Captain Leslie Vickers

Of the British Army An Extra Attraction Carlisle Chautauqua

A Hero of the Great War CAPTAIN LESLIE VICKERS is one of the members of the famed English Expeditionary Force sent to France to help hold back the Germans in the early part of the war...

HE WAS WOUNDED for the second time in the great battle of Loos, and after eight months in the hospitals he was invalided from the service, being rendered unfit for further active military duty.

HE CAME TO AMERICA to tell of the conditions as he found them in England and France - of his own experience as a fighting officer of the Highlanders - a story of the hardships, horrors and the greatest glory of war fought in behalf of Liberty - a graphic, vivid, real.

CAPTAIN VICKERS WAS ADDED to the Chautauqua program to take to mention him in the Program Booklets and Herald. Arrange to get booklets early and you'll be sure to hear Captain Vickers and all the others.
