WOMAN'S Club Notes

Miss Reaves, of Frankfort, Ky., secretary of the Library Commission, will speak at a mass meeting at the Christian church Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the interest of the Free Library for Carlisle. It is earnestly hoped that every man, woman and child in Carlisle will be present to hear this address. This is a subject that should be vitally interesting to every citizen and if you can't assist financially you can be a great help by being present and using your influence for it. Let's all get behind this movement and have access to readable books, literature, magazines or anything for the benefit of you are forgetful to make it known at the meeting.

The Civic League will meet in the Council chamber Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Business of importance to be discussed and all members are urged to be present.

The Woman's Club will meet in the Orpheum Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The programme will be in charge of the Home Economics Club who are interested are invited to attend.

The rooms of Miss Jennie Tilton, recently used as Civic League rooms, have been secured for the Library, and will be opened to the public in a few days. Mrs. Ford, Miss Tilton's sister, has kindly consented to act as librarian for the present, and it is the sincere wish of the Civic League that two volunteers may be secured to assist by having the library open and speaks for the help of those who would be willing to render this service. Of course the library will be for the benefit of all the people, but it is hoped that it may become a social center, a meeting place where the women may feel at home and where they may find something of interest. Let's make it a success—something for all to profit by—it is hoped that the real worth to the community will be so fait that it will continue to grow in large proportions. The contributions will be published later.

Board Of Commerce

On the 25th two additions were made to the list of entries for the Board of Commerce ($3,000) Stake: 2:08 pacers, that is to be raced at Lexington, Wednesday, October 4, viz.: Fred Kaye, Denver, Colorado, entered Braden Direct, the black war horse from the West, and T. W. Murphy, Binghamton, N. Y., put in Rose Hal, that was added to the stable at Syracuse the middle of this month. These are two of the fastest horses in training, and they must be a great race. Entries for other events are would not now put them against the pacers that have been entered for the big events in the Grand Circuit. The full list of entries for this race is: Napoleon Direct, Braded Direct, Sonquish, Rose Hal, Russell Hal, Anna Bradford, Ida Ray, Fay Richmond, Judge Ormond, Miss Bradford, Jessie Cahill, E. H. Brett. This promises to be the fastest race of 1916.

Retrying Plant Used

Mt. Sterling, Ky., Sept. 23.—This city may have a large retrying tobacco plant within the coming few months. Mr. Vaughn, representing the firm of G. O. Tuck & Company, of Louisville, was here this week, consulting with tobacco men and those in charge of the loose leaf houses in an endeavor to get them to erect and equip a modern redrying plant in this city, in close proximity to the warehouses. He made them a proposition that if the redrying plant was built that his firm G. O. Tuck & Company would lease the plant for a term of five years with an additional five years' option, agreeing to pay 10 per cent on the investment. The plant, when completed and fitted with the most modern machinery, would cost approximately $50,000.

COMMENT

Some years ago, the L. & N. Railroad had signs in their coaches which read: "Spitting on the floor tends to spread disease and is offensive to others." Gentlemen will please be governed accordingly." Evidently there were no gentlemen, or they were not "governed accordingly," for those signs gave place to an antispectorating warning from the State Board of Health, stating that violators would be fined, which brings to what we start out to say. The local Health League is making commendable efforts to abolish the nasty habit of spitting on the sidewalks or on the floors of public buildings. If you spit on your own floor at home of course you will feel that you should be compelled to spit on the floor of the Court House, or on the sidewalks. But the warning signs say no spitting. The League is determined to break up this nasty habit, after attracting the President of the United States for his stand on every question that has arisen during the Wilson administration; after erecting at what he terms Mr. Wilson's "weasel" words, curtailment privileges, the League is determined to break up this habit, and if you are forgetful to make it known at the meeting.

In a speech delivered at Battle Creek, Michigan, last Saturday, that paragon of inconsistency, Theodore Roosevelt, after attacking the President of the United States for his stand on every question that has arisen during the Wilson administration; after erecting at what he terms Mr. Wilson's "weasel" words, curtailment privileges, the League is determined to break up this habit, and if you are forgetful to make it known at the meeting.

Ach, how we do strafe Wilson! Look who's here! into town: Columbus, Ohio, Oct. 1.—At the Columbus Liederkranz tonight, a song written for the occasion by Dr. Hugo Muensterberg, of Harvard, was sung by the brothers, Dr. J. W. Huddleson of Carlisle, Ky., Rev. Dr. Snodgrass of Cynthiana, Ky. and Rev. J. T. Huddleson of Carlisle, Ky. Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton were also present to hear the song. Coming from this county about seven years ago.

WAGGH DRY GOODS CO.

The following appears this week in "Paramount Progress," a weekly published by the Paramount Film Corporation:

"'Down in Kentucky,' says J. Maurice Ridge, 'people say what they mean and mean what they say.' G. A. Dean of the Lyric Theatre, Carlisle, Ky., recently wrote us a very brief and interesting comment on Adolph Zukor's speech delivered at the Chicago convention. 'Read the subject with unusual care,' said Mr. Dunsen, 'because I wanted to learn what the attitude of the producing companies was toward the exhibitors and what interest he is taking in their welfare. I find that he looks at the matter as I do. We must pull together if we wish the business to succeed.' It must be a unit. There are three branches of the business—the producer, the exchange and the exhibitor. Are we to run this business separately or together as a unit? Why not help each other? This is a legitimate business and all members of these three branches have large sums of money invested. Let the slogan be 'Pull together,'"

BOURBON COUNTY MEN ARE TRYING THE SHROUT CASE

Examination Of Witnesses Began On Wednesday Afternoon. Case Has Been Tried Twice Before.

The case of John Shrout, charged with the murder of his brother, Jean Shrout, on the 30th of January, 1916, was called in the Nicholas Circuit Court last Monday. Owing to the fact that the case has been tried in this court on two occasions before, the first trial resulting in a hung jury and the second trial in a conviction, sentencing Shrout to 15 years in the penitentiary, which latter verdict was set aside by the Court of Appeals, a large crowd was on hand Monday to order a special venire of jurymen to be summoned from Bourbon county to try the case.

A venire of 60 men was summoned from Bourbon Tuesday night by Sheriff Parker and the following jury was selected Wednesday morning:

W. R. Scott

City Council Meets.

The regular monthly meeting of the City Council was held on last Monday night and the following business was transacted:

The Fairbanks Morse Co. extended the time allowed the city to install another pump or motor for a pump to be used at the new basin now being built at the water works until October 20th. The basin is being dug in order to allow water to be conducted through lateraps.

It was decided not to take up the amending of the Fire Ordinance until a full membership could be present.

Councilmen Darnall, Howe and Mayor Frey appointed a committee to make arrangements for a banquet to be given the firemen and to attend to repairing of the engines.

The following building permits were granted:

T. S. Riley, garage, Wm. Fuller, garage; Robert Curtis, blacksmith shop.

Treasurer's report showed a balance of $715.46. License fees collected, $5. Fines collected, $10.

INTERESTING LETTER FROM REV. J. C. OGDEN IN TIBET

Tells Of Pioneer Work In Far Off Land. Kentucky Blue Grass In Tibet.

Batang, June 27, 1915.

Dear Parents,

The conditions in China for the last few months have caused much disturbance as to mails, and made it very difficult in regard to getting money. The mails have been robbed, both going and coming, and we are sure that much of our mail has been lost. In fact much of our out going mail, which was properly registered, has been reported lost or stolen. This has necessitated rewriting a lot of our letters which is no little job.

I am enclosing a copy of my report, hoping it will be of interest to you, and if you can put it to use in any way, you are at liberty to do so.

We are now well settled in our new home and feel much more at ease in every way. The Los Angeles church gave the money and Dr. Shelton built it. I want to send you a picture of it as soon as possible.

The needs you sent are already being met. This year's crop will be different in many ways in a quarter of a century. Preaching a new religion, building new homes, and introducing new seeds, trees and vines, will have its effect. In fact, we can see great improvements already in these few years.

We need two more things from you to make our seed list complete, namely: your best sweet corn, and some of your pretty-by-night seeds. If you could send us about a quart of black walnut and hickory nut seed we would be glad. We have failed to get what we brought to come up.

Bluegrass and sweet clover, alfalfa, cane and broom corn are most promising at present. Flowering trees, fruit trees, will do well here, too. When we get these things planted into the ground, and Jesus planted into people's hearts, this will be a new country, indeed. We are doing here just exactly what you folks did around Bald Hill when you cleared the forests, planted and build-ed, and opened schools and churches for your sons and your neighbors' children. The forests have been cut, and the land is ready and to your cutter-plow, and preaching and your and your neighbors' children. The forests have been cut, and the land to your cutter-plow, and preaching and your and your neighbors' children. The forests have been cut, and the land is ready and
