Where are those swaps for chickens? Now is the time to get 'em on the market, sooner mind hear sizes.

Now, I'm not a chicken raiser, but I must get some of 'em.

Gee, it that's the best you'll do, I'll have to raise a few.

Just a coop and a roost under the shed,

I'll make my coops in town, Where I can get a piece of corn meal, hen scraps and bread, Or maybe a few scraps of meat, And a few pans of milk to feed.

Just a few hens to lay me eggs, And when they're ready to set, I'll take a few from the neighbors, And have a few chicken coops to get.

Then I'll have chickens to eat and to sell, And when they're all gone I'll have more, Then I'll have chickens to eat and to sell, And I'll keep on raising 'em for sure.

BIRTHS

LAWRENCE--To Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Lawrence, April 9, a son.

DEATHS

MOORE--The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Moore, of Sulphur Springs, died Tuesday and was buried Wednesday. Funeral services were conducted at the Sulphur Springs church by Rev. J. B. Redd, of Millersburg, and Rev. Jno. Bonwell.

Obituary

In loving remembrance of Mrs. Mollie Cannon.

Death has crossed another household and robbed that home of a loved one. Mollie Cannon has gone to that land where no sorrow can enter. That speech was Mrs. Mollie Cannon, who died at her home in Carlisle, Ky., Monday March 5, 1917. She had been in declining health for several years, but not taking any more serious turn until the last few days. Her death was a shock to her friends and relatives, and her passing away was peaceful and calm. She was a member of the Christian church for many years, and lived a consistent life. She was a kind and loving mother, and was always ready to help those in need. She was a good neighbor, and was loved by all who knew her. She leaves to mourn her loss her husband, Mr. Jas. Cannon, and one daughter, Mrs. Ben Ray, besides a host of other relatives and friends. Funeral services were conducted at the home by Rev. Sanders, pastor of the Christian church, and interment followed in the Carlisle cemetery. The floral offerings were beautiful and numerous, showing the love and esteem in which she was held by her friends. The pallbearers were: Messrs. Ben Ray, Ben Davis, Jas. Bass, Jas. Ray, Jas. Cannon and Jas. Hocker.

Mrs. Cannon was born in Bourbon county, Ky., Dec. 25, 1858, and was married to Mr. Jas. Cannon, Dec. 25, 1878. To this union were born two children, one of whom preceded her to the grave. She was a devoted wife and mother, and a kind and loving friend and neighbor. She was a member of the Christian church for many years, and lived a consistent life. She was a kind and loving mother, and was always ready to help those in need. She was a good neighbor, and was loved by all who knew her. She leaves to mourn her loss her husband, Mr. Jas. Cannon, and one daughter, Mrs. Ben Ray, besides a host of other relatives and friends. Funeral services were conducted at the home by Rev. Sanders, pastor of the Christian church, and interment followed in the Carlisle cemetery. The floral offerings were beautiful and numerous, showing the love and esteem in which she was held by her friends. The pallbearers were: Messrs. Ben Ray, Ben Davis, Jas. Bass, Jas. Ray, Jas. Cannon and Jas. Hocker.

Oh, Man of the House, hide out; for many moons it has been written in the skies that Spring, with blooming flowers, and warm sun-shiny days, and tender hats, was on the way; but you, Oh Man, you saw it not; and now, even this day, Spring is here, and Spring, with corn planting, tobacco beds and other farm labors brings with it

HOUSE CLEANING TIME

And house cleaning time means New Carpets, New Rugs, New Linoleums, New Curtains, New Shades, and while you grumble and complain, you know, Oh Man of the House, that you love them almost if not quite as well as does the Missus. And whether you like them or whether you don't, you know full well that you've got to get them.

Anticipating months in advance, as it has done for almost a hundred years (since 1820) the wants of its customers, who are also its friends, the City Store has prepared for your inspection a most complete stock of everything that goes with the house cleaning season.

We want to call your special attention to our nice line of

READY-TO-HANG CURTAINS

Elegant patterns and poles, fixtures to with them. All you have to do is to call in the old man and have him mount a chair or a step-ladder and hang 'em.

One of the nice things in the city of Marquisette curtain with Stencil Borders; very neat, very stylish, and NEW.

A very beautiful lot of Lace Curtains, every new idea that has come on the market; Scrims in endless variety, by the pair, or by the yard.

CARPETS, RUGS, LINOLEUMS, MATTINGS

We earnestly urge inspection of our CARPET department; you know strong points are here. Body Brussels, Brussels, Axminsters, Brussels, anything that looks like a carpet can be found at the City Store. We are especially strong on Rem-Size Rugs, an endless variety and at all prices. Also small rugs in profusion. The Crex Rugs are fine for summer, and we'll be disappointed if you fail to see our Mattings. Also the new Congoleum rugs so extensively advertised in the Saturday Evening Post and other leading magazines. Come and look them over even if you're not ready to buy. 'Twill be a pleasure to show you.

And, Boss, you be mighty careful how you talk during this house cleaning season; say as little as possible and say that little quite pleasantly, for it has been since the memory of man runneth not to the contrary that a house cleaning warms and a setting hen stand mighty little talk. Be careful.

VOL. L-- CARLISLE, NICHOLAS COUNTY, KENTUCKY, THURSDAY, APRIL 19, 1917. NUMBER 16

COMMENT

Now for a bit of oil on the troubled dust of our streets.

While preparing to wear the Garments don't forget preparations for swatting the fly.

$7,000,000,000 war budget passed unanimously by the Senate. Not so bad to be a money-lending people after all.

The White House is to have a garden of its own in which President Wilson will probably wield the hoe. If the President can find time to do a little gardening, so can others.

Lady Waistline, the Fayette county pollet, broke her egg-laying cycle the day before her first birthday and the poultry fancier is looking for an opportunity, raised the price of eggs.

After purchasing about as many potatoes and eggs as one could carry in his hat and parting with the meat of a dollar bill, our thoughts of the farmer who kicks because he has to pay fifty cents per year for a county paper would not be aptly described as sweet.

Leaving murder, fire and rapine in their wake, the hosts of Von Hindenburg are retreating before the mighty drive of the Allied armies. Gazing upon the destruction wrought by the enemy, a French soldier remarked to an American correspondent: "The day we cross the Rhine, my friend, we will be taking no prisoners that day." And we may blame them!

The new ruling which requires postmasters applying for the first second and third class offices to take a competitive examination will not affect those now holding office so long as they discharge their duties efficiently. The Department has notified all postmasters that a stricter supervision will be exercised, however. The ax probably will be removed from the spoils system and the service bettered at the same time.

Mass meetings, parades and flag-flings are all very well, but the man who practices thrift in these trying times, who plants a garden and raises somewhat for his family to eat and his neighbor's family, too, if he has the ground, is displaying more patriotism that is bad blood a million times. He brass bands and parades from the Secretaries. If not convenient for you to smoke a flower and a trigger, crook it around a hoe handle.

You, whoever you are, did it ever strike you that you are as much a part of this country's system as the tenderest as the soldier in the trenches? If you have a farm, a vacant lot, a back-yard garden, you can and should do your bit in the preparedness program. No one needs to tell you that the present high price of food-stuffs. There are this year not only ourselves to feed, but those European nations who fight with us in the cause of freedom. Every man in Nicholas county should think of this serious matter and make every foot of ground he controls produce. The President himself feels that our success in the war depends in a great measure on the Man With The Hoe.

Sheep Money Has Arrived.

County Clerk Jno. T. Sugg has received the money for which to pay sheep claims filed against the county from September 1915 to September 1916, and will pay 50 per cent on each claim. The claims filed for the year ending September 1915 will pay 50 per cent and the claims filed for the year ending September 1916 will pay 50 per cent. In 1915-16 the per cent paid was $5, in 1915-16 the per cent paid was $10, and in 1915-16 the per cent paid was $15.

Claims for the year 1915-16 which are awaiting persons holding claims:

$27.50; W. W. Roberts $61.45; J. R. Bell $47.50; Miss Ella Bell $47.50; Miss O'Connell $19.10; W. Clay & Sons $126.50; Mrs. Ann Fortune $47.50; Jno. Bonwell $47.50; J. A. Barlow $47.50; Mrs. Ann Ellis $14.00; J. H. Collins $47.50, and Chas. Dalzell $97.50.

Carload of Meyer Buggies expected in a few days. Carload of Colonial Buggies in stock. Car of Studebaker wagons on the way. Will be pleased to have you call and see them.

Dear Parents,

We left Tatsienlu October 12th arrived last night at Batang. October 12th to Batang is 100 miles. Batang and Tatsienlu are now hoping for better settled conditions in China. All the time we were under unsettled conditions so long as we were in China. We could not be sure that all be glad for a hasten to get out of China. Batang is a city of 4,000 people and as for any religious work. Lord Jesus Christ has come to China no any. Only one churches and schools are established and the fruits of them are very few and worthless. When one comes to China the first thing he does is to learn the language of the people. It takes a long time. It is not the same with Christian missionaries as with merchants and principal men and officials. They are not required to learn the language of the people among whom they live. In which the power of the Chinese Government is so great that an appeal was made for more religion and for more religious and more and more government activity. The only way to do this is to open the door of the heart and to the door then can be seated because of lack of room. Jesus Christ has been in China more than now and ten years ago. Those who are in China are not willing to go to the front to fight for the flag. They are best thing Woodrow Wilson could say to Congress. Governor Whitman of Chicago said, "I am for the flag, I am for the President of this war."

Other addresses were made by Judge Wm. Dudley Foulke, Hon. Jno. M. Morgan, Rev. W. E. Bothwell, Rev. J. E. Dunlap, Judge P. C. Dell, Master Commissioner C. M. Settle-mier, Hon. Jno. Marshall, Hon. Jno. Burnam, Dr. Mitchell Mannix and Prof. H. Dean Squires.

Resolutions were adopted by the club, among other things, pledged their support to the active support in a non-sectarian way of the National Red Cross. A copy of the resolutions will be published in the county paper and a copy sent to President Wilson. The resolutions adopted are as follows:

"Resolved, that it is the sense of the members of the Union States of America that the present crisis in the affairs of the nation is the most serious moments of the existence of Nicholas county, and we pledge our support and express our loyalty to our government.

"Therefore be it resolved that the Red Cross Society of Nicholas county, Kentucky, be and is hereby declared their loyalty to our president, congress and flag, and to the cause of freedom, and we further express our willingness to do our part in this great emergency and prepare to be done to uphold the honor of our flag and the defense of our country and to protect our beloved flag.

"And be it further resolved that it is the privilege and duty of every citizen of Nicholas county to contribute liberally by display the national colors.

"And be it further resolved that Nicholas county stands willing and ready to offer its shoulder for the defense of this great world war, and bear any burden that may be laid upon any loyal citizen.

It is further resolved that we express our thanks to the Red Cross for a necessary conflict, due to the present situation, has been thrust upon us, and we pledge our support to the Red Cross Society, and that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the Red Cross Society at Washington, D. C., and to President Wilson."
