MOST IMPORTANT NEWS OF WORLD

BIG HAPPENINGS OF THE WEEK CUT TO LAST ANALYSIS.

DOMESTIC AND FOREIGN ITEMS

Kerwin Called From Events of Manned in All Parts of the Worldof Interest to All the People Everywhere.

U.S.—Teutonic War News

Not fewer than 500,000 American troops, it is believed by military experts at Washington, will be ready to take their place in the battle line in France by withdrawal of the German attack or to assist in a counter-attack. General March said he had no such information.

• • •

"Wherever in the present ground held by the Germans, whatever sacrifice of men the situation must entail the allies will now fit themselth and will win," said Herbert Hoover, recently added, at a meeting of the food administration.

• • •

"Entirely new on this warfare, the movement—and this is the first time it occurs in the battle of the Somme," says a wounded French captain who has been brought back to Paris from the battlefield. He is quoted in Le Liberte.

• • •

A message from David Lloyd George, premier of Great Britain, ending upon the United States to send "American re-enforcements across the Atlantic in the greatest possible space of time" was read to Lord Reading, British high commissioner to the United States, at a dinner given in New York by his home.

• • •

Washington has been informed officially that General Earl, the French chief of staff, has been appointed to supreme command of all the allied and American forces in France.

• • •

With the American Army in France as a separate unit, the appointment of a supreme military commander, a generalissimo of the three arms, had four points to be from a German outpost guard. The Americans quietly slipped up behind and routed the Germans. Many of the men are said to have killed when they refused to halt.

• • •

The resolution amending the selective draft act by inserting provision of youths twenty-one years above June 5, 1917, and extending the age limit to 31 years, was signed by President Wilson. It was sent to the house.

• • •

The war department at Washington announced the following casualties from General Pershing: "Since cable of our resources available and our divisions will be most of months French are in fire quiet and look armies were confident."

• • •

Philips Collins of Exeter, a member of the Lafayette Escadrille, has been killed in an air fight on the French front, it was announced at Paris.

Domestic

• • •

The United States government building program for ships, launchings by 12,000 tons, the shipping board announced, but fell short in deliveries because of shortage of steel plates. Thirty hulls of 222,700 tons were put into the water and thirty vessels of 167,300 tons were completed.

• • •

During the first month of operation of the railroads by the government, beginning February 29, the operating expenses aggregated $170,231,835, an increase of $20,000,000 over the last month of private operation.

• • •

The management of the Boston Symphony orchestra announced the resignation of Dr. Karl Muck as conductor, to take effect April 30.

• • •

The Smith-Sears bond company announced at Boston that its office, effective April 30, an increase of approximately 5 per cent will be made in the general listed rate to all the company's clients.

• • •

President Wilson has telegraphed Governor Stephens of California, urging executive clemency for Thomas J. Mooney, now under sentence of death, because known at Sacramento, Cal.

• • •

Fifty-three persons were killed and 200 injured when a Pennsylvania railroad passenger train crashed into a freight train at Gallitzin, Pa., the latter's engineer having failed to heed a signal to stop.

• • •

Flames which broke out in the Forbes building at Chicago, occupied by the Western Electric company, caused damage estimated at $1,000,000.

• • •

Flames completed at Washington the work of destroying the Bureau of Engraving and Printing building, which was the main target for the German bombing planes.

• • •

Negotiations for the transfer of the Danish West Indies to the United States have been completed at Washington and the treaty will be signed by the secretary of state.

• • •

Five hundred of the leading hotel men of the country met at Chicago to form a permanent hotel administrative association. Among the new plans of action are the establishment of school products until next harvest. Herbert Hoover announced a complete system of food conservation.

• • •

Hoover announced a complete system of food conservation.

European War News

• • •

Capture of Bapaume on an eight-mile frontal attack west of the Somme river was announced at London. The order was announced at London. The order was announced by Lieutenant General Sir Douglas Haig. Many officers have been notified to join the colors. Many officers have been notified to join the colors.

• • •

After doing epic dying at Fort Vaux, the French have driven the Germans from the fort, which they had captured in June, it was announced at London.

• • •

Chairman Hurley of the shipping board announced that the submarine toll in the Atlantic and Pacific, including all vessels sunk by mines or submarines or with which submarines were in contact, was 1,028,924 tons of shipping, or 1,028,924 tons of shipping, or 1,028,924 tons of shipping, or