Locals.

98 If type are going away or someone is visiting you, or if anything happens, phone us.

TONIGHT-HUSTLING

A Paramount feature featuring Dustin Murray in "Sweet Kitty Bellairs." This is sure a good one.

FRIDAY—The Iron Claw" and comedy.

SATURDAY—A Triangle western, Kay See featuring Bill Hart and Wm. Leslie Gleason and Rooster Lee. A nice Western picture.

MONDAY—A Paramount picture featuring Dorothy Gish. Don't miss it if you miss this one. Peggy will sure please you.

TUESDAY—Comes Crane Wilbur in "In the Line of Duty" "The Conscience of John David." This is Mr. Wilbur's own play.

WEDNESDAY—A Blended feature featuring Mae Marsh in "Chalice of Sorrow." These Blendfeats are among the best pictures we get. Come and see for yourself, there is never a poor one. Come.

LYRIC THEATRE.

Twenty years ago Monday the old M. C. hotel Hotel was destroyed by fire.

At the Albert Scaggs sale held in Bourbon county last Wednesday, corn sold for $3.05 per barrel.

W. Wagner, the baker, will move to Paris from Lindsville today. Joe Peters will occupy the house.

Dr. Kurt E. Schlesinger's "Twilight Sleep" method in moving pictures at the Lyric opened Monday afternoon to a splendid audience.

Mr. Geo. Simpson advertised his wife's auction sale in the Mercury and have a mild winner because hooks were not on the bar. The sign failed.?

C. U. Bramblett, real estate broker, sold on Friday for J. M. Mulligan 80 acres of land, located 5 miles east of Carlisle. Price private.

Louie Martin sold this week a two-horse Deering mower to Ben Hall, Grass Pondoe Co. and a six-cylinder, Elgin Buick to Mahlon Hall.

A sale bill of the personal estate of the late C. W. Durham, amounting to $1,200.45, was issued this week by Sam J. B. Durham and C. D. Durham as executors.

M. L. D. Harvin, who recently sold his farm, near Hutchison, has purchased a 80 acre farm in Shelby county, and the family will move there on the first of March.

Estell Ockerman is responsible for this bitter story: "Ockerman's Jersey placed in a churn one gallon of cream and churned for one hour and a half and there was no butter and when was we as clean as before it was used."

Mr. L. S. Hughes qualified last week as Deputy Circuit Clerk and Acting Clerk during the present term of Circuit Court. Mrs. Hughes will be Deputy. Circuit Clerk Solomon Robertson.

Dr. S. F. Reynolds qualified as executor of the estate of Mrs. Frank Hatsell, Friday, with the following named as sureties: John Harvey Cook, L. Moore, Jrs. L. Donnell and C. D. Thomas.

You will enjoy the play, "The Thread of Destiny" to be given at the opera house on Friday night, February 23. Synopsis and cast of characters will be given in next week's issue of this paper.

As Mr. O. L. Potts was going to Milton today to deliver milk Friday morning, his wagon was struck by an L. & N. freight train at the crossing near town. Mr. Potts escaped injury. The wagon was wrecked.

A card issued around the Carlisle & Higgins public sale of Mr. Wm. Higgins, on the farm of Mr. Wm. Cook, on Stoner Pike, Saturday, March 3rd, reads: "Sale will begin at 10 o'clock sharp. Terms: Cash. Come with J. N. Jones, T. H. Bolts and W. C. Higgins, auctioneers. Appropriate greeted were J. J. McConnaughey, clerk. Misses and Hilda Horton."

Mr. Dister Alexander qualified Monday as administrator of the estate of his father, Mr. Jas. B. Alexander, dec'd. Jas. F. Alexander and Jas. Fox appraisers appointed were Henry Hall, Brent Shaw and John J. Hatchett.

Mrs. D. B. Mann sold Monday her property located in the Mercury building to Mr. B. W. Prather for the price of $2,000. Mrs. Boyle sold her property to Mrs. Prather for $1,000. Possession, the latter part of next month. Mrs. Prather will continue in the millinery business at the stand.

Mr. James Waugh, who has been quite ill for the past several months, remains about the same. He has been confined to his bed for several days. Had a post card shower in celebration of her natal anniversary, at which time she received one hundred and twenty-five post cards. Mrs. Waugh wishes to thank all who remembered her on that day.

Dr. C. W. Nelson, representative from the Fourth District in the Kentucky General Assembly, left Wednesday afternoon for Frankfort, where he goes to attend the inaugural session of the Legislature, which convenes next week. Dr. Nelson is now on his fourth term as a member of the Mercury and has in his opinion the proposed law has needed many amendments.

A large crowd was in attendance at both the Brown & Bon and the Savage & Higgins sales which were held last Saturday. The former sale was held in Carlisle, and the latter 2½ miles south of Carlisle. The feature of the Brown sale was the high prices received for milk cows. All farm implements and stock sold well at both sales.

At a stockholders meeting on Feb. 5th of the Bluegrass Association of Breeders & Savings Association, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: J. G. Powell, M. J. Arnsbarger, J. B. Rose, Frank C. Taylor, Sam T. Howe, Geo. D. Ramey, H. R. Taylor and W. H. Ferry. S. E. Veach was re-elected Secretary and Treasurer. The following were elected to serve on the executive committee for thirty-four years, R. G. Ramey was re-elected President and H. M. Taylor Vice President. A dividend of 6½ per cent was paid to the stockholders.

Sam Veach has one of the richest displays of cockscrew ever shown in Carlisle.

"I'slight Sleep," at Orpheum for one week only, at matinee—for men only at night, Monday, Feb. 19.

"Col Old Johnnie" (Perry McClanahan) has purchased an auto truck to be used in supplying his customers here and elsewhere with oil and gasoline.

Don't put off buying that suit and over coat until the lenth's sale goes into effect. You can save 25 per cent on your purchase.

Every man and woman should see the great picture, "Twilight Sleep" at the Orpheum Monday afternoon and night.

Mrs. Bertha Laughlin, successor to Miss Collins as chief operator at the Home Telephone office today assumed Miss Collins tendered her resignation.

Don't miss the home talent play, easily one "The Thread of Destiny," to be given by the young people of the Sigma Sunday School at the Orpheum, Friday night, Feb. 23.

Mr Wesley Florence, of Harrison county, has purchased of Mr. Nat Shaw, deceased, of near Paris, the mixed Jack, 15 hands high and coming 4 year old, on for $150 per acre, a total of $1,500.

Tr. Brick building known as the Mercury building, owned jointly by Mrs. W. Dulin and Mrs. Ellen Boyle, was closed for repairs and remodeling after noon and withdrawn upon a bid of $10,000.

"The Thread of Destiny," given by the young people of the Sigma Sunday school on Friday evening, Feb. 23, at the opera house. Price of admission 25 cents; reserved seats 35 cents; children 10 cents.

Jas. W. Norton gave bond Saturday in the sum of $6,000 as Circuit Court Master, with the following named as sureties: Jno. T. Norton, H. B. Eads, W. O. P. Ledford, Jas. W. Norton and W. H. Burton.

Mr. Margaret King, of Mt. Sterling, announces the marriage of her daughter, Miss Mary Lee King, to Mr. Thomas Hedges, of Sharpsburg. The marriage was solemnized at St. Mary's church, at Mt. Sterling, on Wednesday.

A. A. Bays, of this county, who has been in the employ of the Southern Express Co. for many years, has severed connection with that company and will engage in the grain business at Paris. Mr. Bays has purchased a 80 acre farm in Shelby county and will move there in the spring.

William Bowen, who on February 1st, 1917, purchased the Mrs. Mary Hedges farm, near Hutchison, has purchased a 80 acre farm in Shelby county and will move there in the spring. Mr. Bowen is a splendid farmer and a high spirited fellow, and in addition to owning one of the best farms in Bourbon county, he is also a stockholder in the Mercury.

Miss Sophia Daugherty, of Cynthiana, received word Thursday that her brother, Mr. Jack Daugherty, of Long Beach, had died at Harlan. No particulars of his death were given, but it is now that Mrs. Daugherty had left for Harlan to be with her son, Mr. Jack Daugherty, of Jack Jacket, of Pineville, and a widow of Dr. Hodges, of Pineville, who died a few years ago. She has a host of friends in this county.

Mr. W. J. Reed received word Monday of the death of his brother-in-law, Mr. Thomas Hedges, which occurred Sunday morning at 10:45 o'clock from heart trouble. Mr. Hedges was stricken with the disease on Saturday morning and died Sunday morning. The funeral was held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence of the deceased, and was conducted by Rev. Mr. Hall, of Mt. Sterling. Interment was in the Mt. Sterling cemetery.

Mr. Hedges was a native of Bourbon county, and was 71 years of age. He is survived by his wife, who was Miss Mary Reed, and the following children: Mrs. Mary Hedges, Mrs. Ben Hedges, Mrs. Ben Hedges, Mrs. Ben