Good Roads Meeting At Bowling Green

On January 17th to 26th, inclusive, there will be held at Bowling Green, Kentucky, a meeting of the County Road Engineers. This is the first time such a meeting has been held in Western Kentucky and advantage is taken of the fact that the Rock Asphalt Mines are located nearby and that all delegates will be given a free trip. They will also have an opportunity to inspect the excellent roads in Warren and adjacent counties and especially the old state pike which was built some seventy five years ago.

The Railroad Companies through out the state have kindly agreed to give reduced rates to the meeting, these to be in effect from the 16th to the 19th, and good until the 21st, and the Attorney General of Kentucky has ruled that a Fiscal Court has a legal right to appropriate money to pay the entire expenses of the court in attending the meeting.

The program has been arranged so that only practical questions will be discussed. One-half day being given over entirely to the County Judges of the State, and owing to the fact that the meeting is being held at a time of the year when no road work is being done, there is no reason why at least two or three thousand people should not be in attendance. It is a known fact that county officials do not as a necessary in order that work may be done more efficiently, that they attend road men, mess supper men, traveling men, all have meetings where they discuss their particular line of business and it is absolutely necessary for the good of both counties and state that the meeting be well attended by the various Fiscal Courts.

Church Attendance

(The First of a Series of Articles by Rev. J. W. Oates, Pastor of the Methodist Church.)

The subject in hand is one subject to every church member. What I have to say is to any and all who have need and may profit thereby. Church attendance is a PRIMARY obligation. It is easy to enroll in it. Costs no money, and is an addition to his real character. All that is necessary is a modicum of determination and constancy.

Our churches ought to be full every Sunday and were our people constant in church attendance we should need to enlarge our church buildings. Indifference or neglect of church going—attendance upon the ordinances of God—has been a source of great concern to devout souls who want the best for their fellows. Despite the chagrin, the shame of it to any community, and the dishonor of it to God—yea, sin of omission—it is not wise for any minister to pester the saints with scoldings from the pulpit, knowing that those present heed not at all. I have endeavored to administer gentle and effective reproof to unconscious sinners. To one man I said, "Bro. ——, I see you can get to town Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday." He sang! the drift of my remarks and interposed, "And can't get to church on Sunday." I said, "Just so, sir." With a frown he said, "Well, I had a little business in town today." Is there any more important business than the Lord's business?" I asked. He said, "I guess so."

He promised to come the next Sunday, but he did not. You can minister unto Anglo-Saxon.

Habit is more powerful than the will in most people. The worship and service of God is a preeminent obligation. The first and best belongs to Him. He demands it. A superficial perusal of the scripture reveals this. When the world is facing from our view and eternity is looming on the horizon of a dying vision, the engrossments of earthly life's affairs, questions of religious and spiritual interests are tossed in the language of Shane: "Vanity of vanities, all is vanity. The confession of all. "Lord God" and keep His commandments, for this is the whole duty of man."

I am another brother driving home on Saturday evening, and knowing his habit of being in town all the week except Sunday, I hollered in a good natured way "Goodbye until Monday." As I expected I did not see him until Monday when I accosted him good naturedly, "Back again till Sunday." County folk are the chief side offenders. Many town people with lighted stacks and good hard walks are grossly careless of this the primary obligation of a christian profession. Church attendance is at stake is above that of rotes. Surely there is large room for improvement as it has been said, the biggest part of the world is the room for improvement.

A house-going pastor of his has said, "will make a church going people," but it is not all that these days. Experience proves otherwise.

The most interesting and stimulative adviser I have has suggested calling up Sunday absentees every other one on Monday. It would be a waste of precious time, a waste of precious task with him to hurry and folks out. My main objection is that it would be made an excellent excuse for a County and City Superintendent for in the teachers' meeting. Hear him. We urge that there be no more time for that day. We have very few at any teachers' meeting where are told.

Last week was so rainy and muddy that I did not visit any schools, but hope to visit at least two days this week, after Tuesday. I have visited as well as a very few and some I have visited twice, besides I sent Mrs. Taylor to visit for me in the first days of school in my place this year.

Attorney Williams Has Experience With 'Horses'

Some time ago Attorney John J. Williams, of Paris, was appointed special commissioner to negotiate the sale of two horses, which had been levied on by county officials at the instance of a Carlisle firm of attorneys representing a Nicholas county client. Mr. Williams took all the necessary legal steps, had the owner of the horses notified, had all the advertising arranged for the day of sale, etc. Yesterday he telephoned the parties to bring the horses in for the sale, and was dumfounded when over the wire came back a reply to the effect that "them horses had both been dead and buried five years!" That was "Hon." Williams' 'first' in same.

And there's still another "horse" on the genial attorney. Mr. Williams has been appointed special commissioner in like manner, for the sale of two horses that had also been levied upon for debt. The animals when brought in were found to be a pair of horse-flesh, one so much badly scarred by the barbing of barb wire fence and skin which if the Humane Society had seen him, would have been promptly chloroformed. Mr. Williams had the two animals taken to Judge Boyd A. Brannon's shop, where they were being shod and put in otherwise more presentable shape for the sale. Just as the job was finished, and the horses were led out to the door, one of them dropped dead, and the other fell to the floor, unable to move further.

Mr. Williams gave up the case, firmly convinced that he had had enough experience in the horse business and was better fitted for other lines of work.—Bourbon News.

How To Check That Cold.

When it is painful to breathe and fever sends chills up and down your back, you are in for a cold. A dose of Dr. Bell's Tar Honey will stop the tickling in your throat, clear the nasal passages and clear your head. Like magic the honey soothes and relieves the sore throat. COUNTY SCHOOL NEWS

Next Teachers' Meeting will be the third Saturday in January which will be the 20th., at 10 o'clock. Prof. J. V. Chapman, the new State Rural School Supervisor, will address the teachers that day and we urge each teacher to invite and get their trustee here to hear him. Miss Anna Mc-Clain has kindly consented to read a paper, and short talks will be made by others. All in all we are planning for a very interesting program. The public is cordially invited and especially the Faculty and City Board of the Carlisle Graded School.

The Common School examination will be held the last Friday and Saturday in January in the courthouse. All eighth grade pupils, who are within enough, should take this examination as it comes while they are in school, fresh in their studies, and then if they pass they are through with it, and if they should fail they have another chance in May. Parents should urge the pupils to come. We shall publish the names of the children, the school from which they come and the teacher who taught them if they pass; and if they fail, it will not be published. There will be no fifty pupils take this examination. Mrs. Ella Taylor and A. T. Gardner are the examiners.

The examination will begin promptly at 9 o'clock the first morning and at 8:30 on Saturday. Don't forget the last Friday and Saturday in January.

The Superintendents' Mid-Winter Convention will be held in Frankfort the week beginning Jan. 28th and Jan. 29. Your County Superintendent is on the program and will assist committees and will attend the whole week. Every county superintendent in the state is expected to attend. State Superintendent Crabbe has sent out a very urgent letter to that effect.

There are ten teachers who have not been visited by their fifth visit. We are sorry to have to remind them of this, but the month has been rained two weeks and the reports must be in. We have a hard fight to keep the money just as long after pay day as the reports are delayed after the month closes, but we do not like that. We hope they will all be in by the 15th so the clerk will not be delayed and worse those who should have to wait. We know that some will have to wait the fifth month because of being delayed.

Teachers, do not let your attendance go down toward the close of the year. That might convey the idea that your district loses interest in the school. Why? We are much pleased at the attendance of 95 of the 96 districts in our county. Don't forget that Prof. Chapman and to such as the third Friday and he will be a treat to many. He is a good speaker, always has a splendid message and knows how to convey it. He is a great school man and has made an excellent record for himself as a County and City Superintendent, also for the teachers' Meeting. Hear him. We urge that there be no more time for that day. We have very few at any teachers' meeting where are told.

Last week was so rainy and muddy that I did not visit any schools, but hope to visit at least two days this week, after Tuesday. I have visited as well as a very few and some I have visited twice, besides I sent Mrs. Taylor to visit for me in the first days of school in my place this year.

The Call Of Kentucky

The writer cannot but feel that when a former Kentuckian, especially speaking, a tobacco growing Kentuckian, reads of the present high prices in his former county papers, there arises within him a desire to return to his native state and again engage in the tobacco industry.

During the unprecedented period in tobacco raising, extending mainly from 1904 to 1908, Nicholas county not many a good time, but there were to other states. Oklahoma and Missouri were more fortunate than the rest of the states in receiving the people within their boundary. From 1904 until 1907 the "Western" fever lay hold on many. Oklahoma being then in the midst of a mighty boom, built by the farming industry and the building of town sites, and in 1907 and 1908. "Ozark" year Missouri appealed to others as the soil in a section of that state was said to be adapted to the growing of it thereof. The writer is not aware as to how well any of those homes-seekers have fared. Good fortune may have smiled upon them and their agaon they may have suffered reverses and therefore severe hard ships. Whatever lot has been theirs, twenty-dollar tobacco must sound mighty good to them, and who knows but that they have a longing to return and some day be the proud owner of one of our good tobacco farms. The latch-string is out for them and if there are any who desire to "Come Home," they will be welcomed.

Something For Nothing

Did you ever have an agent or spectacle peddler ask to see your glasses? Then while inspecting them, begin to knock the man who does not trave? The usual line of talk is "Who Fitted Them?" You answer and say, "So and So." They look wise and give you the icy glare and say, "How can you trust your eyes to such a man."

HOW MUCH DID THEY COST?

Etc. Then they usually say, "Why I can fit you for one-half of that; being from a larger town makes me much more intelligent than if I was from your burg."

The talk of promised headaches does not mislead thinking people. The man who offers you glasses at a ridiculously low price is either a fool or a faker. If the glasses are worth $5, he can get $5 for them. If they are only worth 35c, or a $1, you do not want to pay $5 for them.

Whether you pay $2.85 or $5 or more for a pair of glasses, by consulting me you are assured of a correct examination made with modern instruments in rooms and light and distance and proper charts for that special purpose. In this manner you are assured of full value and in no other manner are you when it is a question of Eyesight? Think of this when, next, the great doctor from the city knocks at your door. I am here every day to make room. I employ no agents or peddlers.

Saved Girl's Life

"I want to tell you what wonderful benefit I have received from the use of Thedford's Black-Draught," writes Mrs. Sylvania Woods, of Clifton Mills, Ky. "I was a terrible sufferer for la grippe, bad colds, liver and stomach troubles. I firmly believe Black-Draught saved my little girl's life. When she had the measles, they went in on her, but good dose of Thedford's Black-Draught made them break out, and she has had no more trouble. I shall never be without in my home." For constipation, indigestion, headache, dizziness, malaria, chills and fever, billousness, and all similar ailments, Thedford's Black-Draught has proved itself a safe, reliable, gentle and valuable remedy.

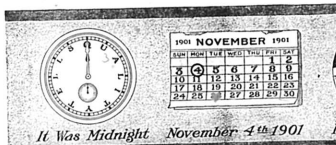
If you suffer from any of these complaints, try Black-Draught. It is a medicine of known merit. Seventy-five years of splendid success proves its value. Good for young and old. For sale everywhere. Price 25 cents. [illegible]

Born! A Southern Gentleman!



It Was Midnight November 4th 1901 In Durham, N.C.

It was midnight, cold and dark. The calendar told the date—Monday, November 4th, 1901. They tell me I opened my eyes and blinked in the glare of the big electric lights. Around me were men in spotless white talking in low tones.

"Jim," one said, "we have been watching for this little fellow for a long while and now he's here."

Jim picked me up, looked me over, struck a match and took a long, deep puff. Then he took another.

"Gentlemen," he said, "He is perfect. Quality does tell. You can't fail to recognize good blood. His mother was a Virginian, his father an aristocrat of the Carolinas. He comes from the very best stock—the very sweetest, tipsiest, mellowest Virginia and Carolina tobacco, and we will raise him right in one of the whitest, cleanest, healthiest homes on earth."

Even then I was glad all over to hear his words. It is a great thing to have real breeding behind you, to know who your folks are. It starts a fellow right.

We Folks of the South KNOW good blood.
We Folks of the South KNOW good tobacco.

That is why I just had to have heaps of friends down South here. I want you, Mr. Reader, for one of my friends, and it means a whole lot when I say—

I am guaranteed by The American Tobacco Co. —Buy me. If you don't like me return me to your dealer and get your money back. I have said it. A Southern gentleman is known the world over for keeping his word, and I have given you mine.

A Hint To The Wise

To any of our friends who are thinking of running for office in the Democratic primary in 1917 we commend the following inventory of his campaign expenses filed by a candidate last year:

"Lost four months and twenty-three days canvassing; lost 1,203 hours sleep thinking about the election; lost 47 acres of corn and a whole sweet potato crop. Lost two front teeth and a lot of hair in a personal encounter with an opponent. Lost one hound dog, four shoats and five sheep in county barbecues. Gave away two pairs of suspenders, four calico dresses, one pair of pants and 15 baby rattlers. Kissed 126 babies, kindled 14 kissing bees, got not a chance, only 11 cords of wood, carried 24 buckets of water, gathered 7 wagon loads of corn, pulled 476 bundles of fodder, walked 1,000 miles, shook hands 8,000 times, told 14,000 lies and talked enough to make us print 1,000 columns of it on the patent office reports. Attended 14 revival meetings, got religion four different times by insurance agents, and now other candidates are trying to beat us for the office. Have been defeated."—Exchange.

THE BRYSON FARM AGENCY

Old Post Office Building, Carlisle, Ky.

GENTLEMEN, I saw a good farm advertised in your list. I write you every acre a good acre, 8 miles of Carlisle, good pike, splendid 6 room house with cistern and well right at door, splendid tobacco barn, unusually good stock barn, double crib with wagon shed, other buildings in about acre inclosure. Want house to live in about the best land in Nicholas county. Now if you want action, I am a GOOD THING for the good farm of $150 to $200 per acre. Yours truly. You can throw a monkey wrench Bourbon county.

Farm Loans----Five Years.

Stop in and ask about it.

Now, listen, I have got something WORTH THE MONEY and close to town, that has good buildings and plenty of blue grass and tobacco land. Kindly inspect the following: 100 acres of land, 5 miles Carlisle, good pike, new house, newly painted and papered 6 room dwelling, 2 story, 8 splendid 10 acre tobacco barns right on the pike, more blue grass on this farm to its acres than any farm I know, and it's fine stock farm. Price per acre: will buy it. Can you beat it? I am ready to say that I don't believe you can. This is a farm that will SELL ITSELF very quickly. You can raise 10 acres tobacco every year and substantial blue grass pasture and then keep on raising it. But you'll better hurry.

Now, now, now; why have you not bought that nice 75½ acres of land on the Upper Paris and Carlisle stone pike, 3 miles out, 7 or 8 room house, 6 acre tobacco barn, excellent neighborhood and very convenient to town. $100 per acre will buy it. Now, lets get after this handy little place.

But for the biggest farm EVER offered in Nicholas county read this carefully. 120 acres, 6 room house, tenant house, 2 acre barn, half of this farm is bluegrass and tobacco land, the other half good corn land, two acres grazing land, 5½ or 6 miles Carlisle, pike, part stone. THIS FARM and price will buy it. DO YOU, Mr. Farm Buyer, know of anything better? If so I say you don't.

Let's talk about something GOOD: 162 acres, 5 miles from Cynthiana, 4 miles from Paris, 7 miles Millersburg, 6 room residence, tenant house, 8½ foot tobacco barn, a good one, stock barn, big crib, fine land, lay's flat, has 44-acre meadow, as pretty a meadow as anybody ever saw, and as cheap as can be at $130.00 per acre.

This farm will SUIT you. Mr. Farmer, and you'd better get to it before the other fellow does. I have a good one this farm and I know it is a good one and worth more money than I asked for it. Ask Squire Alfred Murray about it.

But for MORE MONEY I've got the real thing, the "MAUUMA" in Nicholas: 366 acres, will raise a good tobacco, as good corn, as fine blue grass, and as much of it as ANYBODY'S land, and it can be had for a little more than $100.00 per acre. 5 miles from Carlisle on Model Road, has 3 dwellings, 3 barns, 3 tobacco sheds, and taken altogether, is the best farm bargain of the year. Let's look over this proof farm: excellent terms: this ighlie kind of farm to raise big crops on and let George do the work. Better hurry. Splendid farm to operate with tenants and owners live in town.

Would you buy a FINE piece of land without improvements except fencing? I have 85 acres, as fine land as the sun ever shone on, no improvements, lays well, at sunction of 3 or pikes, 2½ miles from Carlisle, and can be had right. If not sold before you read this paper ask about it.

Another splendid farm of 183 acres, 3 miles Carlisle, good pike, 7 or 8 room residence, excellent stock barn with silo, splendid tobacco barns, sheds and other outbuildings, a NATURAL blue grass farm. I'd be glad to show you this excellent farm; a neighbor would like to have half of it without improvements. Now, it is just about what you want; let's talk about it.

Four so many of our farms, all sizes, all prices, can suit anybody. Come in and let's talk about them.

Remember my FARM LOAN department: 5 per cent. loans on good farms, five year time, nobody watching you and wondering if you are making good. We ascertain that fact in advance.

SPECIAL—A nice, pleasant little business for sale; suitable for lady or gentleman, something easy, honest, profitable, ask about it. BE HURRY.

I have several good city residences FOR RENT. Come on.

Let's talk about something GOOD: 162 acres, 5 miles from Cynthiana, 4 miles from Paris, 7 miles Millersburg, 6 room residence, tenant house, 8½ foot tobacco barn, a good one, stock barn, big crib, fine land, lay's flat, has 44-acre meadow, as pretty a meadow as anybody ever saw, and as cheap as can be at $130.00 per acre.

This farm will SUIT you. Mr. Farmer, and you'd better get to it before the other fellow does. I have a good one this farm and I know it is a good one and worth more money than I asked for it. Ask Squire Alfred Murray about it.

But for MORE MONEY I've got the real thing, the "MAUUMA" in Nicholas: 366 acres, will raise a good tobacco, as good corn, as fine blue grass, and as much of it as ANYBODY'S land, and it can be had for a little more than $100.00 per acre. 5 miles from Carlisle on Model Road, has 3 dwellings, 3 barns, 3 tobacco sheds, and taken altogether, is the best farm bargain of the year. Let's look over this proof farm: excellent terms: this ighlie kind of farm to raise big crops on and let George do the work. Better hurry. Splendid farm to operate with tenants and owners live in town.

Would you buy a FINE piece of land without improvements except fencing? I have 85 acres, as fine land as the sun ever shone on, no improvements, lays well, at sunction of 3 or pikes, 2½ miles from Carlisle, and can be had right. If not sold before you read this paper ask about it.

Another splendid farm of 183 acres, 3 miles Carlisle, good pike, 7 or 8 room residence, excellent stock barn with silo, splendid tobacco barns, sheds and other outbuildings, a NATURAL blue grass farm. I'd be glad to show you this excellent farm; a neighbor would like to have half of it without improvements. Now, it is just about what you want; let's talk about it.

Four so many of our farms, all sizes, all prices, can suit anybody. Come in and let's talk about them.

Remember my FARM LOAN department: 5 per cent. loans on good farms, five year time, nobody watching you and wondering if you are making good. We ascertain that fact in advance.

SPECIAL—A nice, pleasant little business for sale; suitable for lady or gentleman, something easy, honest, profitable, ask about it. BE HURRY.

I have several good city residences FOR RENT. Come on.

SEVEN YEARS OF SUFFERING ENDS

Tanlac Helps Man In Fight Against Health Worries.

After suffering seven years with his stomach, Charles Flanagan, 1744 Gest street, Cincinnati, has at last found relief and is now looking for the friend it in Tanlac.

With a "Tanlac Smile" he told his story to the Tanlac man:

"For seven years I suffered with my stomach. My trouble began with a constant indigestion, a feeling of fullness after eating and sour and then a little touch of heartburn.

"As time went on I felt worse. My appetite left me and I had to take headaches. I could not do as much work as I used to without getting tired and losing my strength.

C. FLANAGAN.

"I tried a number of remedies, but got a little relief, but soon they failed to help me. The last one I took was Tanlac.

"Often after meals I would double up with pains in my stomach. I got so I could eat only a few mouthfuls of food at a time. My condition became pitiful.

"My whole system was run down. I was cross, nervous and had a complete nervous panic.

"Then I started to take Tanlac. Now look," and Mr. Flanagan again called attention to his healthy, rosy complexion.

"I'm gained in weight, too," he continued. "This ought to tell you what I think of Tanlac and how sincerely and truthfully I recommend it to the people of Cincinnati.

"My health worries are all gone and I now feel better than I have felt for years."
