DEMOCRATIC TICKET

For President
WOODROW WILSON

For Vice President
THOMAS R. MARSHALL

For Congress
WILLIAM J. FIELDS

Dorothy Parker, who was nominated for Vice President on the same ticket on which Theodore Roosevelt was nominated for President, on the Progressive ticket, is disgusted with the action of his chief, who has come back on the Progressives and is now lukewarm with Taft and using his influence for Hughes. At a reception given him by members of the National Progressive Party at New York, last Saturday Mr. Parker spoked Col. Roosevelt in saying in 1912 that "I am for this cause to fight to the end while life lasts," and that "I will never abandon the principles to which we Progressives have pledged ourselves and I will never abandon the men and women who drew around me to battle for those principles."

He also quoted George W. Perkins as stating he was opposed to returning to the Republican party because it had been "more reactionary than ever."

"The statement of our leader, Mr. Parker continued, "and the concurrence of the chairman of our Executive Committee, was accepted at once by a trusting body of men and women who implicitly believed in our leaders. The tragedy of the great gathering at Chicago from June 7 to June 10 inclusively is a matter of history."

"I am not a Democrat," Mr. Parker said, "but believe the finance of this nation are due to Woodrow Wilson for what he has accomplished in the shape of Progressive legislation that has brought untold millions, happiness and prosperity to our people."

"And in those States where we have been betrayed by former leaders and by those who would carry out their orders," he said, "I appeal to every thinking man and woman interested in the material welfare of our country, devoted to their family and their future, to vote their honest convictions and support Woodrow Wilson for President of the United States."

Some Democratic Good News

With such a candidate as Pres ident Woodrow Wilson, a record of parts achievement there has been from the start of the campaign the most solid ground for hope of Democratic success. There is no evidences of victory begin to appear.

The Chicago Tribune, the leading Republican paper of the Middle West, admits that the bitterest rock-ribbed Republican state of Illinois is very doubtful—a fact some time ago known to those familiar with the situation.

Francis J. Heney states that California is sure for Wilson, the Progressives there not being along that follow blindly, but people whose politics are based on principle.

David Lawrence of the New York Evening Post, after a tour of the State of Minnesota, puts that state in the Wilson column, and Michigan is placed beside it by many political judges. Strong Democratic gains are given him by the fact that Michigan is being given ten times the amount of attention usually given it by the Republicans. From the big guns they are firing there one would think it a Democratic Verdin instead of a state usually rolling up a 200,000 Republican majority.

From every state reports back by solid facts and reasoning come in showing a tide of faith and loyalty toward the President coming steadily over the land.

It may look sound and fury and spectacularity; there are none of the "flaring" or "screaming" or the "shinning them alive" few days in the movement such as characterize the Republican campaign. It is too deep for sound or fusin. But it moves forward and onward with inevitable impetus, leaving behind it as its wake and force the growing belief that President Wilson has been powerless to free war and more than mediated. Has in fact prevented the national honor; that his policies protect the farming interests as well as the financial and commercial interests of the nation; that is tolerant of the rights of others and courage; that he has conceptualized the children of the country, served the cause of humanity abroad and kept faith with the American people and with the world.

Saying The Country

(Louisville Democrat)

We like the way John M. Parker, Progressive candidate for Vice President, expresses himself. He will be remembered he was nominated at the Chicago convention and who first bolted the convention and himself deserted to his running mate, Theodore Roosevelt, a short time later. This is a party of what Mr. Parker had to say about the declaration of Chicago:

"My unanimous, unsolicited nomination meant nothing to those men, whose action on June 25 showed they believed body and soul to the Republican machine, and had forgotten Progressive Principles, which to them were a temporary dream. They first deserted the Republican Party, damned the Old Guard for every conceivable crime, pledged their honor and loyalty to Progressive principles, and then deserted and betrayed the Progressive Party, and having again looked across with the same Old Guard Republicans they so bitterly denounced four years ago, now have the audacity to appear before the people of the United States in the role of patriots, endeavoring to save the nation.

"To save it from what? To save it from the prosperity which is rampant from New York to California? To save it from the farmers who are making large crops for which they are realizing more satisfactory prices than ever before in their history? To save it from the working men whose brain and brawn are needed in every State in the Union, and who are receiving more money than ever before in their experience, with shorter hours of labor? To 'save the country' to them means to fleece it for their own personal, political, and financial gain. Such brazen hypocrisy from such men, who must be judged by their past record, can not deceive the American people."

Revolting Story

(Kentuckian-Citizen)

Frank Ward, who moved to Bourbon county about a month ago, from Madison county, is confined in the county jail awaiting the action of the November grand jury on an incest charge.

The charge against Ward, who resides near Centerville, is founded on the statements of his 14 year-old daughter, Lola Ward. The prisoner had his examining trial before Squire Ernest Marion, Wednesday morning, and was held to the grand jury. Ward entered a plea of not guilty, but did not take the witness stand.

The Ward family came to Bourbon county from Madison county about a month ago and moved to a farm near Centerville. When the complaint against Ward was filed with Squire Martin, a warrant against the man was placed in Sheriff W. F. Talbott's hands, who, in company with his deputies, Messrs. W. G. McClintock, J. O. Marshall and James Gibson, went to Centerville, and took the prisoner in charge and landed him in the Paris jail.

When located, it is said that Ward and his four children, Lola Ward and three smaller children, were residing in an old hut, scarcely tenable, the building having no beds therein, and the children and wife having compelled to sleep on the floor. After the arrest of Ward the children were placed temporarily with a nearby farmer, and it is said that they will be looked after by Mrs. Harriet Minaker, of the Bourbon County Health and Welfare League.

Playing Both Ends Against The Middle

Here we have Candidate Hughes playing and playing hard for the German-American vote and Roosevelt "skinning on alive" to get the anti-German vote for Hughes.

We see Candidate Hughes and his chairman, Wilcox, condemning the child labor law as a fraud and a hoax and a joker, and Senator Cummins and ex-Senator Beveridge praising it; Senator Cummins saying that "anyone who denounces it is either ignorant or incompetent."

Here is Candidate Hughes opposing and criticising the Adamson eight hour law, and Senator Republican Congressmen who voted for it running for re-election on their records, and the twenty-eight Republican governors who allowed the bill to pass when they could have easily defeated it.

We have innumerable Republican orators from candidate Hughes down, saying that our prosperity is "fictitious," "temporary," or "consisting wholly of war filunders," and on the other hand every bank and railroad and big business man making reports showing business to be the most prosperous in history, and the stocks on the market all going up.

"It is to laugh."

Wilson And The Farmer

"The present is the first administration that has made a determined effort to show the farmer how to get satisfactory prices for his harvests. Former administrations have shown the farmer how to find the best harvest, the richest hog, the army worm and other insect pests. But this is the first administration that has dared to make common cause with the farmer against the usurer, the trusts and the shark, the fake middle man, and the human parasites which for past have grown rich on the produce of the farmer's toil.

"With these things accomplished in little more than three years, after twenty years of weary waiting, the road to greater freedom is not then ward in the old order but forward, holding steadfast to those friends who have proved true." [The Farmers' Own Paper.

THE BROWN FARM AGENCY

"There's a big farm, just a mile from town, with a nice, green orchard on it, and a good, well and a small stream that runs through the pasture. I'll sell it cheap."

"There's a nice little farm, with a fine, new house on it, and a big barn, and a good, well and a small stream that runs through the pasture. I'll sell it cheap."

And if they sells acres, no more nor less, I'll sell it for you. I've got a nice little home, and who are receiving more money than ever before in their experience, with shorter hours of labor? To 'save the country' to them means to fleece it for their own personal, political, and financial gain. Such brazen hypocrisy from such men, who must be judged by their past record, can not deceive the American people."

To list your farm, no matter how small or how large, and at least HALF of it GOOD tobacco land, remember good grazing and corn land, for the ridiculously LOW PRICE of FORTY-FIVE DOLLARS PER ACRE. It's about five miles from Carlisle, has a six-room, frame, tenant house, five acre tobacco barn, and the lowest priced farm, considering its good condition, in Nicholas county. Better hurry about this, old friend.

I saw an awfully good farm, the other day in Harrison, 145 acres, eight-room dwelling, eight acre tobacco barn nicely painted, large stock barn with two silos in it, land all lays as level as you would want to lay it, it is that RED BINKSTON LIMESTONE land, you can plow every acre with a riding plow, beautiful home and $125 per acre will buy it. It's a FINE farm and cheap at the price mentioned.

Did you ever notice that you can pay for a BIG farm just almost as easily and quickly as you can pay for a SMALL one? It's a fact; you simply produce more, sell more, and economize more, if you pay off more; living expenses are about the same on one as on the other. Now, with that view of the matter, I have just the proposition.

Here's a farm of 321 acres, every acre a good acre; without doubt the best FENCED and BEST BARNED farm in the county; good eight or nine-room house, five room tenant house, three tobacco barns (will house 35 acres of tobacco), splendid stock barn, and NINETY DOLLARS WILL BUY IT; pay one-third of the purchase money and take your time on the balance. There's a FORTUNE in it for YOU. GO TO IT.

Looking for location, are you? All right, here's 128 acres of good land, just about 11 miles from Carlisle on Model road, good, big house, beautifully situated, good tenant house, two good barns, and the ridiculously LOW price of $110.00 will buy it—BUT, better hurry.

One hundred there—big ones, little ones, cheap ones, high-priced ones—just the kind to suit YOU, no matter what you want. BETTER SEE ME RIGHT AWAY.

All those owing me for medical services up to July 1st are urged to make settlement of same.

HUSBAND RESCUED DESPAIRING WIFE

After Four Years of Discouraging Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Gave Up in Despair. Husband Came to Rescue.

Catron, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Bettie Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have severe pains in my left side.

The doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to my bed again. After I had gotten so weak I could not stand, and I gave up in despair.

At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I commenced taking it. From the very first dose, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without fatiring me, and am doing all my work."

If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women, in its 50 years of continuous success, and should surely help you, too. Your druggist has sold Cardui for years. He knows what it will do. Ask him. He will recommend it. Begin taking Cardui today.

GREAT MAJESTIC RANGES

"The Range With a Reputation"

For one week only

Commencing November 13th

During this week we will have a special demonstrator from the Majestic Factory to explain how the Majestic is made and why it is absolutely the best range on earth. It is a range of many years experience, and it takes several years, top, sides and bottom, without burning; why it uses so little fuel and saves food waste. He will explain its tobacco-saving construction and why it heats an abundance of water quickly and has a mighty convenient and useful thing to have a big supply of hot water always on hand, isn't it.

To buy a range by mail is almost certain to end in disappointment and dissatisfaction. It may be "pretty as represented," yet not what you thought it was nor what you wanted.

Here you can see every part of the Majestic—you can know what you are getting before you buy. Decide now that you will demonstrate, investigate and write—not range. You will save money in fuel, time and cooking. Buy a Majestic—the range with 25 years' reputation. The demonstrator will answer any questions relating to stoves.

Mothers are sometimes thoughtless as to neglect the colds which their children contract. The inflammation of the mucous membrane, at first acute, becomes chronic and the child has chronic catarrh, a disease that is seldom cured and that may prove a life's burden.
