Dan Thomas's white ram, living on our Morrison farm, weighed 270 lbs. It is said to be the largest white sheep in the county. Who can beat it?

It is alleged that Thomas told his wife that he was going to Lexington to see some words in the yard while he was away, and that he would be back in a week. Instead, he did not call at the small words that he could see in the yard.

Any sale, when Thomas told everything he had, and left for parts unknown, during which whereabouts until that they heard the wife, Era Thomas, had secured a divorce.

At the trial Friday afternoon, Thomas's attorney, Judge Kennedy, objected and insisted on being heard, and stated that she was howled about by the defendant, and that he struck at him first—with a stark pitch fork, and that he threatened and pursued him.

Judge Kennedy blamed Thomas severely for his conduct, and told him that the grand jury or the court of Nicholas county would look after him.

The day following the trial Mr. Thomas and her husband left for Ashland, separated an attachment and had the property released from levy.

The case is now in Ashland.

BASE BALL GAME

Believe me, there's going to be a big base ball game at Carlisle next Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, if the weather permits. The fast Millersburg team will play on the home grounds and the game promises to be one full of "fireworks." The battery for Carlisle is as follows:

Pitcher, Hamilton.
Catcher, Hamilton.
1st Base, Hamilton.
2nd Base, Hamilton.
3rd Base, Hamilton.
Short Stop, Hamilton.
Left Field, Hamilton.
Center Field, Hamilton.
Right Field, Hamilton.

Don't forget the date, Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and don't forget to be present.

Chesapeake and White Club to-day, Carlisle, Ky.
