Buffalo, N. Y., Nov. 11.—Get together and win the world fight for peace! Those were the chief demands of President Wilson in his address before the American Federation of Labor in convention here.

He praised the general trend of the labor movement and declared it clear for improving in every way the condition of labor, but he warned against obstruction of energy by strikes during the war said the futility of the pacifists and the wiles of Germany.

"This is a great privilege and a great honor," said the president, "to gladly accepted the invitation because it seems to me that it was a welcome opportunity to speak to you some of the thoughts which have been gathering in my mind for the past few months. I would be glad if you regard me, not as the president, but as a fellow citizen.

Causes of War.

"I think that in order to realize of just what moment this counsel is, it would be well to remind ourselves just how and why this war came about.

"The war was started by Germany. Her authors deny it, but I am willing to abide the verdict of mankind. Why did Germany start the war? Because the position of Germany in the world. The whole world stood in friendly relations with Germany and the setting railroad cars of coal.

USING CRUMBS TO ADVANTAGE

Careful Housekeeper Will Employ Them to Many Ways—Material for Cottage.

There is nothing new in the idea of using bread crumbs in cooking and many housekeepers are in the habit of saving scraps on hand to use for croquettes, scalloped dishes, for crumbing meat, in puddings, etc. The crumbs should be sifted and the fine crumbs saved to be kept in one jar, the coarse crumbs in another.

Coarse crumbs may be used for puddings, while the fine crumbs are used for other purposes.

Bread pudding is a favorite dish with many persons and is economical. Soak two cupfuls of bread crumbs in water; add two cupfuls of milk, two eggs, one cupful of sugar, one teaspoonful of salt and one teaspoonful of vanilla. Bake in a moderate oven.

Bread crumbs may be used to advantage in making croquettes. Add to Miss Anne Lehigh of New Orleans.

UNCLE SAM ENCOURAGED

Washington, Nov. 12.—Public eating houses, which include hotels, restaurants, dining cars, clubs and passenger steamships, have given their hearty and voluntary co-operation to the hotel division of the United States food administration in all parts of the country and the results are highly encouraging. Ninety per cent of the first-class hotels in the United States have signed the pledge card of the food administration, and the others are coming into line. Although the movement for a meatless Tuesday and a wheatless Wednesday was not started until late in September, it has been generally accepted and is becoming the rule rather than the exception.

FIGHT ON POISON MINDS OF PEOPLE

WAS MADE IN ALL SECTIONS OF KENTUCKY DURING RECENT CAMPAIGN.

FALSE RUMORS CIRCULATED

Charges Were Made That Army Draft Was Used For Political Purposes—Bitter Cross Arrives Instead of the Tongue of Bl.oder—Ruralists Misled.

—Frankfort.

Every lie ever incubated by the disloyal eminsaries was worn threadbare for campaign purposes in every community during the recent county campaigns, according to statements made by persons coming to the Capital from every section of the state. In some communities they were brazenly effective; because their views whispered and broadcast the more strength to the cause. In one public service has been illuminated little. The Confederate veteran was up-to-date enough to know that the soldiers' orphan appropriation was a special service for the example is daily presented in the persons of the Confederate widows. Judge Miller states the opinion, in which court sitting, and Judges Sampson dissenting, reversing the judgment circuit court in the case of President H. B. Barker against Frank Crum and other students.

The law provides that the county superintendent may grant a free scholarship on competitive examination to one student for each 3,000 white scholastic population, and one for each 1,500 or fraction thereof additional; but each county is entitled to at least one. The scholarship includes railroad fare, tuition, board, lodging and fuel.

The court held that this discrimination in favor of certain pupils over the others, and is prohibited, though the custom has existed since 1891. Judge Miller somewhat takes interesting legal history in connection with the question. The system of state public service has been illuminated little. The Confederate veteran was up-to-date enough to know that the soldiers' orphan appropriation was a special service for the example is daily presented in the persons of the Confederate widows. Judge Miller observes, the theory limited special privileges and appropriations to compensation and salary for a public office, and the service having relation to the duties of the office, and the service having relation to the duties of the office, and the service having relation to the duties of the legislature to grant any compensation to any person for services rendered or to add to that which had been fixed and declared by law.

This was brought out in legislative discussions during the session granted by the General Assembly in 1916 to the Confederate veterans, the first Chief Justice of the State to ask a full term, Thomas Hickman in 1792, and became almost blind and paralyzed in 1808, and became almost blind and paralyzed in 1808, and the General Assembly passed a resolution of respect to his memory, but it was not considered proper to pension he thought right would be paid.

Lesley Not Disqualified.

In the opinion of Attorney General Bullock, Superintendent of Public Instruction for the General Assembly holds some of the Secret Service officers in the state. The votes cast for him in the election was held to have all accumulated by his resignation. No action taken by any Republican Governor since the beginning of the war has caused such a sensation of criticism, speculation and symptoms of uneasiness as the appointment and the formation of an Executive Council, composed of Democrats, by Governor Stanley. Frankfort was filled with a military committee representing the various factions of the state at Versailles.

LICENSING OF DEALERS IN FOOD WILL BE ORDERED

Creation Issues Statement of Law's Application to Those Doing Business in Food Products.

Columbus, O.—A statement was issued by State Food Administrator Scott, in connection with the creation of licensing section of the food control bill, which will be effective Dec. 1, in which the state's duties in connection with the law are set forth. The statement, which was issued by the Food Administration in the states will be the basis followed by the Ohio administration. The statement as to the work of the licensing section of the law is as follows:

"1. To limit the prices charged by those who are engaged in commerce over expenses and forbid the acquisition of undue profits on the part of dealers.

"2. To keep all food commodities moving in as direct a war and with as few profits as is consistent with good business.

"3. To limit as far as practicable the profits of middlemen who take no part in future contracts.

"4. To prevent any charge methods of business heretofore customary—especially the practice of withholding goods for sale to such an extent as tends to create a scarcity and thereby raise the price.

"5. To make also provides means by which merchants in these commodities on hand at the time the law goes into effect may be required to dispose of their stocks at prices not in excess of those which are required to maintain a license to continue their business."

London, Nov. 12.—Two French shipping through mines or submarines for the week ending November 11, was announced today. Three vessels of 1,600 tons and no vessels of more than 1,600 tons were sunk.

Scholarships Are Prohibited.

Scholarships are prohibited. Provision for free scholarships can be granted in the University of Kentucky, Judge Miller states, to the following states, providing for at least one scholarship from each county in accordance, the court of appeals holds in the case of Barker against Crum in the 1917 session of the legislature granting of special scholarships and exemptions to any person or class of persons excepting for public services. Judge Miller states the opinion, in which court sitting, and Judges Sampson dissenting, reversing the judgment circuit court in the case of President H. B. Barker against Frank Crum and other students.

What the Stick Was For.

Big brother had come home in a rage and with a swagger stick, which interested little brother Charlie very much, especially the swagger stick.

"What is that stick for?" asked Charlie.

"Oh, just to provoke the girls," said big brother.

Later Charlie had occasion to borrow that big brother's stick "to poke the girls with."

The point is not a place for controversy, but for instruction.

Revocation of Exemptions and Discharges

OFFICIAL SEAL GIVEN TO FIVE CLASSES IN WHICH DRAFTEES ARE DIVIDED.

Married Men as Such Are Not Exempt, but Are Placed Far Down in List of Eligibles—More Than 2,000,000 Expected in First List.

Washington.—The questionnaire to be used for registration of men between the ages of 21 and 31 in the selective draft was made public by the provost marshal general's office. It is a comprehensive document, calling for information as to the number of persons dependent upon the registrant for support, his family relations, his habits, his previous military service, his personal history and his industrial status.

Questions are asked as to whether the registrant is a married man, a father, a widower with children, a man who has habitually supported his parents, a man who has a brother or sister dependent upon him, a man who has a person other than a parent dependent upon him for support, a man who has a child born out of wedlock for which he is responsible
