It's Quicker—It's Better It's Far More Economical

Mrs. Jackson's warm and cheery when I come to get bread. No first to build—no time lost chopping kindling—no hot coals to pile on the wood shed for fueling—no open draft and in a jiffy breakfast is steaming on the table.

Don't put on the roof until you investigate

It is poor economy to save money by substituting something inferior but wouldn't you like to save on one if you could get something better?

Certain-teed Roofing

Before its merits were recognized, full roofing was regarded as a more or less temporary roof...
