We have some on hand and can deliver any day.

Look out for a freeze and be sure to empty your radiator. We have a supply of Trivetite on hand, which will prevent the water from freezing—better look after it in time than to freeze your radiator.

Don't start out now without chains as you are liable to cut your tires. Remember we have a full stock of them.

Have your motor cleaned of carbon and see how much better it will run in cold weather.

Reliners put in your old casings will give considerable more mileage and save you lots of trouble by blowouts. We have them.

In fact, you can't think of anything you need for your auto that we haven't got

Hunting Season Opened On November Fifteenth

The open season for quail and rabbits, about the only kind of game shooting the people of this section now have, opens November 15. You should not forget the little matter of securing an hunting license required for hunters, so to be without it might be the means of causing you considerable trouble and annoyance when the pesky game warden once stepped around.

The section of the game and fish laws relating to the quail and rabbits is as follows:

"Quail or Bobwhite — When Unlawful to Catch or Kill—No person shall, between the second day of January and the fourteenth day of November, both days inclusive, in any year, catch, kill, injure or pursue with any such intent, any quail, bobwhite, or any part thereof, except as herein provided in Section 12 of this act."

Rabbits—No person shall, between the first day of January and the fourteenth day of November, both days inclusive, in any year, catch, kill, injure or pursue with any such intent, any rabbit, provided, however, any one may catch rabbits with dogs, or in traps, upon their own property, for their own use, but may not sell, barter, or trade, or offered, or exposed for sale, barter or trade, between the dates above mentioned.

The law stipulates that no person shall shoot, kill, or have in their possession more than twelve quail in any one day, but any person having hunted two days in succession may have in their possession a total of not more than twenty-four quail or Bobwhite killed by himself during such hand.

Loaded With Both Guns And Booze; They Start Trouble At Hutchison Station

Returning from Lexington on the Louisville & Nashville train Saturday night, after having seen Georgia Lexington fire-water, a party of negroes boarded the train at Hutchison and emptied their guns from the windows of the two Cincinnati-bound coaches.

Conductor Frank Keith telephoned from Hutchison to Special Agent Jas. Burke, at the Carlisle depot passenger station in time, saving him to have an officer waiting. When the train arrived Deputy Sheriff Wm. G. Hukriede and Special Agent Burke boarded the car and placed them under arrest. They gave their names as Lawrence Gardner and Forrest Jones, of Carlisle. When searched the revolvers and several cartridges were found on each. They also had several quarts of booze in their grips. Further, the men were taken to the Paris jail where charges of carrying concealed weapons and conduct were lodged against them.

Both Jones and Gardner are residents of Hentzville. Jones is the son of Harrie Jones, Gardner is a son of Tom Sharpe, who were several years ago. Both have had soldiers and have jail records.

LOCAL TOBACCO MARKET TO OPEN DECEMBER 6

Prospects Good For A Banner Year. The Big Buyers To Be Here

At a meeting of the warehousemen held in Carlisle Friday it was decided to open the local tobacco market on December 6.

The new warehouse at Paris has announced that it will open on this date, and it was decided by local tobacco men that the Carlisle houses should throw open their doors instead of December 18 as was first intended.

Prospects for a banner season on the local market are bright. All of the largest buying firms will have representatives here and no farmer in Nicholas should think for a moment of getting a better price at any other market.

Boom Jantes For Leader

Washington, Nov. 9.—Friends of Ollie M. James at the national capital are gaining much encouragement of saying that he is just the man for leader of the United States Senate to succeed Senator John W. Kern, if Kern should be defeated in the election last Tuesday.

The suggestion of Senator James for the place of high party responsibility is likely to take on the character of a widespread movement among his friends who believe that not only has he unusual qualities for the place but that he is entitled to reward for his herculean efforts for party success in many campaigns. In the campaign just ended he was recognized as the leading figure on the stump for the Democrats.

There was a time when the election of a Senator by the leadership during his first term was unthinkable, but old traditions were shattered when Senator Kern was elected leader early in his first term and the elevation of Senator James to leadership would not now be considered out of place on account of his limited senatorial service.

It is pointed out that in their debate he is aggressive at times militant, and that he has all the qualifications for a leader who would put the Democratic party in the center of the senatorial map and keep it there.

When Senator James was told tonight of the boom that had been started for him he said that he is not a candidate and is content to serve in the ranks.

Democrats In Big Jollification

The parade arranged by the Democratic campaign committee on Saturday night in Carlisle was a great success from every standpoint. There was plenty of red fire, hundreds of marchers, half a mile of automobiles, a regiment of horsemen, ample music, a fine night, and one of the biggest crowds that has ever turned out to a public demonstration, not excepting Hallowe'en or the Preparedness Parade.

The parade was led by a column of horsemen, followed by a platoon of police, prominent guests in automobiles and Storm's band, the delegations from the various wards of the city on foot. Nearly all carried Wilson placards and a fusee or a torch, and a number, with some difficulty, managed all three.

The marchers were divided into the various bodies of the University of Kentucky cadets, a color corps and drummers. The automobile parade followed, interspersed with floats and wagons crowded with Wilson men. One wagon bore an effigy of Justice Hughes in the hands of an executioner with an enormous pair of shears, and Hughes whiskers dangled like scalps from a pole borne on another that.

The Women's Wilson Club in automobiles led the procession of cars, there being over a hundred in line. Many of the machines were elaborately decorated with flags, bunting, streamers and portraits of the President. Every car was filled to its capacity, and most of the passengers kept fusees burning.

A cavalcade of horsemen brought up the rear. There were several hundred of them and they made an excellent appearance.

Live roosters were the favorite novelty, and appeared in every part of the procession perched on the standards of the marchers, the shoulders of the horsemen and on many of the automobiles.

The crowd, big as it was, was in good humor and dissolved after the parade with no signs of disorder.

HERE'S SMILE OF PERFECT HEALTH

This Man Was Rheumatic Cripple Five Years.

FINDS STRENGTH NEW WAY

John Lands, Victim of Chronic Stomach Weakness, and Generally Run Down Constitution, Tells How he Won New Vigor—Now Hale and Hearty, Enjoys Life to Limit.

Can YOU smile like this?

Health—public enemy—it's the enemy of public health. It comes from within. Within the you and vigor of mind and body.

How long since YOU have smiled like this. Be honest with yourself. Do you face the mirror in the morning with cheery greeting over another day born, or do you set up your dreary and weary, with a bad taste in your mouth, aches and pains, and a feeling of disgust for the world in your heart? If the latter, then you need just what John Lands needed—and found.

John Lands is the smiler in the picture. He is a machinist and lives at 711 Freeman avenue, Cincinnati. It is the experience he has been through that makes him smile today.

Hobbled on Crutches

For five years John Lands has suffered from a weak stomach and kidneys. Rheumatism set in and for a time made him virtually a cripple. He had to hobble around on crutches for weeks at a time, laying off from his work every time and money, sufficient.

"I have taken fully a hundred different kinds of medicine to relieve my condition during the last five years," he said. "But nothing seemed to do me any real good. Food would lie on my stomach and I had to take cathartics constantly. Then I had no appetite. I had no energy, either. Once I had to lay off work for four months. I had to use crutches a good many weeks at a time.

"Then I learned about Tanlac. It has done wonders for me. I am in better health now than I have been in for years. I am in full possession again of all my natural vigor."

Tanlac Did It.

"Tanlac did it!" the sunny machinist declared with emphasis. "It is the most wonderful medicine I ever took and I have taken a lot of what Tanlac has done for me. Ask any of my friends who have seen me lately. They will tell you the same thing. This Tanlac is positively marvelous."

Rengo Belt Reducing Corsets

Improve Stout and Medium Figures

Rengo Belt Reducing Corsets are built on scientific principles and are the ones to use for stout and medium figures.

The first consideration in tailoring these famous corsets is that their strength shall be multiplied by two; that they may withstand the severest demanded of them under the most trying circumstances, and that their beautiful original lines shall remain unbroken throughout the season's wear.

The famous Rengo Belt system of tailoring insures these features, but there is added stealthy webbing in several of the models to take away strain where needed. Examine the new models and if you do not find a corset that gives more than ordinary corsets can give—if your previous selections have not held their shape—you will find lasting satisfaction in a proper Rengo Belt model.

There are models with and without steelastic webbing—all are boned with double watch-spring steels guaranteed not to break or rust.

THE BRYSON FARM AGENCY

Gee-Whiz! How things do happen! Wilson re-elected President and his whom? By the LIQUOR vote of the great state of OHIO. Liquor managers in Ohio sent out their orders, "VOTE FOR WILSON AND COX," and Ohio with her 100,000 Republican majority sent her 24 electoral votes in for Wilson and Cox. Would it be too bad to hope that every temperance Democrat in Kentucky and Ohio might have a saloon located in his own front yard? When will the temperance people begin voting for temperance men and temperance measures?

But think of old Nicholas—846 Democratic under the splendid management of that brilliant bunch of theorists who have never seen anybody else do anything right. 846—and the highest majority the Democrats have ever been able to get heretofore was 720 and that was in 1896 when the Democrats cast 2066 votes. Truly, the vote in Nicholas is most complimentary (?)to those distinguished gentlemen who were so crooked as to try to steal the Republican organization and then didn't know how to run it. I'll give you their names if you want 'em.

But if it lies as it now stands, we'll have four years more of Woodrow, and it is the patriotic duty of every citizen to STAND BY THE PRESIDENT, and STAND BY THE COUNTRY. "Get thee behind me," Politics, and let's get to business. I've got some money for Democrats and Republicans and all you have to do is come and get it.

Here's a nice house for rent—corner of Elm and Chestnut streets—excellent neighborhood, 6 or 7 rooms, everything new and convenient; see me quick.

Could you shoulder the insignificant sum of forty-five thousand dollars and own a dandy farm and home worth that kind of money? Boys, it's something magnificent; located just 'tain't should be, buildings just as they ought to be, no better land under the shining canopy of heaven and worth the money. If interested, let's talk it over.

A new one—170 acres land; used to be called "the best farm in Nicholas county." Five miles of Carlisle, good pike, school and church in a half mile, and Silo will buy it (per acre). Now don't think I'm stuck on it; don't doesn't interest you.

Read carefully—one of the best located farms in a hundred miles Maysville pike, over 110 acres, 8-room house, beautifully located, good barn, 31 miles Carlisle, 41 miles Millersburg, and priced right. Come in—I've got the goods.

165½ acres land, half of it tobacco land, remainder good corn and grass land, 2 barns, 1 stable, 6 miles of Carlisle on good pike, the greatest bargain you ever saw at $45 per acre. I could have sold $75 just as easy but I said $45 and that's what I mean, and if you don't buy it you're letting the best thing get away that ever came your way. Wake up, Old Top, and grab while the grabbing is good.

A nice little country home, six acres, 7-room house, good barn, extra good orchard, 4 miles of Carlisle on model road. Ten minutes from Carlisle, everything nice.

H. R. BRYSON.
