MOST IMPORTANT NEWS OF WORLD

BIG HAPPENINGS OF THE WEEK CUT TO LAST ANALYSIS.

DOMESTIC AND FOREIGN ITEMS

Kernels Culled From Events of Month in All Parts of the World Of Interest to All the People Everywhere.

U.S.—Teutonic War News

Enlisted men of the National army, National Guard and regular army will be given furloughs opportunity to fit themselves for commissions, it was learned at Washington.

• • •

The possibility that Austria and perhaps other allies of Germany may soon declare war against the United States because of the financial aid given to Italy is recognized by administration officials at Washington.

• • •

That the United States will reject the peace proposals of Austria-Hungary because they have failed to take into consideration the necessity for the overthrow of Germany's autocracy, is considered certain. Simultaneously with the intimation that the reply to the pope will go forward this week, the state department made public the text of a ratification of Austria's note sent to president to the great council of the Russian people, now in session in Petrograd.

• • •

The first coach of an American naval fleet to be trained on land was established at Washington in officers' training camp at Georgetown university. The new George Herbert Mumby, 22, was killed in an airplane accident recently.

• • •

Capt. Cyrus W. Crooks, master of the American bark Dreadnaught, which was sunk by a German submarine August 7 near the Azores, says he was told by the German commander that he "hated to sink a ship as fine as that."

• • •

A catalogue compiled by the Harvard Alumni bulletin at Cambridge, shows about 15,000 former students and undergraduates engaged in war work. Nearly every page bears the asterisk that designates death in action.

• • •

Unpatriotic utterances, especially by men of prominence, are more likely to be due to a wrong attitude of mind than an error of the mind, according to an interview with William Jennings Bryan in Chicago.

• • •

By direction of President Wilson all Washington precautions were marked upon when his wife is actually dependent or who has children, will be exempted from the draft art. Only 5 per cent of the men drawn for the new national army will be sent to camp on September 1, instead of 30 per cent, as previously ordered.

• • •

The officers' reserve range at which men are to be sent to camp will be 500 and not of 500,000 trained soldiers of the National army opened at Fort Sheridan, Ill.

Domestic

The police raided the Hamilton Inn, a resort in New York and arrested the head and the two employees on charges of abiding as prisoners American soldiers in order to claim $50 reward offered in such case of a deserter delivered to his camp.

• • •

Peaceful settlement of labor disputes involving longshoremen was forecast at Washington by the appointment of a board representing the war department, the shipping board, the Longshoremen's association and the principal employers to handle all disputes and appoint local boards to principal ports.

• • •

A contract for 1,071,000 gas masks to equip the army has been awarded to a manufacturer of rubber goods in Middlebury. The contract calls for an expenditure of $1,500,000. The government will furnish the material.

• • •

Capt. Joseph W. Mattes of Battery A, Second Missouri field artillery, killed for the State and Serpens in the Missouri river near Kansas City, Mo., was buried.

• • •

Herbert C. Hoover, federal food administrator, told the farmers of the nation and the people of the world that the United States and its allies will not be the victims of agricultural failures of the administration's policies, declared that the people of