Locals.

98 If you are going away or anyone is visiting you, or anything happens, phone us.

TONIGHT -- THURSDAY

Farnsworth, "Victory of Conscience," with Leo Tellegen an Cleo Ridgely. From "Sinner to Saint."

FRIDAY—"A Law of the Lumber Jacks," and comedy.

SATURDAY—A Triangle. A Big war picture, "The Dawn of Freedom," Charles Ray and all star supporting cast. Also a two reel comedy. Judging by the news we have printed for some time you will know what to do.

MONDAY — Fairmount. Fannie Ward in "Fools Feet a Tear." You should see this picture.

TUESDAY—We are going to give you a special matinee today.

WEDNESDAY — Blackbird, "The Price of Silence." A good one.

Listen! We are going to present one of the best pictures ever shown on the screen. It is a picture that you will be interested in from the beginning to the end. There are many heart throbbing scenes. Now if you want your children to see a picture that will be a benefit to them bring them. Also a good picture for father and mother. If you don't care to see the various scenes you may know what you are made of. We will present George Beban in "The Alien," a reele. "In the next picture, which for the date, Dec. 31st, there will be a big surprise.

LYRIC THEATRE.

Next Wednesday is Decoration Day

Your patriotic duty—buy a Liberty Loan Bond.

If you have a second-hand porch swing for sale, call Hite office.

Lewis T. Cole, of Robertson county, died last Monday, following a brief illness of consumption.

Two girls and a boy, children of C. E. Bangs, have been ill with scarlet fever, the past week.

The case of Home Honor Insurance Company vs. Dunlley was affirmed Tuesday in the Court of Appeals.

It thundered on the 23rd of February, which forewarned us of the cool spell this week, like it usually does.

L. S. Hughes was appointed Trustee of the Jury Fund this week, to succeed the late Harmon Gooch, deceased.

The case of Herman Ockerman, charged with highway robbery, also was continued to two years in the State Circuit Court, it has been reported.

We will the best shoes sold in the County. Walk Over, Barker Brown and "Boy Scouts."

COLE & TUNE

We are expecting another Carload of ANHALAD HOUSE SHOES before they sell fast. You'll have to hurry to get them. ANHALAD AGENCY.

Real Estate Agent C. T. Bramblett, sold for Howard Shipley, his residence property in Cynthiana, to J. Brack Conley, formerly of Bourbon, for $7,500.

Main St. Garage has brought in one Hudson Super Six and an Oakland Six this week. Also have sold a Hudson Super Six to Mr. J. C. Hamilton, already delivered.

R. P. Rogers, of Robertson county, purchased the J. P. Dunlap farm in Nicholas county at a price of $116 per acre, which he said to be one of the best farms in Nicholas county.

The grand jury adjourned Wednesday afternoon, after returning 34 indictments, several of these are said to be against the Adam's Express Company delivering liquor to a minor.

Hail as large as two and one-half inches in diameter fell in some parts of Bourbon and a wide swathe of corn, shocking greenhouse windows and damaging fruit and growing meadow in that section.

Representative Reuben Hutchcraft of Bourbon county, has passed a successful examination for officers' reserve training and is now at Camp Benjamin Harrison, Indianapolis, in training.

Mr. Coleman Barnes of Ellisville, employed on the farm of P. M. Hanson was painfully injured by lightning while handling wood. The horses were also struck but only the hame on one breaking his left limb and badly crushing it.

Announcement was made at the graduating exercises at the Millersburg Female College that Miss Gladys Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Brown, had made the highest average of any student in the college during the past year.

The committee appointed by Judge Mitchell, which went to Frankfort last week to appear before the Board of Valuation and Assessment, succeeded in having the assessment on town property reduced 10 per cent. and on county property 5 per cent.

There are 17 regular boarders at the county jail and the capacity of that well known and popular resort is being somewhat taxed. Most of the guests are purveyors of liquid refreshments, by reason of which several of them are being given a free vacation at the expense of the county.

General W. H. Robb, of Helena, Commander of the First Kentucky Brigade, Confederate Veterans, was in Lexington Tuesday in connection with Frank L. Taylor, who is appointed on the staff of Governor A. O. Stanley, as regard to the parade in Louisville and Washington City, 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th of June. Mr. Taylor will go with him, leaving Carlisle Sunday, the 3rd.

Mr. Jas. L. Donnell fell on the pavement in front of Hotel Carlisle on Monday and broke his left arm. Dr. Reed it was feared that he had suffered a serious case of paralysis of the left, developed later that weakness from his recent accident with a fall. He was able to be up town Wednesday and Dr. Reed says he is glad to learn that he is much better.

Avis Pollard, a young white man, was arrested Tuesday by Sheriff Parker, on a charge of house-breaking and grand larceny, it is said, he broke into the confectionery store of Artie Wiggins Saturday night, taking three cakes of biscuit and a couple of hams, selling the meat later at Millersburg. The ham, it is said, that he was eating when he met an elegy around Colonel Speed's trial for murder, and identified it as one of the hams sold for the special benefit of the defense.

Personal

—Mrs. D. R. Fleming, of Mount Sterling, was the guest of Mrs. Lee Ross Monday.

—Mrs. Logan Anderson is ill with typhoid fever.

—Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hedges, of Paris, returned home Sunday after a visit to relatives in this county.

—Mr. William Kelsey Cowan was here Sunday.

—Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Hedges, of Paris, visited Mr. Hedges' father, Depot Monday.

—Mrs. Margie Mosley, of Paris, was the guest of Mrs. Lee Ross Monday.

—Mrs. Richard Hall, of Paris, was the guest of Mrs. Lee Ross Monday.

—Mr. Robert Hedges, of Paris, was here Monday.

—Mrs. Will Parker, of Paris, visited Mrs. Wright Monday.

—Mrs. W. H. Hall, of Paris, was here Monday with relatives.

—Mrs. W. Hedges, of Paris, spent the day with relatives here.

—Miss Dolly Hedges, of Paris, is home after a visit to Lexington.

—Mrs. Lizzie Peed, of Paris, is here from a several months visit to her daughter Mrs. Lee Ross, of Sharpsburg.

—Miss Eunice Mosley, of Paris, spent Monday here.

—Miss Margaret Fretwell, of Paris, is visiting relatives here.

—Miss Mabel Adams, of Paris, is the guest of Mrs. Lee Ross.

—Mrs. W. J. Hedges, of Paris, is here for a visit to her daughter Mrs. Thomas.

—Mr. H. T. Hedges, of Paris, was here Monday on business.

—Mrs. Hedges, of Paris, is here for a visit to her daughter Mrs. Lee Ross.

—Mrs. Hedges, of Paris, spent Monday here.

—Miss Nellie Fretwell, of Paris, is here for a visit to her daughter Mrs. Lee Ross.

—Mrs. Mollie Adams, of Paris, is here for a visit to her daughter Mrs. Lee Ross.

—Miss Jessie Hedges, of Paris, is here for a visit to her daughter Mrs. Lee Ross.

—Miss Mary Vaughn, of Paris, is here for a visit to her daughter Mrs. Lee Ross.

—Mrs. Hedges, of Paris, is here for a visit to her daughter Mrs. Lee Ross.

—Mrs.