Important News Events of the World Summarized.

U.S.—Teutonic War News

A dispatch from The Hague says three American prisoners of war have been exchanged for others from Germany at Ijmuiden, Holland. They are Flight Lieut. T. E. Tillinghast of Westerly, R. I.; John G. Donaldson of Washington and Robert Anderson of Honolulu.

• • •

A further advance of from one to three miles over a 35-mile front was scored by the British and Americans between Bellicourt and the victorious Hindenburg line Wednesday which broke the German defenses south and to the southeast of Valenciennes. In his report Field Marshal Haig announces that more than 7,000 prisoners were captured, 100 guns, many of them heavy pieces, were taken, and the enemy resistance was completely overcome.

• • •

European War News

Twenty-six German airplanes were brought down by the British, Field Marshal Haig says in his report to London. The British lost eleven machines.

• • •

Announcement was made in the London house of commons that since the beginning of the British campaign in France and Flanders 327,416 enemy combatants prisoners, including 140,000 Germans. There are 97,000 German combatant prisoners in the United Kingdom at the present time.

• • •

British casualties reported by London for the week numbered 22,240, compared to 21,250 the previous week. They are divided as follows: Killed or died of wounds: Officers, 436; men, 3,307. Wounded or missing: Officers, 1,141; men, 17,356.

• • •

The Paris newspaper L'Information says steps against it the following captures have been made: By the British, 220,000; by the American, 37,000; by the French, 285,000; total, 530,000.

• • •

The London war office made official announcement that British troops have aroused motorists occupied Abancourt, Monopinette.

• • •

A practical agreement has been reached between the Hungarian people and the Hungarian army to cease fighting on November 1, was stated what Austria's and Germany's attitude may be toward President Wilson's note. Information to this effect was telegraphed by a Budapest correspondent of the London Daily Express.

• • •

Italian troops have begun an offensive between the Piave and Brenta rivers in the Monte Grappa region. They have captured Zenson and the west part of the Monte Pertica, and the Austrian positions fronting the Italian fortified themselves on the line of the Cismar river and captured more than 12000 prisoners, says a Rome dispatch.

• • •

During the last eight days the prisoners taken by the allies on the western front have, greatly exceeded the allies' casualties, according to a dispatch from London.

• • •

The fortress has defeated the attempts of the enemy in the valley of the great Morava river, says an official Serbian announcement. The enemy is moving to Kossovo.

Foreign

Japanese newspapers generally commend Secretary of State Robert Lansing's note to the German peace note. The Osaki Jiji believes that the reply is tantamount to a demand for a revision in Germany.

• • •

Emperor William has no intention of abdicating but is willing, if it is for the good of the country, to waive his own rights that he reformed, accord ing to a dispatch received here from Switzerland by the Exchange Telegraph company.

• • •

The emperor is said to have consulted the leaders of the reichstag's newly tried people, but, if necessary, he is prepared to withstand the will of the hereditary premises of a German republic. That is the view of the Berlin press and Diety.

• • •

In the first month in the exchange since his release from prison, Herr Ebersen, minister of finance in the new republic is become known of The Hague, Netherlands correspondent of the London Chronicle.

• • •

An Amsterdam dispatch says that from the time the new cabinet was announced by the chancellor of Russia, was announced by the chancellor. I. 98 hour, including five priests, were shot by the Bolsheviki.

• • •

The Spanish influenza epidemic continues to spread in Paris. Municipal statistics of the last week show 1,244 deaths in the Paris region, of which 966 were officially attributed to influenza.

• • •

Mgr Henry Crosby Emery, Episcopal bishop of Southern Ohio, died Friday morning of New York, where he was made a prisoner by the Germans on the Island islands last March. Ave. was released from imprisonment in the early part of January.

• • •

Turkey will accept peace based on the principles of right and justice laid down by President Wilson, according to a Geneva dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company. The grand vizier, Tewfik Pasha, is said to have informed the German and Austrian ambassadors to that effect.

• • •

Introduce no wages were granted by the national war labor board at Washington to arrest car employees in Kansas City, Memphis, Philadelphia, Boston, Oak, St. Portland, Ore., New Orleans and Seattle, the Kansas City & Western is exception.

PEACE ARMISTICE DRAWING CLOSER

MILITARY LORES CRAFTY GAME IN PEACE MANEUVERS, IS BELIEF IN WASHINGTON.

Movement Gets Beyond Control of Junkers—Teutons Try Evasion Government Charges—Turks Invite Allies To Enter Dardanelles.

Washington, according to a Constantinople dispatch reports are current that Talaat, under the pause he practices, has invited the allied fleet to enter the Dardanelles and proceed to Constantinople, to aid with the reception of a small detachment to replace the Mohammedan guards of the Ottoman army. The Constantinople press is silent on the subject, but it is said that the grand vizier and the cabinet council yesterday had commenced official peace negotiations with the Entente, adding that delegates already had left for Paris. The Turkish cabinet met and discussed the peace proposals. It declared the negotiations are unofficial.

Western Newspaper Union News Service

Washington—The general opinion among officials and diplomats here is that the armistice terms will be such that the central powers having its original fighting strength, will be in no position to renew hostilities. The military terms proposed months, has now gotten beyond the control of the junkers and militarists that the German people are the force which is driving the government at present to make far-reaching its war. Another explanatory note of the president's reply to Germany is expected in the course of a few days. It is said that the German government was received through the Swiss minister at Berlin, but that he did not make it public.

Washington—The general opinion is plementary to the preceding terms of the armistice, which will be such that he need not be considered. The fighting strength of the allies will be in no position to renew hostilities.

President Wilson was at work on his reply to Austria-Hungary's request for an armistice and peace, and it was expected that it would be completed before night, but later it was at the state department that the president had not completed arrangements regarding the reply to the communication of the envoys from Austria and Hungary have been received by the president, and the terms of the armistice proposed by them will be referred to the council of war.

Administration officials say that the president will be free to make a response to the Austrian-Hungarian note without consulting with the entente powers, as will be natural due to the official relations between the United States and the dual monarchy.

Secretary Lansing, following his statement of minor character on Wednesday, made public another note from the Germany Government chancellor Max to President Wilson, dated October 20, in which the chancellor declares that the German government has accepted the terms laid down by President Wilson in his address of January 8 last, and that the purpose of the note was to secure from the president more definite information upon which to base the armistice and peace negotiations.

Overlook Volcano Active.

San Salvador—The eruption has begun of the volcano of Santa Ana, situated between the departments of Santa Ana and Sonsa. The eruption is accompanied by violent earthquakes. The destruction of the new York reservoir is reported.

Wholesale Massacre.

London—During the rule of Gen. Denikine over Southern Russia the former member of the staff of Alexander Kerensky, the Russian premier, says he has been shot, according to a Moscow dispatch. The wholesale massacres disclosed that it is known that 1,500 persons have been shot during one week began last July of building that Denikine's troops were ordered to Moscow. Of the persons killed, 1,000 were shot to build the troop ships was