MOST IMPORTANT NEWS OF WORLD

BIG HAPPENINGS OF THE WEEK CUT TO LAST ANALYSIS.

DOMESTIC AND FOREIGN ITEMS

Kernels Culled From Events of Moment in All Parts of the World Of Interest to All the People Everywhere.

U. S.—Teutonic Break

The United States government at Washington has granted safe conduct for German officials in China to pass through this country. They will probably land at San Francisco.

Twenty-nine members of the Arctic Coast Patrol, the "million-dollar flying corps," left for West Point, Miss. They were ordered out for training by Secretary Daniels. The order was received at New York following the expiration of the ten-day reserve corps.

The American liner St. Louis, first armed American ship to cross the Atlantic, has arrived safely at its destination, Genoa, Italy, it was announced at Washington.

• • •

J. P. Morgan & Co., it was announced at New York, have agreed to advance on account $1,000,000, without interest, to relieve possible embarrassment of the treasury of the master of the war department in the purchase of army supplies.

• • •

Congressman Isaac R. Sloan of Chicago, Republican leader of the house, announced at Washington that in the country's crisis he would forego all ambition to be chosen by the party as representatives to prevent any possible schism in the party organization and the meeting of congress to enact legislation needed for the defense of the nation.

• • •

Reports reached the state department at Washington that the Russian army in Russia are seeking to establish a counter-revolution in Russian assistance against the present government of premier Kerensky, which have been unsuccessful.

• • •

Corporal Frank R. Zelinsak of L. company, Pennsylvania Municipal Aviation Industry, shot himself through the head while on guard duty at Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., it was announced at Washington. Corporal Zelinsak was a native of Hungary.

• • •

Officials of the Buffalo Chamber of Commerce appealed to Governor Whitman for a notice of the new industrial plants at Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Lockport.

• • •

Shipping men at Newport News, Va., say 50 American mariners were aboard the German steamship Rio Janeiro, reported by Berlin to having been sunk by the German navy, but that the U. S. agents believe the men were among the 200 prisoners taken to Germany.

• • •

Unable longer to stand the "intolerable conditions" imposed by the German government on the American consul at Stuttgart, Consul Frederick W. Hinrichs, the United States withdrew Ambassador Whitlock, the American minister, and the American consular officers from the stricken little country. The withdrawal was ordered by President Wilson himself.

• • •

The United States has formally declared Germany's "war zone" blockade and ordered the old Prussian-American treaty of 1799 into force. The state department at Washington has replied through Dr. Julius Bernstorff, the minister, refusing to accept the proclaimed sea strength him to the German government.

• • •

On orders of the federal government direct from the war department in Washington the 1st regiment cavalry infantry of the Oregon National Guard was called into service by Governor Withycombe. The company immediately began preparations to leave for a point to be designated later.

• • •

Private John Foor of the Third company, Duke of York's regiment, Canada, a bullet wound received when he tried to halt two deserters who were trying to board the Montreal express at Toronto, the 22-inch gun batteries at Fort Williams, near Fort Garry, Man., were the gift of Sir Hugh Allan, it was announced by the grandson of Sir Hugh, Hugh Allan McCallum.

• • •

Albert O. Sander and Charles W. Schmeckle, who deserted the army at New York to conducting a military enterprise in the country southeast of Great Britain, were sentenced to serve two years in the federal penitentiary at Atlanta and to pay fines of $2,500 each.

European War News

The sinking of 23 more steamships, 14 sailing vessels and 27 trawlers, with an aggregate gross tonnage of 100,000, in the last few days, was announced by the admiralty at Berlin.

• • •

An additional list of vessels, 24 in number (119,000 tons), attacked by the German auxiliary cruiser Moewe, which recently returned to Germany from a second cruise in the Atlantic, was issued by the admiralty at Berlin.

• • •

Intimation that Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg of Germany will make another peace proposal to the end of saving of the reichstag is contained in an article appearing in the socialist newspaper Vorwarts. The Vorwarts, in hinting at such a proposal, admonishes an effort to obtain separate peace with Russia.

• • •

The French government has ordered the mobilization in all martial service in the army of the class of 1918, the order and demarcation on the part of farmers and laborers exempted in April. in southern France.

• • •

Two hundred adherents and supporters of the former emperor are under arrest at Tourfaue-Sele, Russia.

• • •

The Admiralty announces the Liverpool steamship Saturnian, the Liverpool-Medical and Chirurgical Journal says that furfuraceous or horrible purfuraceous are the forms of children are due the over-use of cane sugar and declares that such patches are likely to become pellagrous unless the sugar ingredient is immediately and to something even more terrible, and gravely more pellagrous. Many other troubles are attributed by this authority to the abuse of sugar, and it is alleged that frigonal screams are aggravated by soap and water.

The London Daily Express says it learns that Prince Friedrich Karl of Prussia, a cousin of Emperor William, who was reported in a Madrid dispatch as having been shot down by aviators while flying in an airplane over the Spanish frontier near Perenne, has died from his injuries.

• • •

Another important advance has been made by the French in their movement against the strongly defended town of La Quesnoy, the Paris war office reported that the position embracing Cantera Farm and Bonsecours extending over a front of about two and a half miles, has been taken.

• • •

From internal troubles and the problems of reconstruction the attention of Russia has suddenly been diverted to a grave danger, which threatens from the south. There now is undisputable evidence, says a Petrograd dispatch, that the order of the unending great numbers of troops along the northern Persian frontier is for an effort against Russia's capital.

• • •

Heavy losses were inflicted by the German crown prince's troops who had crossed the Somme-Crozat canal in the vicinity of St. Simon, army headquarters in Germany announced. Prisoners, guns, machine guns and several machine guns were taken.

• • •

The French forces operating to the northeast of the Aisne positions could have pushed back the Germans between one and one and a quarter and two and a half miles, and also have gained additional ground on the heights north-east of Terglisier, overlooking the river valley, according to the French official communication issued at Paris.

• • •

The German auxiliary cruiser Moewe has returned to Germany after the navy from a second cruise in the Atlantic, it was announced at Berlin by the German admiralty at Berlin. The Moewe, it was announced, has captured 22 steamships and five sailing vessels, aggregating 125,000 tons.

• • •

Premier David Lloyd George telegraphed from London, England, to the state department at Washington that the revolution in Russia was the greatest that the European war had yet rendered to the allied cause.

• • •

A British official communication issued at London says that the fall of the week ending March 18 misses English warships and sank eight of a big convoy under 1,600 tons. Twenty-one fishing boats were sunk.

• • •

Germany has started a new and elaborate recruiting campaign in Finland, according to the Finnish press. The recruiting offices, 74 district offices and 1,000 local bureaus have been opened.

• • •

British troops made further progress in the region of Croisilles and Ecoust, northeast of Arras, were a London official announcement.

Washington

The Supreme court at Washington has granted a writ of the interstate commerce commission directing the Louisville & Nashville railroad company to show cause why the Lehigh Valley Transportation company of Ohio should not be enjoined from operating on the Lakes.

• • •

The United States is the first country to recognize officially the new government of Russia, Ambassador Francis announced at Petrograd. Ambassador Francis received congratulations from the state department at Washington.

Domestic

William Hobson, a farmer, of Red wood Falls, Minn., killed his wife and then committed suicide, it was announced himself.

• • •

Between twenty-five and fifty persons were killed and 100 or more injured in a storm which swept over Illinois, Indiana and Kentucky, causing loss of residences and several industrial plants. The property damage will be estimated at $1,000,000. Tornado fire broke out.

• • •

The loss over a month at Des Moines by unanimous vote adopted a constitutional resolution by Senator Cole providing upon Iowa senators and congressmen to act once more in favor of universal military training.

• • •

An absolutely "beer-dry" prohibition zone is created by the terms of the proclamation of liquor for medical and sacramental purposes, the governor-designate of the senate at Denver, Colo. That the bill may not be approved by the last day.

Foreign

Emperor William is on the verge of a nervous breakdown, it was stated in private dispatches from Berlin. It is said that the kaiser has gone to Hamburg to take the cure.

• • •

It was announced at El Paso, Tex., that Carranza has called an extraordinary session of the congress of deputies to meet April 2. The same date on which the United States congress will convene.

• • •

King Alfonso of Spain will sign a decree forbidding the export of horses for the safety of Spanish maritime commerce. The decree is designed will be in accordance with the procedure following other countries.

• • •

"If peace negotiations were begun," says the Journal de Geneve of Switzerland, "they would be based upon the terms of its information, but declares it is absolutely impossible for the world's peace to restore the territory she occupies in France except in the unique interest of Germany, in exchange for a channel port, the cession of Ironlark, and an indemnity of 15,000,000,000 francs.

• • •

Two hundred adherents and supporters of the former emperor are under arrest at Tourfaue-Sele, Russia.

• • •

The Admiralty announces the Liverpool steamship Saturnian, the Liverpool-Medical and Chirurgical Journal says that furfuraceous or horrible purfuraceous are the forms of children are due the over-use of cane sugar and declares that such patches are likely to become pellagrous unless the sugar ingredient is immediately and to something even more terrible, and gravely more pellagrous. Many other troubles are attributed by this authority to the abuse of sugar, and it is alleged that frigonal screams are aggravated by soap and water.

OLIVER MEASURE PASSES SENATE

OPPONENTS OF TAX BILL CONCEDE THAT FIGHT ON STANLEY IS HOPELESS.

WINS WITH VOTES TO SPARE

Kentucky Upper Branch Rejects Amendment of Porter to Create an Excise Body—Senator Frantz Amendment Also Meets With Defeat.

—Frankfort.

The administration forces swept aside every barrier standing between revenue and taxation bills drawn by the State Tax Commission. They passed through the Senate the section of the Oliver bill creating the State Tax Commission to be appointed by the Governor. The opponents of the bill have conceded that a field assistant any of the administration measures will be hopeless. The Senators voted:

The State Tax Commission, to comprise the State Auditor, a Republican Commissioner and a Democratic Commissioner, to be appointed by the Governor, and Democratic Commissioner, to be appointed by the Governor, Republican Commissioner, to be appointed by the Governor,