an organization of Boy Scouts here will be held at the City Hall Sunday afternoon at three o'clock. Attorney Clarence Williamson and Edward Sapp of Lexington will have charge of the meeting. All the boys and men of the town are invited.

Mrs Henry Bramblett will entertain with a luncheon Rook party this after-noon at her home on Pike street.

Mr. Robert Parker entertained with a buffet luncheon at his home in Pine Grove Wednesday evening, in honor of Miss Harry, of Maysville, and Mr. Elizabeth Howell, of Norfolk, Va. The following were among the guests from Carlisle: Rue Lee Smith, Miss Hattie Mahaffey, Miss Clara Estelle, Mr. Frank Parker, Mr. Ellis Fisher, Mrs. Dow Peale, Mrs. J. E. Rice, Mrs. Lee Mann, Mrs. Allen Hopkins, Mrs. W. T. Forsythe, Mrs. A. B. Tabor, Mrs. Everett Bramblett, Mrs. Will Wise, Mrs. Henry Lyon, Mrs. Claude Smith, Mrs. Henry Lyon, Mrs. Ross Mann, Mrs. Wm. Mann, Mrs. Hood Mann, Mrs. Will Sutton, Mrs. Henry Hall.

Personal

Miss Katie Tune, who has charge of this column, will appreciate it if you will notify her of visitors, parties, etc., when you are gone away or to whom you are entertaining.

Mrs. Jas. J. C. Thurman and S. C. Craghe were in Lexington Tuesday.

Little Miss Rose Mayes, who has been extremely ill from pneumonic pneumonia, was somewhat better Wednesday.

Mrs. Lucy Henry, Spa, Leslie Collins and Dr. H. J. Reynolds went to Lexington Tuesday to be with Mrs. Margie Soper who underwent an operation at a hospital there Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. King went to Lexington, Indiana, Tuesday.

Mr. H. M. Taylor attended the funeral of Dr. J. C. Gartrell in Lexington Saturday.

Mrs. Arthur Collins of Bellhouse, near Richmond, visited friends here Wednesday.

Miss Angela Evans of Bethel visited Miss Mary Vaughn from the week's end.

Mr. and Mrs. Allie Handschumer are little sons, Emanuel, visited in Lexington last Thursday and Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dalzell of Cynthiana visited Mrs. Laura Dalzell here Sunday.

Fay Megowan of Lexington was here on business Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Lockhard were guests in Lexington last week.

Mr. J. W. Wellmore and Miss Hallie Wellmore of Mt. Sterling were guests of Mrs. Lucy Henry Sunday.

Misses Lucy and Elizabeth Hazard, of Huntington, W. Va., are guests of relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Pitman have returned from several weeks stay at Louisville, Ky.

Mrs. S. W. Keller, of Lexington, was the guest of relatives here Tuesday.

Prof. J. T. Hastings of Worthington was in Carlisle Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Katie Haley was a visitor in Paris yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Fisher, Mrs. Mary Ashford, Mrs. Anne Speed and Miss Nellie Boardman motored to Independence to-day to attend the funeral and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Brooks.

Misses Lou Clay McIntire and Rosa Wilmore and Mr. Jas. W. O. Mc-Intire were in Lexington Tuesday.

Mrs. Walter Henry, Mrs. Tom Mitchell and Miss Nancy Mitchell of Denton came Monday to visit Mr. E. Henry and family. Mrs. Joseph Waugh and other relatives.

Miss Norton left Monday on a business trip to Birmingham, Alabama.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bennett of Richmond, visited Mr. Geo. Bennett Saturday and Sunday. They left Sunday afternoon for Hartford, Ky., where they will visit for two weeks before returning to their home. They have home in New Hampton, Iowa.

Misses Nancy Langdon of Maysville visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Barlow Langdon, the week end.

Mrs. C. F. Taylor is in Cincinnati this week in the interest of her sister at Ludlow.

Guy Linville returned as a retired Lexington Sunday.

Mrs. Guy Bell of Covington is visiting friends here. Miss Bessie Bell.

Mr. A. T. Kerber was in Cincinnati the last of the week.

Mrs. Lettie Tousel of Paris and Mrs. Russell Mayes of Lexington are guests of Mrs. Martha Darby.

Mrs. James Healy of Stanford is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Mitch.

Mrs. K. J. Templeman has been quite ill the past week.

Mr. Henry Campbell of Covington is the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Campbell.

Mrs. James Parker, Mrs. Perry Mc-Clanahan and Mrs. Hamilton were in Lexington on business Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Estiff Jr., returned to Estiff from their wedding trips and will go to Lower Lexington in the Mrs. Hanson Kennedy property on Chestnut street.

Mr. Howard Henry and family of Winchester visited the day Sunday with Mrs. Lee Estiff.

Mrs. Harry Vasseur of Maysville visited Mrs. Robert Parker the past week.

Dr. Henry Hutchings and family of Lexington were guests of Dr. F. E. Hutchings Sunday.

Dr. W. H. McIntire and family of Lexington were guests of Dr. J. S. McIntire Sunday.

Mr. Dan Dutton was in Lexington yesterday.

Mrs. C. F. Jones of Lexington, was the guest of Mrs. Lucy Henry and Mrs. French Lick Springs, Ind., this week to take treatments.

"The Ox Yoke Inn" Club had dinner with Mrs. Henry Carter next Thursday.

The following enjoyed the beautiful dinner served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Collier Sunday in honor of his mother's and his father's birthdays: Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Collier and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dike Vice, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Neal and children, Mr. and Mrs. Avery Vice and two little daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Vice and baby, Mrs. Allen and Mrs. Judge and son.

Slap-Hatiff Wedding

A pretty spring wedding took place Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. Shaw, when their daughter, Abigail Parker, was united in marriage to Mr. William Berry Hatiff, of Carlisle, Ky. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Robert Parker, D. D., of the Presbyterian church, in the presence of about eighty guests.

At 8 o'clock the bridal party descended in the usual grand manner from the spacious wedding chamber, followed by Mrs. F. H. Head, who presided at the piano and played Mendelssohn's wedding march. Miss Brewster and Grace Bell, who were gowned in dainty shades of organdie, one pink and the other blue, were the maids of honor. The bride's attendants were Miss Helen Mann, of Paris, and Miss Dorothy Slaughter, of Carlisle, who were gowned in white organdie. Mr. Hatiff's best man was Mr. Harold Loveland, of Carlisle, and the groomsmen were Mr. Ben Hatiff, of Paris, a brother of the groom, and Mr. Robert Hatiff, of Carlisle. The bride entered on the arm of her father and met the groom at the altar by her brother, Mr. Robert Parker, and Rev. Robert Parker. The couple stood in the midst of a floral bower of white roses bearing the Hatiff coat of arms in silver letters. The other attendants formed a semi-circle around the bridal party. The room was gay with daintily decorated baskets of flowers, and the guests were served with delicious refreshments, which was in part, the bride's cake was a beautiful affair, being basketed in lemon and orange blossoms and was the center piece of the table. The bride's table was a beautiful affair, being basketed in lemon and orange blossoms and was the center piece of the table. The bride's table was a beautiful affair, being basketed in lemon and orange blossoms and was the center piece of the table. The bride's table was a beautiful affair, being basketed in lemon and orange blossoms and was the center piece of the table.

The bride received a large box full of white roses and the maid of honor a basket of sweet peas.

Prayer meeting was performed in the presence of the bridal party and a few friends and fellow with the bride before the room. The bride was given away by her father and met at the altar by her brother, Mr. Robert Parker, and Rev. Robert Parker. The couple stood in the midst of a floral bower of white roses bearing the Hatiff coat of arms in silver letters. The other attendants formed a semi-circle around the bridal party. The room was gay with daintily decorated baskets of flowers, and the guests were served with delicious refreshments, which was in part, the bride's cake was a beautiful affair, being basketed in lemon and orange blossoms and was the center piece of the table. The bride's table was a beautiful affair, being basketed in lemon and orange blossoms and was the center piece of the table.

Mrs. A. A. Parker presided at the punch bowl and Miss Mary Parker, of Georgetown, a cousin of the bride, presided at the register. Many beautiful things from the groom's friends were displayed in the room preparatory for the bride's departure. The groom's gift to the bride was a handsome diamond bracelet and pearls.

The bride graduated from the Carlisle high school with the class of 1915 and the Hatiff graduated from the University of Kentucky, Lexington, with the class of 1916. He is a member of the Phi Delta Theta fraternity, and also graduated from the law department of the University of Kentucky. He is a member of the Phi Delta Theta fraternity, and also graduated from the law department of the University of Kentucky. He is a member of the Phi Delta Theta fraternity, and also graduated from the law department of the University of Kentucky.

Mr. and Mrs. Hatiff left on the 6:30 train for Louisville, where they will spend a few days with the groom's mother, Mrs. Mary Hatiff, of Paris. Mrs. Hatiff, Sr., who came up from Louisville to be in attendance at the wedding. The honeymoon trip will be a motor trip through the east this summer.

Mr. Hatiff is engaged in the insurance business with his father in his home town. The bride's traveling dress was a Navy Norfolk.

New Nurse Here

Mrs. Louise Duncan Shaffer, who succeeds Nellie Johnson as Visiting Nurse for the Carlisle district, and Mrs. Shaffer is a graduate of the Public Health Nursing course given by the supervisor of the Children's Hospital, Louisville, Ky., and has had a very good graduate course in the Hospital of the Johns Hopkins.

Cinderella

From the best-loved Cinderella and the Prince Charming, to the Fairy Godmother, we know their appearance with all their many changes of costume and footwardes at the old school-days' Carnival and Festival at the Carlisle Opera House.

Watch for the date.

Automobile owners who will take their cars to Lexington for the Shrine Convention, May 17, 18 and 19, in the interest of the Carlisle Chamber of Commerce, are requested to report to John F. Sugg, Chairman of the Auto Committee, or Robert Hedges C. C. Cole or Rudy Myers, members of the Auto Committee, at once. It is hoped that not less than 20 automobiles will take part in the parade.

Boy Suits that wear, Sam Veach has 'em.

THE GOLDEN RULE GROCERY COMPANY
TELEPHONE 236 MAIN STREET, SCHAEFER BUILDING

Flour—Our Family, Mary Ann, Queen of the Kitchen, Gold Medal, Pillsbury's Best, Kentucky Belle, Ceresota, Gold Medal Rye, Graham, Meal, Hominy, Grits, Rice, Meal, Oats, Cream of Wheat, Malt-O-Meal, Quaker Oats, Shredded Wheat, Post Toasties, Grape Nuts, Corn Flakes, Rolled Oats, Rolled Wheat, Rolled Rye, Cracked Wheat, Cracked Hominy, Cracked Rice, Cracked Barley, Cracked Oats, Cracked Corn, Cracked Wheat, Cracked Rye