MEMORIAL WORDS UTTERED BY WILSON, FORNBERG AND JOFFE

"And I appreciate the way you do it, the necessity of such action in the final settlement of the issue of the war will not be rebuke such acts of better and gentler, but make men everywhere aware that they cannot be virtuous upon without the certainty of punishment." — President Wilson.

"I have made ample amends for the misery and sadness of yesterday and it must be a guarantee against the dangers of tomorrow. The association which has been formed for the purpose of war between the United States and the Allies which contains the seed of the permanent institution of which you have spoken as a dependency will find from this day forward a clear and profitable employment in the concerted search for equitable decision, and in the mutual support which we need if we are to make our right prevail." — President Forneberg.

"France was an immense debt of gratitude to America, which gave a victory to the world. It is with sincere joy that we see President Wilson's victory, recognizing all he did for thinking of all he has done. Thousands of French lives were saved by the intervention of the United States. It is with all my heart that I will join tomorrow in the cry of the whole French people: 'Long live the United States! Long live Wilson!'" — Marshal Joffe.
