Kentucky News Cullings

An epitome of most important events transpiring in adjacent state.

Maysville—Thirty-two high school girls have organized a music club and are with their songs this year.

Winchester—The test levy for school purposes in Clark county has been changed from 10 to 15 cents by a vote of the County School Board.

Hartsdobord—Clare Goddard has been appointed postmaster. Goddard had interest in the old Deatherage Cut bain property, which was owned jointly by his wife and Mrs. Hartin.

Louisville—Carl F. Basde, who is stationed at the marine barracks, Parris Island, S. C., has received a silver medal as an expert rifleman, having made a record of 220 out of a possible 250. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Basde, of Louisville.

Paducah—The Coroner's jury investigating the death of Mrs. Lucy Bolton, who was shot and killed, returned a verdict that her husband, Jesse Bolton, be held to the grand jury without bail. Mrs. Bolton died from gunshot wounds.

Lexington—Captain V. G. Mullins was granted judgment against Richard Kinkead in circuit court for the sum of $746.75. The suit grew out of an automobile accident in which Captain Mullins was injured last year when Kinkead's car and his car collided.

Frankfort—Governor Stanley refused the bill prohibiting the teaching of German in the public schools. The measure was opposed by the Louisville Board of Education, but received a majority vote in both houses. It did not stop the teaching of German in private schools and universities.

Lexington—Five hundred and twenty-eight dollars and twenty-nine cents has been received by the county clerk from Frankfort with which to pay off the father mule by Fayette county for sheep killed by dogs during 1917. The claims amounted to $1,077.29 and the state has paid 14 cents on the dollar.

Frankfort—Regardless of how much income a person may have he will be a vagrant in Kentucky during the war unless he works thirty-six hours every week under the Morrison act which is now a law. Governor Stanley should proceed one vagrancy bill that will put the state's finances to become a law without his signature.

Winchester—A call was made by Chairman D. T. Mallard, of the Red Cross, and Mrs. E. M. Stoker, secretary of the Executive Committee, to the Daughters of the American Revolution and the United Daughters of the Confederacy, requesting them to conduct a campaign in this city for the purpose of collecting clothes for the Belgians.

Frankfort—Information has been received to the effect that the new form of trust agreement prepared by the State Highway Association has been approved by the Department of Agriculture and that the first check for $5,000 comes from Buncombe county that the differences there with the state in the conflicting notes has been satisfactorily adjusted.

Whitesburg—Walter Ward, a Pike county miner, accused of having recently attacked with making treasonable remarks against the government of the United States, was taken to Catlettsburg, where he will be held pending trial on the United States Court for the Eastern district. A number of witnesses have been summoned from Pike county.

Harrodsburg—Mrs. Jackson, principal of the Harrodsburg High School, has been dismissed by the Superintendent Mary Bradley, of Danville, upon the charge of attendance upon and favoring the government, which, the superintendent stated, made her unfit person to conduct the school here, notified Dale Superintendent Ed. Gilbert, who promptly approved her action.

Harrodsburg—Bruce Twomey has found that there is no place in the world but it took several thousand dollars to make the discovery. Twomey has said his 224-acre farm near this place to Lewis Stone at $120 an acre on the installment he traveled over several countries and found no place he would leave to locate. Now he has found the place he has owned at an advance of $2,000, but does not get possession until next January.

Glasgow—Put up your hands and two will come down. With three weeks gone by the two that threw a peculiar twist to the ball in the game between the first champions of the Glasgow Boy Scouts and the Cavemen Co. 1 team at Franklin Furnace, it appears, will not be turned over until the last inning.

Paris—The city of Paris is acting under the advice of its consulting electrical engineer, Mr. Hunter, of Cincinnati, Ohio, notified the Paris Electric Light, Power and Heating Co. that a demand for any increase of rates in private consumers.

Paducah—Mr. Lucy Bolton, 27 years old, died at the home of her father from wounds received. Her husband, Jesse Bolton, 30 years old, is in the county jail charged with the murder. He refused to talk to the police or to their officers in charge of the case.

Madisonville—The Madisonville Ministerial Association is objected to by certain parties who have been selling soft drinks to Red Cross camps. A committee has been appointed to confer with the parties concerned.

ASSORTED INFORMATION.

Edwin A. Stallings personally consigned 32 years as chief director and accountant of the New Jerusalem church in Providence.

Nux vomica beans, from which strychnine is made, grow on a tree related to the borax. native to the tropics of Asia and Australia.

The French government is paid $10 a year by the German. For a marriage license, $60 a year, and the American soldier gets $30 a month, or $360 a year.

Every household in Italy saves all the odd bits of paper. These are collected in tin or red baskets and bundled into pot in the sun to dry. They will be used for fuel when the cold weather comes.

Ink has a handsome street in Brooklyn named for it. Ink street runs between Columbia street and Hicks street, and there used to be an old homestead on the corner of the two streets, which was owned by the Inkmans.

Winchester—Tobacco growers in Clark county are showing a keen interest in the new Burley tobacco pool which will be organized here next week. Many growers have signified their intention of joining the pool and it is believed that a large acreage will be signed up.

Winchester—Harriet Washington, negro, 80 years old, was burned to death when her home, near Troy, this county, was destroyed by fire. She was in her house alone and it is not known how the fire originated.

Whitesburg—It is announced here that Judge Lewis Hall, of the Letcher circuit court, has ordered a commissioner to somewhat handicapped sewing up the affairs of the late firm of Hall and Hall, and that some of the big coal properties are only operating three or four days a week.

Greenup—Wayne Cooper, a South Portsmouth youth, has received a letter from Secretary of War Baker and Food Commissioner Hoover, in the one can life be saved the life of a child which Secretary Baker's mother lives in Portsmouth, from being run down by a train.

Carlisle—The farmers of Nicholas county held a mass meeting here for the purpose of organizing a county farm bureau. It was decided that 2,000 bushels will be necessary to plant the crops contemplated and that as far as known only about 1,000 bushels are now available.

Louisville—One court in jail was the sentence imposed by a jury in the Criminal Court here on Thomas Jefferson Jones, alias Anderson, for breaking and entering. Attention to the fact that there is a vagrancy law in Kentucky which will be invoked against any loafer for whose bond no friend can be found.

Lexington—Chief of Police Bradley has called attention to the fact that there is a vagrancy law in Kentucky and the father made by Fayette County for sheep killed by dogs during 1917. The claims amounted to $1,077.29 and the state has paid 14 cents on the dollar.

Frankfort—Governor Stanley refused the bill prohibiting the teaching of German in the public schools. The measure was opposed by the Louisville Board of Education, but received a majority vote in both houses. It did not stop the teaching of German in private schools and universities.

Lexington—Five hundred and twenty-eight dollars and twenty-nine cents has been received by the county clerk from Frankfort with which to pay off the father mule by Fayette County for sheep killed by dogs during 1917. The claims amounted to $1,077.29 and the state has paid 14 cents on the dollar.

Frankfort—Regardless of how much income a person may have he will be a vagrant in Kentucky during the war unless he works thirty-six hours every week under the Morrison act which is now a law. Governor Stanley should proceed one vagrancy bill that will put the state's finances to become a law without his signature.

Winchester—A call was made by Chairman D. T. Mallard, of the Red Cross, and Mrs. E. M. Stoker, secretary of the Executive Committee, to the Daughters of the American Revolution and the United Daughters of the Confederacy, requesting them to conduct a campaign in this city for the purpose of collecting clothes for the Belgians.

Frankfort—Information has been received to the effect that the new form of trust agreement prepared by the State Highway Association has been approved by the Department of Agriculture and that the first check for $5,000 comes from Buncombe county that the differences there with the state in the conflicting notes has been satisfactorily adjusted.

Whitesburg—Walter Ward, a Pike county miner, accused of having recently attacked with making treasonable remarks against the government of the United States, was taken to Catlettsburg, where he will be held pending trial on the United States Court for the Eastern district. A number of witnesses have been summoned from Pike county.

Harrodsburg—Bruce Twomey has found that there is no place in the world but it took several thousand dollars to make the discovery. Twomey has said his 224-acre farm near this place to Lewis Stone at $120 an acre on the installment he traveled over several countries and found no place he would leave to locate. Now he has found the place he has owned at an advance of $2,000, but does not get possession until next January.

Glasgow—Put up your hands and two will come down. With three weeks gone by the two that threw a peculiar twist to the ball in the game between the first champions of the Glasgow Boy Scouts and the Cavemen Co. 1 team at Franklin Furnace, it appears, will not be turned over until the last inning.

Winchester—The Columbia Finance & Trust Co. has been granted a charter to do a banking business here with a capital stock of $25,000. The charter was granted by the secretary of state. Chas. Lee will have charge of the office here. The Columbia Co. is a part of Franklin Furnace, it appears, and has turned over all its bad $17.

Elkton—In the circuit court the action of the commissioners of sewers in the Pond Creek district was sustained by a verdict of Miss Hazel McIntosh against the Commissioners of Sewers. The verdict for the plaintiff for $1,000. Coleman & Coleman represented the plaintiff and Mr. C. A. Breathitt the defendant.

Paris—The city of Paris is acting under the advice of its consulting electrical engineer, Mr. Hunter, of Cincinnati, Ohio, notified the Paris Electric Light, Power and Heating Co. that a demand for any increase of rates in private consumers.

Paducah—Mr. Lucy Bolton, 27 years old, died at the home of her father from wounds received. Her husband, Jesse Bolton, 30 years old, is in the county jail charged with the murder. He refused to talk to the police or to their officers in charge of the case.

Madisonville—The Madisonville Ministerial Association is objected to by certain parties who have been selling soft drinks to Red Cross camps. A committee has been appointed to confer with the parties concerned.

IRISH PROMISED THEIR HOME RULE

BUT PREMIER LINKS ISSUE WITH CONSCRIPTION—LLOYD GEORGE PLAYED BY IRISH STATESMEN.

"We Won't Have It," Is Cry of Nationalists—Premier's Struggle May Result in Omission, Asserts Official, Who Lauds Unionist Speech.

London—It was announced in the House of Commons that the Government had decided to extend the time for the session of the next power bill. This bill was introduced in the House of Lords and the time had been lapsed and the bill had passed the first reading and second reading.

London—David Lloyd George, Prime Minister, made the boldest stroke of his career by coupling Home Rule for Ireland with the conscription of Irishmen. Then he completed disclosure in an address by Sir Edward Carson, First Lord of Commerce in presenting the conscription scheme which almost every Irish member present in debating the conscription scheme which almost every Irish member present in debating the conscription scheme which almost every Irish member present in debating