A CAKE FREE TO YOU.

We recently purchased the Graeter Bakery and are installing practically all new equipment. It will be our aim to furnish the public with bread and other pastries such as will invite a return order.

For a few weeks at least, we will give FREE of charge a dollar cake each Saturday night to the one guessing the correct number in a cake. We will take pleasure in explaining the proposition more fully if you call at our bakery.

REDUCED TO 15 CENTS

I DON'T WANT TO CARRY OVER ANY SUMMER GOODS AT ALL and this is your LAST and GREATEST OPPORTUNITY.

It may seem a little strange that the City Store, in the face of a constantly advancing market, should make such startling and unheard-of but we are resolved that we will start in the next season with an absolutely

CLEAN AND NEW STOCK

and therefore we have resolved to

CUT PRICES TO THE BONE TO ACCOMPLISH THIS RESULT

DO NOT WAIT

JACKSTOWN

FOR EARLY FALL BUYERS

A good quantity of our fall silks are on display; beautiful patterns in stripes and plaids and most all desirable plain shades.

Our stock of yarns for knitting sweaters and other fancy articles is awaiting your inspection.

Come to us for anything in the dry goods line, we will try to please you and at satisfactory prices.

Remember our men's and boys' clothing and shoes; we can show you a very complete line.
