Just Received Car Load Of Six Touring Cars.

Several of them spoken for and if you want one you had better come at once.

Useless to enumerate the good qualities and advantages of a FORD ---the world knows all about them.

Let us fit you out with either Kelley-Springfield, United States, or Firestone tires for your old machine---you can buy no better; full stock fresh from vulcanizer.

If you want your machine to ride easier let us put on a set of Hassler shock absorbers. Will make a Ford ride as easy as any $3000 car, besides saving your tires. We now have four as good men in our shop as you will find anywhere, and will guarantee our work to be just right or we will make it so. No bad work can get out of our place.

Remember, we repair everything about an Automobile; guarantee repaired and glass put in. We are agents for Transylvania Casualty Insurance Co. Let us insure you against accidents---cheap.

Harper's Garage
INCORPORATED
TELEPHONE 55.

THE MERCURY.
PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY
WARREN E. FISHER, ED & PUB
THURSDAY, NOV. 9, 1916
One year (in advance) - - $1.00
Entered at the Carlisle, Ky., postoffice as second class mail matter.

MOOREFIELD

Mrs. John Banta and son, of Ruddles, were week-end visitors with her brother, Elmer Clinkenbaird.

Mrs. Kimbro, mother of our butcher, is spending a few weeks with her son and his family.

Mrs. Bertie Moffett, of Millway, is at home to see her sister, Mrs. Dillon, who will return to Larned, Kansas, this week.

John Forbam bought of Stone, Whaley & Co., a nice bunch of heifers to feed this winter.

Claude Whaley and family moved to Millersburg yesterday and spent the day with his mother.

Mrs. W. H. Harshbarger is in Montgomery county visiting her daughter, Mrs. Reed.

Will McFaun and wife, of North Middletown, visited Mrs. Fannie McFaun recently. He bought a nice bunch of steers from Stone, Bigg & Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinkenbaird, of Bethel visited their daughter, Mrs. Harve Wilson, Sunday.

Leonard Irvin is out after being at home three weeks with an attack of liver trouble.

Mrs. Sapenar, of Shelbyville, is spending a week with her daughter, Mrs. C. W. Kash.

John Wilson is out after two months' confinement at home with typhoid fever. His many friends are glad to see him.

Lucile Wilson and Effie Clinkenbaird visited Mrs. Clay Shrout in Carlisle Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Smoot and son, spent Sunday with Mr. Smoot's mother here.

Mrs. Homer Blount is in the Good Samaritan hospital for treatment and is improving nicely. Homer Blount and wife, of Bethel, are caring for the home in her absence.

Stone, Bigg & Co. shipped a carload of cattle to the city Saturday.

J. Whaley is improving his home.

R. T. Kirkland motored to Lexington last week, accompanied by Mrs. Dee Combs and Mrs. Will Blount.

The oyster supper at the school house Saturday night was well attended and a neat sum realized for the piano fund.

Misses Lena Hazelrigg, Edna Irvin, Lola Gaither and Ruth Henry went with the party of Nicholas teachers to Berea Friday morning. They returned Saturday evening very enthusiastic over this great school and the wonderful work it is doing.

Advertised Letters

List of undelivered letters in Carlisle Postoffice week ending Nov. 7, 1916.
King, Geo. Moore, Harvey
Martin, Jno. Wm. Moore, Mrs. Fannie
Mott, Oscar Prow, Ina
Small, W. N.
One cent due on above letters. Parties calling for same will please say "Advertised."
A. R. TILTON, P.M.
Carlisle, Ky.

SALTWELL

Mrs. Franklin Allison of Carlisle spent Sunday night with Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Mattox and family.

Miss Lula Martin of Mt. P. C. spent Saturday night with Rev. S. L. Moore and family.

Our new Church was dedicated Sunday, Nov. 5th. About 1,000 people were present. Rev. J. D. Redd, D. F. Ecc preached the dedicatory sermon. At the close of the great sermon, he then took a collection in cash and subscription which amounted to $7,000.00 which defrayed all expenses on the building which cost $14,000.00. Dinner was served on the ground. It was the largest conregreation ever gathered at our place; the day was an ideal one. Those from a distance were, H. H. Ewing, Taylor Mathers, R. O. Duncan and wife, E. A. Allison, and family and mother, Albert Feelback, and others from Carlisle. Will Pate, Mrs. J. W. Brannock, L. E. King, and others from Kelat. Visiting ministers were, Prof. C. C. Fisher, from Millersburg, Rev. I. E. Hollar from Williamstown, Rev. Atherton, from Republican. Mrs. E. K. Kidwell, and D. E. Hill as well, and others from Ewing.

Mrs. W. S. Rule spent Saturday night with her father's, W. Gaither and family.

H. A. Gaither will build a new house. Duncan Lenton, contractor.

FISCAL COURT MEETS

At a meeting of the Fiscal Court held Friday the following business was transacted:

The county auto was sold to Dr. G. B. Spencer for $150, to be used in lawyer practice as directed by the court.

Dr. O. S. Kash was allowed $100 salary as Health Officer for the period from April 1 to Oct. 1.

The County Treasurer was ordered to transfer $2,400 from the Road & Bridge Fund to the Bond Issue.

The Battleville road was accepted by the court.

The County Judge was ordered to execute a note to the Phelps-Peat-Gayn Co. for $2,956.-80, being the 15 per cent. retained by the county on their contract. The note will bear 6 per cent. interest and is payable on or before Jan. 1, 1917.

The following road claims were allowed:

Road & Bridge Fund	$292.93
Carlisle and Clarke Co.	240.30
Carlisle & Lower
Jackstown	458.68
Carlisle & Sharpsburg	27.78
Cairo County Const. Co.	1,761.20
Chandler & Son	721.25
Chandler & Son	726.70
Phelps-Peat-Gayn	228.52
Gaithers	49.50

Court adjourned until November 17th.

A SLICK SCHEME

Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 28.--Thousands of letters, each containing ten cents, are pouring in to the local post office daily from women in various parts of the country who have joined in an endless chain scheme promoted by the so-called National Brotherhood Exchange. Federal agents are searching for officers of the exchange who have failed to forward the mails to destined. A storm in a local business house, to which all the letters are addressed, was suddenly vacated three weeks ago, authorities say, by every woman who would send ten cents in silver and write five letters, urging them to join in the chain. The "exchange" promised a new $10 mail sack petticoat. The volume of mail for the "exchange" is rapidly growing, said Postmaster E. A. Purdy, and today we received twenty-one thousand letters, including twenty-five thousand dimes. Seventy women who would send ten cents in silver and write five letters, urging them to join in the chain, the