EXCELLENT RETURNS FROM THE CANADIAN WHEAT CROP

United States Settlers Becoming Rich on Western Canada Lands.

The large number of United States settlers coming to the Western provinces of Canada are easily explained by the case of Mr. C. Lacy, late of Wisconsin and now located in Alberta.

Mr. Lacy came to Canada from Wisconsin in the fall of 1904 with means in the bank to buy something over $1,500 available. He rented a half-section of partly improved land in Alberta and commenced operations following. He broke 300 acres summer fallow with barley, and 200 with wheat. In the fall he had two sons and 20 head of young live stock. He was fortunate in buying feed at a bargain and managed to rent the adjoining quarter-section as pasture.

A few weeks ago he decided to realize his profits—and they amounted to $6,000 absolutely clear—from his crops and the stock.

W. J. Hoitsted, of Brooks, Alberta, says:

"I landed in Brooks, March 28th, 1905, with one car of household effects, and nine head of good horses, and less than $500 in cash. I have put $1,500 worth of improvements on my farm. I have 21 head of cattle, 16 head of horses, debts all paid, a new residence, stable, and a good, stiff bank account. At present rental, I can cash in for $10,000. I am well satisfied, and expect to double that in a few years."

I have threshed altogether 7,000 bushels of No. 1 Northern, 1vg thousand of oats, 670 bushels of flax, 700 bushels of barley and some potatoes—as well, figure this out for 1906 bushels of market price will be about 75c per bushel, when at $1.74½, am 1300 dollars, and the 1906 bushels of oats at 34c cash, number four feed, 640 dollars, total barley and flax, for the threshing.

Intelligent farming pays always according to Abe Martin, a prosperous Hoosier farmer. He claims to prove his contention from his own "truck patch."

In 1903 Mr. Martin threshed 40 bushels of potatoes from a 2-acre patch. This sold for $1.00% per bushel, which, after deducting $40 for labor, twine, threshing and freight, left a clear profit of $50 per acre, or a total of $1,500. From last year's crop of 34 acres, just sold, he received after freight had been deducted, $1,870.64.—Advertisement.

It Pays to Advertise.

A brother of Rockefeller spoke/ said at a Spokan club banquet in New York:

"A doctor told me the other day that he made more than ten thousand dollars a year on advertising.

"A generous appropriation, doctor," said I, "but I thought the medical profession was ethically opposed to that sort of thing."

"The advertising on which my money goes," the doctor replied, "is in the department store advertising that say write results in the daily news."

YES! MAGICALLY! CORNS LIFT OUT WITH FINGERS

You say to the drug store man, "Give me a small bottle of Freezone. This will cost very little but will positively remove every hard corn, soft corn or callus from one's feet.

A few drops of this new ether compound applied directly upon a tender, aching corn instantly relieves the soreness and stantly, and soon the entire corn or callus, root and all, dries up and may be lifted off with the fingers.

This new way to rid one's feet of corns was introduced by a Cincinnati man, who says that Freezone applied on a moment, and simply shrivels up the corn or callus without inflaming the surrounding skin.

If your druggist hasn't any Freezone tell him to order a small bottle from his wholesale druggist for you.—Advertisement.

News to Him.

"I've come to tell you," began the young man, "that I've got a good job and need next week."

"Well, what of it?" roared his employer, scowling a moment for a rebuke. "Why tell me anything about it?"

"I thought you might be interested," explained the boy. "You see, it's your daughter I'm going to marry."

And Stomach, Heartburn and Nausea quickly disappear with the use of Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills. Send for book let to 272 Pearl St., New York. Adv.

On His Own Hook.

The dog stole something into the butcher's shop and hoited with a large piece of meat. The butcher gave chase.

"Is that your dog?" he roared at the man, passing it.

"Um," replied the man. "he was my dog once, but he seems to be doing for himself now."

CARE FOR YOUR SKIN

And Keep It Clear by Daily Use of Cuticura Soap.

A hot bath with Cuticura Soap followed by a gentle anointing with Cuticura Ointment is sufficient to clear away in most cases of eczemas, rashes and itchings of children and adults. Make Cuticura your every-day toilet preparation and preserve and purify your skin.

Free sample each by mail with Book. Address: potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Dept. L, Boston. Sold everywhere.—Adv.

Some Improvement.

Take a Dutch boy, chop around the face of it about the regular size and add flecks of clay will fall off on the floor, and you have produced another mortified that Sir Rabindranath Tagore sends to Bengal.—Kansas City Star.

Watch Acts and Speech.

Somebody is influenced by what you "are, by what you say, and by what you do—as watch your acts and speech.

Richard Bell has completed a bust of Lord Kitchener.

The IRON CLAW

by Arthur Stringer

Author of "THE OCCASIONAL OFFENDER," "WIRE TAPS," "GUN RUNNERS," etc.

Dramatized from THE PATHE PHOTO PLAY OF THE SAME NAME

Copyright, by W. G. Chapman

SYNOPSIS.

Sir Wickwood Islington, English navigator and explorer, has the misfortune of ever losing his daughter Ethel, who is kidnapped by Dr. Hugh Sinclair. Sir Wickwood Islington finds the latter's body in the Thames. Sinclair's daughter Marjory, who has been brought up by Sinclair's friend, Count De Lagrasse, leaves the latter's home in Paris and goes to London. Sir Wickwood Islington is persuaded by Marjory to go to Paris. Count De Lagrasse figures in a plot to get Sir Wickwood's money. Marjory is kidnapped and taken to Sinclair's home in Paris. Sir Wickwood Islington returns to London. Marjory finds Sinclair's body in the Thames. Marjory finds Sinclair's daughter Ethel, who has been brought up by Sinclair's friend, Count De Lagrasse, leaves the latter's home in Paris and goes to London