Why not have a hospital in Carlisle?

Sheriff W. T. Parker has been selected by the Governor to take charge of the estate of Frank Feebach deceased.

The Mercury failed to state last week that Messrs. Isaks and Norton, made the sale of the N. B. Linville property near this city.

Several Moorefield citizens cleared their walks and pavements after the snow Friday, from Moorefield to Carlisle with the use of the road scraper contracts.

The Fiscal Court met Saturday and ordered pull-list part of the road contract now due out of the 20 per cent. retained by the county on these contracts.

Some one spread a big biscuits bread contract Tuesday night and six casinos died in great agony Wednesday. The spreader of the poison should feel proud of his work.

Several merchants are quoting clover seed $12.50 the bu., timothy $4 the bu. and red top $4 the bu. and $5 the bu. These prices are similar to those of last year.

Postmaster Tilton says it pays to advertise. He advertised for his names ring in The Mercury and found it next day Carlisle had to himself the reward offered.

"Please take my paper out; I have sold my business," writes a Millersburg man after his advertisement in this paper had appeared one time in The Mercury. It pays to advertise and pays it always pays to advertise in The Mercury.

The Bryson Farm Agency made the following sales last week: Frank Bramel, of Carlisle, sold his 60 acre farm of Marion Ockerman to George Busby, and T. B. Ockerman to Mrs. Dave Scott to Marion Ockerman.

Mr. S. W. Keller, of Lexington, has been appointed assessor for Bourbon county and will enter upon his duties the first of March. He will be a Republican candidate for Internal Revenue Collector for Hon. Ben Marshall in Lexington and is going to accept the latter position.

Messrs. J. C. Taylor, F. M. Bishop and M. A. Gaunce have been appointed to appraise the estate of the late Frank Feebach. The estate consists of a farm, stock, farming implements and household effects. Mr. Feebach, Briefly is administrator of the estate.

Dr. T. F. Hutchings, Dr. W. G. Irvin, and Mr. J. W. Howard were all in Lexington on last Thursday night at which time the Queen of Council was conferred upon each of the above by Grand Master Hon. Ben Ingram, and Hiram Council of Lexington.

Farris Brothers, who was appointed Deputy Jailer under John Harvey during the past week, tendered his resignation Monday and Sanford Hutchinson was appointed in his stead. Mr. Brothers has resigned his position and a position at the A. J. Myers restaurant.

While working on the residence of A. E. Trumbo, in Moorefield, Monday, the scaffold on which Mr. Will Tapp was standing broke and he fell a distance of eight feet, sufficient to stagger him and cause the loss of blood of which he has since been confined to his room.

County Road Engineer, James Norton, and Squire Thomas Harney returned Saturday from their trip to Frankfort where they went to attend the Good Roads Convention. It is said that more than four hundred enthusiastic road men were in attendance at the meeting.

The financial statement just issued of the Young Men's Bible Class, Carlisle Christian Church Sunday School, shows that the Class was organized in 1916 the sum of $30.51, the largest amount ever taken in by any class not being $15.00 organized by Mrs. Cloda Moore, to Midway Female Orphan School.

When the funeral procession accompanying the body of David Howard reached the creek on the Millers Station pike, Sunday, the stream was found to be so swollen that it was slow down and the funeral delayed for a distance of one hundred and fifty yards. Planks were laid over the cattle guards to enable the cars to pass.

Mr. and Mrs. Jno. F. Firth were guests of their daughter, Mrs. A. T. Hall, of Millersburg, last week. Mr. and Mrs. Hall, their two little children will spend a month with her parents in the near future. Mrs. Firth's home now home is Mississippi, where Mr. Hilbish has recently secured a plantation and will engage in agricultural pursuits.

On last Thursday evening about eight o'clock, the old Bank building, owned by P. C. Taylor, collapsed under the weight of the snow and badly damaged several automobiles that were standing under the shed. The damage would have been much greater had it not been that two large auto trucks held the heavy weight from the smaller machines that were only slightly damaged. The entire roof gave way under the weight of the snow and will have to be replaced by several blocks. Nothing was done that evening toward removing the machines but the next morning a large force of men soon removed the wreckage.

As stated above the property was owned by P. C. Taylor and the loss will easily exceed $600. Mr. Taylor stated to The Mercury that he will not rebuild.

"A Day at Coney Island," presented by local talent, under auspices of the Carlisle Fire Department, was indeed enjoyed by two large audiences at the Orpheum Theatre on last Friday and Saturday nights. The general expression was that it was the best entertainment performance ever given here.

The entertainment was good from the first to the last and all in the cast did their respective parts well. It would be difficult to single out any one of the cast for special comment. Mr. Wm. Hinton, as Uncle Josh Perkins, was splendid; Mr. H. T. Mann as Hiram Hicks, Mrs. Keller Donnell as Mandy Perkins, his wife, Miss Lucy Potts as Mary Hicks, their daughter, and Mrs. Lucy Lettin as Mrs. Hicks, their son, were all that could be expected. Mr. G. F. Tropleton as Mr. Davis, Mrs. Lucille Ketchum as Miss Wynona McKee as Tootsie Ketchum, were good, and with the above named took the leading parts in the play. The specialties between acts were good, pleased both audiences. Mr. E. J. Beers as policeman, was clever. Miss Anita McKee as Mrs. Henry Peek, and Mr. Nathan Young as Henry Peek, both were splendid. All the musical numbers were enjoyed, and the entire process fairly covered itself with glory.

The Fire Department cleared about $70.00.

Local candidates for the office of Sheriff may rest easy. The Attorney General has ruled that the promise to appoint an assistant or deputy in the event of election is not a violation of the Corrupt Practices Act.

Editor: Do you know how to run a newspaper?

Applicant: No, sir.

Editor: Well, I'll try you. I guess you've had experience.

A Nicholas corres-pondent writing in the Cynthiana Democrat says that we will have no more arrests here until after the August Primary, nearly all the present county officials having candidates for re-election. Perhaps; but we would advise him not to start anything in an effort to prove his claim.

Congressman Langley has been named "Duke of Hazard," because he has secured an appropriation of $42,000 for a post-office building at Hazard, Ky. The naming was done by Democratic Congressional aspirations by unanimous vote. Wonder how "Duke of Carlisle" would sound to our Fiscal Court.

Says Enoch Grehan, writing in the Lexington Herald, about "The Daughter of the Gods": "Her appearance (Miss Katherine Kelly) with a raiment on exactly for pictures, and sometimes too all-revealing, pair, parents in every instance study in those who seek only the artistic and in Gods masterpiece, a woman of perfect form."

Oh, Enoch! We always thought you artistic, but we didn't know. By the way, this play seems to have developed considerable artistic appreciation among the male population of our village.

Hear what John Wanamaker says: "Our little allowance of advertising money was not a success, although it was as it goes nearly altogether today, because it is not the money that pays for discovering anything it will be for finding out that the only advertising of direct value is the advertising the merchant and customer is in the newspaper. All other is a waste of and vexation of spirit. To have learned this has had greatly helped my enterprises."

And yet we have known merchants who would pay good money to have their names painted on a fence and say they couldn't afford to advertise in their county newspaper.

GORE SAW PULPBACCO

A Home man who chewed 20 cents' worth of tobacco a week contended to say a tobacco cure, says the Home, Ky., Democrat. He was taken to see $1.50 worth of the cure, and for the next two weeks, ate 5 cents' worth of gum, 5 cents' worth of candy, 5 cents' worth of ice cream a day. During the two weeks he also consumed two large rubber erasers, ate the rubber from two foreman lead pencils, chewed up a dozen pen holders and browsed off his mustache as far as he could reach. He is now chewing tobacco that is the interest of economy.

WAIT MAKES ON ADVERTISING

I asked eight dollars and a half for one find wheat. Fisher Angus said, when price was not too high; I hoped it would, I bustled it east, endeavoring to sell Miss Katherine to buy. Day after day I toiled along; and bored men with the old sad song. Then said a friend, Oh, rest your feet, and quit your weary pace on the street, and howling by the year; spend fifty cents and advertise your newest off row of pocket size, and buyers will appear." I followed up the same advice, and pop my jaded feet on low; and when the ad appeared, ten customers came to my gate; one bought the cart and paid the freight, the others looked and roared. And thus by printing little ads, the wise man gathers in the cash.

Have a few Buggy Robes that will sell cheap. Tilton Bros. & Roberts.
