

THE MERCURY WILL REACH THE HALF-CENTURY MARK
FRIDAY, HAVING BEEN ESTABLISHED JANUARY 17, 1872

The Present City Merg. Destroyed By Fire in 1875

On January 18th, 1872, the first issue of THE CHARLES MERCURY was published in Nicholas County, Kentucky. It was published at the residence of Mr. J. H. Harlan, who was then the proprietor of the paper. The paper was published weekly at first, but was later published bi-weekly. It has since been published daily, except on Sundays and holidays. The paper has a circulation of about 500 copies per week and is one of the oldest newspapers in Kentucky. It has a rich history and has been a valuable source of news and information for the people of Nicholas County for over 45 years. The paper was destroyed by fire in 1875, but was immediately rebuilt and has since been published continuously. The current building in which the paper is published was first published on January 17, 1872. It is a two-story building and is one of the oldest buildings in Nicholas County. The paper is published at the residence of Mr. J. H. Harlan, who is the proprietor of the paper. The paper is published at the residence of Mr. J. H. Harlan, who is the proprietor of the paper.
