Happenings of the World Tersely Told

U.S.—Teutonic War News

Nearly 100,000 additional National Guardsmen were called into the service by the war department of Washington as the second increment of state troops from 19 states and the District of Columbia.

• • •

An American army of 1,000,000 men for service abroad is the ultimate goal of the 500,000 contemplated for the first draft, in foreshadowed by the Washington government's request for an additional $3,000,000,000 made to the senate finance committee. The first million men are to be made up of the first draft army of 500,000, the National Guard and the regulars. It is hoped also that the first draft will be increased, but the government is arranging its finances for other drafts without the necessity of going to congress again for money.

• • •

President Wilson at Washington has created house in the White House. He eliminated Major General Goethals, William Denman and John R. Wilson from the board and the emergency fleet corporation, accepting the voluntary resignations of Goethals and White and requesting the resignation of Mr. Denman. The president then appointed Edward N. Hurley of Chicago, former member of the federal trade commission, to succeed Mr. Denman, and Rear Admiral Washington L. Capps to succeed General Goethals.

• • •

Suspension by the railroads during the period of the war of tariff rules not designed to help directly in the winning of the war is urged by the special committee on national defense of the American Railway association in session at New York.

• • •

Men called in the first draft may enter in the army, navy or National Guard until the time when their names are put in local exemption boards' hands. This ruling was made by Maj. Gen. Enoch H. Crowder, U. S. A.

• • •

Secretary Daniels is asking for $7,000,000 for additions to the naval gun factory at the Washington navy yards. It is proposed to extend the equipment of the yard in buildings and machinery for the fabrication of guns, telescopes and other optical instruments, range finders, towers and all the other equipment that goes with naval guns.

• • •

The president and his advisers on the experts council have decided that the most murderous must yet be done to keep German armies in the field. Within a very short time the experts council will develop into a strict embargo on food products and military supplies for neutrals adjacent to Germany.

• • •

A large group of American officers has left for French and British military schools to undergo a course of training in modern warfare. When the course is completed these officers will take their places, and later less experienced men will have the same opportunity.

Foreign

Germany has stopped the export of coal to Holland, according to Amsterdam advices.

• • •

The cabinet of Santiago, Chile, has resigned. No reason for the action is given.

• • •

The municipal council of Paris approved the grant of a free site to a Franco-American committee which plans to build a clubhouse for American students in Paris.

• • •

The government at London has refused passports to the two delegates, Crispien and Ledebour, of the labor and trade union congress and the labor party to proceed to Stockholm and Petrograd. These delegates were appointed to attend the international conference to be held at an early date.

• • •

According to the London Morning Post's Tientsin correspondent, Admiral Kee Chang has yielded to Li Yuan Hung's urgent request and has undertaken the post of acting premier of China.

Domestic

Federal Judge Forrest Judge Hodges of Portland sentenced Alonzo J. Mathieu, fifty-eight years old, to New York, known as the "king of forgers," to five years in the Lewisburg federal prison.

• • •

Mutineers at Fort River Mo. have arrested a counterfeiting ring of seven and lent hot fists against foreign invaders. The jail at Farmington is packed and additional prisoners were taken by auto at Fort Leavenworth and Ironton, nearby.

• • •

Announcement was made at New York that the American Transatlantic company had offered a steamship to the Red Cross "free of hire" to carry supplies and workers to France.

• • •

A steelhead and seven waldhorns which weighed a total of 1,000 pounds, ton of Lagorio, fed, caused property damage estimated at $5,000.

• • •

Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood, commanding the department of the Southeast, who was the guest of honor at a dinner declared we will not win this war with mere spectators, never interesting to do so many years we have been won—with our gold.

And Then He Kissed Her.

"Daughter," said the mother, severely, "I wish to speak to you on a very serious subject."

Daughter reasoned her most child like expression and murmured: "Yes, mamma."

"I must tell you that I was passing through the hall last night and I saw that young Mr. Simpkins kiss you."

"Yes, mamma."

"Did you give him permission to kiss you?"

"No, mamma."

Washington

More than 60 per cent of the $2,000,000,000 Liberty loan already has been paid into the treasury at Washington. The treasury statement, the first issued in 24 days, shows payments June 20 on the Liberty loan account of $1,-205,024,450.

• • •

Loans of $25,000,000 to Russia and $50,000,000 to France brought the total sum advanced to the allies within the last three months up to $1,525,000,000, says a Washington dispatch.

• • •

A compromise food control bill drafted in bipartisan conferences of the house was adopted by the senate at Washington by a vote of 60 to 16 as a substitute for administration measure. It provides that only foods, foods and feeds including kerosene and gasoline, shall be placed under government control and administered by a board of food administration of three salaried members instead of a single individual.

• • •

The state department at Washington has left it be known that the United States will not be represented at the Stockholm peace conference in Paris.

• • •

Clothing, bathing and toilet water was the unanimous cry of the 16 suffragists who were arrested in Washington from the district workhouse at Occoquan, Va., after having been pardoned by President Wilson.

• • •

A $250,000,000 crop, or nearly $1,000,000 a day, is being realized from the harvest for and home garden campaign, according to Food garden Commission announced at Washington.

• • •

National bank resources and deposits in the last year's period have surpassed all previous records. The annual comptroller's report for 1916 shows that national bank's greater now than ever before despite failures and consolidations.

• • •

Regulation of prices was strenuously called for between the United States and allied nations has been agreed upon by the representatives of the American and British governments, according to a Washington dispatch.

• • •

Senator Lewis declared in the senate at Washington that in his opinion the newest speech of Doctor Michaelis, the new chancellor of Germany, was a direct invitation to the United States to send armies for peace.

European War News

The German forces in Galicia are advancing from the River Seretch to the wooded Carpathians over a front 155 miles wide, says the official statement issued by the German army headquarters staff at Berlin. Several German columns, the statement adds, report that they have each taken 3,000 prisoners.

Nonetheless heavy Russian guns have been captured but also much has has been taken by the Germans.

• • •

A battle of enormous proportions is beginning on the west front near Ypres, in Belgium, between the British and Germans says a London dispatch. Military critics expect the greatest British drive yet undertaken, with the object of straightening the French, under hard pressure from the crown prince's forces, and Germans who are faced by counter.

• • •

German airplanes have been trying to destroy the railroad bridges in France. They have been unsuccessful, however, and the lines of the French and American officers is leaving rear not interrupted, the statement declares. Artillerymen fight in the air. The