

Beautiful Customs and Traditions of the Christmas Season

By VALENTINE VARRALL

Another beautiful of the Christmas season is the custom of the "Christmas Eve" or "St. Nicholas' Eve." In this custom, the children are told that St. Nicholas, the patron saint of the children, will come on the night of December 6th and leave gifts for the good children. The children are told to put their shoes out on the night of December 5th, and to be sure to put a small amount of hay or straw in them, so that St. Nicholas will have something to eat. The children are also told to be good, so that St. Nicholas will give them gifts. This custom is very popular in many parts of the world, and is one of the most beautiful traditions of the Christmas season.
