News of the Week Cut Down for Busy Readers

U.S.—Teutonic War News

In the pithiest drive on the American front, which started on Friday morning, American troops shot down 134 German machines in three days. It is officially announced at army headquarters north of Verdun.

The records which perched the streets of Rome in celebrating the great victory, carried American as well as Italian flags. American officers met on the streets were greeted by shouts of "Viva America! Viva Wilson!" A bewildering procession and a number of American sailors and marched these through the streets on their shoulders. Celebrations of the victories of the Americans were also witnessed all throughout the cities.

European War News

Railways and airplane hangars in the region east of Metz were attacked by the British independent air force, says a London official statement.

The new Hungarian government has ordered all soldiers to return to their homes, said a Basle dispatch.

Three battalions of German guns drove at breakneck speed into the American lines south of Beaumont. When captured, they said they were on their way to reinforce the German front line.

Five thousand civilians had remained behind in Valenciennes throughout the fighting; the remainder, about 20,000, were evacuated by the Germans during the week.

Three hundred thousand prisoners and 5,000 guns had been counted in the allies on the Italian front before the armistice was into effect. The first figures were officially announced by General Diaz. Immense piles of war material also were captured during the last phase of the Austro-Italian battle, says a Rome dispatch.

An Amsterdam dispatch says that the Socialist Congress that hostilities have broken out between Polish and Ruthenian-Ukrainian troops. The latter, supported by German and Austrian regiments, captured Lemberg, in Galicia, on November 1. Prussian is in the hands of the Ruthenians.

A large number of persons were killed and injured when 20 tons of bombs dropped by British airmen, who carried out a raid on the railway station in the center of the town, according to the Cologne Volks Zeitung.

In the last three months British forces in France have taken 172,000 prisoners and 2,378 guns from the German armies, an official London communication.

The armistice accepted by Turkey assures to "complete and unconditional surrender." This statement was made by Lord Robert Cecil, assistant secretary of state for foreign affairs at London.

The long awaited report on the aircraft situation by former Justice Charles E. Hughes has been made public at Washington. Taken in its entirety the report is a severe arraignment of the whole aircraft program. Of the $640,000,000 already appropriated, $103,954,47, which it gave in exile and in land lease for our army's air program, has not been squandered. On the contrary, only $14,184,287.27 thus far has been expended, with results that the report characterizes as quite the opposite.

The sugar allowance of two pounds monthly a person for householders was increased to three pounds monthly.

Domestic

The Anheuser-Busch brewery in St. Louis is to be converted into a cereal beverage plant that can turn 3,000 cases a day. The ordnance department has commandeered the entire plant and will install tanks.

A large French merchantile steamship which arrived at an Atlantic port brought the first cargo to port with full lights ashore, the first time in almost four years, the Associated Press information bureau at New York announced.

William Bruce of Philadelphia, a cadet aviator in the marine corps, was killed when his plane crashed into a school at the Curtiss aviation field on Long Island. The machine crossed the engine.

Nineteen Foreign Minister Tchitcherin has telegraphed the provisional government at Berlin that Russia is now offering to allow free passage through Russia of troops in Russia to return to Germany, but they let down their arms, according to the Vorwaerts Zeitung. He said he would guarantee safety.

More than 100 bodies had been taken from the ruins of the Mathews Hotel at Bethlehem, Pa., which collapsed when a boiler exploded. Rapid Transit Company's division of construction, according to the Bethlehem Globe Times, says a London dispatch.

An agency for the sale of American goods was opened at Canton, China, at 7.12 silver. There are

American marines have remained with the armies in Italy, Paris and Berlin, Siberia, at the American base at Archangel, and in Vladivostok, it was reported to Congress.

German submarines have been notified by the Dutch government that hereafter no refugees will be permitted to leave Holland on German vessels, according to Amsterdam.

Good Advice to Women

Do not be afraid to rest your feet. Sit down at your work whenever you can; a chair in the kitchen is a great help sometimes. Or may walk all day long upon two feet without injury, but second sitted perfectly still, as when pasting the dinner vegetables, ironing the small things, etc., for a quarter of an hour without a stopping degree of fatigue. Remember that the majority of the feet.—Chicago Daily News.

Life is made up of "chores."

The industrious are they Russia will refuse to make any further installment payments to Germany, according to the Frankfort Gazette. The newspaper says the Russia, which had paid two installments of the war indemnity, has notified the transport of gold and food ships to Germany.

Emperor Karl has informed the members of his cabinet and party leaders that he intends to abdicate and reside in Switzerland, says a Vienna dispatch.

A Kieff dispatch received at Copenhagen by Berlin says that the German marines have revolted against the bolshevist rule at Sevastopol.

M. Durre, member of the chamber of deputies for Kirschheimer, who assisted upon accompanying French troops when they entered the suburbs of that city, was killed by a shell, it is announced at Paris.

During the rule of General Krasnoff, the Cossack leader and former member of the staff of Alexander Kerensky, in the Don province, 25,000 persons have been shot, according to a Russian wire less dispatch received in London.

The Hungarian National council headed by Count Karolyi, has ordered the immediate demobilization of the army of occupation and has called upon the garrison people desire to live, according to dispatches from Budapest.

The great gun plant of Austria-Hungary at Skoda has been taken possession of by the Czech national committee, according to a Pilsen telegram forwarded by the Swiss government to the Paris Matin at Zurich.

Washington

The Republican chief at Washington refused to review the race of Maurice Bagot, publisher of the Michigan Socialist, convicted of refusing to register for the draft.

Five thousand civilians had remained behind in Valenciennes throughout the fighting; the remainder, about 20,000, were evacuated by the Germans during the week.

Three hundred thousand prisoners and 5,000 guns had been counted in the allies on the Italian front before the armistice was into effect. The first figures were officially announced by General Diaz. Immense piles of war material also were captured during the last phase of the Austro-Italian battle, says a Rome dispatch.

An Amsterdam dispatch says that the Socialist Congress that hostilities have broken out between Polish and Ruthenian-Ukrainian troops. The latter, supported by German and Austrian regiments, captured Lemberg, in Galicia, on November 1. Prussian is in the hands of the Ruthenians.

A large number of persons were killed and injured when 20 tons of bombs dropped by British airmen, who carried out a raid on the railway station in the center of the town, according to the Cologne Volks Zeitung.

In the last three months British forces in France have taken 172,000 prisoners and 2,378 guns from the German armies, an official London communication.

The armistice accepted by Turkey assures to "complete and unconditional surrender." This statement was made by Lord Robert Cecil, assistant secretary of state for foreign affairs at London.

The long awaited report on the aircraft situation by former Justice Charles E. Hughes has been made public at Washington. Taken in its entirety the report is a severe arraignment of the whole aircraft program. Of the $640,000,000 already appropriated, $103,954,47, which it gave in exile and in land lease for our army's air program, has not been squandered. On the contrary, only $14,184,287.27 thus far has been expended, with results that the report characterizes as quite the opposite.

The sugar allowance of two pounds monthly a person for householders was increased to three pounds monthly.

Domestic

The Anheuser-Busch brewery in St. Louis is to be converted into a cereal beverage plant that can turn 3,000 cases a day. The ordnance department has commandeered the entire plant and will install tanks.

A large French merchantile steamship which arrived at an Atlantic port brought the first cargo to port with full lights ashore, the first time in almost four years, the Associated Press information bureau at New York announced.

William Bruce of Philadelphia, a cadet aviator in the marine corps, was killed when his plane crashed into a school at the Curtiss aviation field on Long Island. The machine crossed the engine.

Nineteen Foreign Minister Tchitcherin has telegraphed the provisional government at Berlin that Russia is now offering to allow free passage through Russia of troops in Russia to return to Germany, but they let down their arms, according to the Vorwaerts Zeitung. He said he would guarantee safety.

The Socialist premier has notified Berne that the Socialist royal family will be permitted to return to Greece. The former Queen Sophia, sister of Emperor William, and her children, are in Switzerland.

More than 100 bodies had been taken from the ruins of the Mathews Hotel at Bethlehem, Pa., which collapsed when a boiler exploded. Rapid Transit Company's division of construction, according to the Bethlehem Globe Times, says a London dispatch.

An agency for the sale of American goods was opened at Canton, China, at 7.12 silver. There are

American marines have remained with the armies in Italy, Paris and Berlin, Siberia, at the American base at Archangel, and in Vladivostok, it was reported to Congress.

German submarines have been notified by the Dutch government that hereafter no refugees will be permitted to leave Holland on German vessels, according to Amsterdam.

Amsterdam—The semi-official North Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung, of Berlin, publishes an article, written by Prince von Bueow, the former German Imperial Chancellor, in which he says that Germany has accepted President Wilson's fourteen points as the basis of peace negotiations.

The great gun plant of Austria-Hungary at Skoda has been taken possession of by the Czech national committee, according to a Pilsen telegram forwarded by the Swiss government to the Paris Matin at Zurich.

Amsterdam—The semi-official North Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung, of Berlin, publishes an article, written by Prince von Bueow, the former German Imperial Chancellor, in which he says that Germany has accepted President Wilson's fourteen points as the basis of peace negotiations.

Washington—With control of the House of Representatives passed to the hands of the Republicans by a narrow party of 14, and probably more, the administration of the country was turned over to Republican leaders in three senates—Republican and New Mexico—which will determine the party complexion and the control of the Senate—as well.

Returns from five congressional districts were overdue in Montana, New Mexico and South Dakota.

Without delay, however, the Republican House have won 234 seats in the House of Representatives—8 more than the 218 votes necessary for a majority.

The Democrats, on the face of these returns, had 195 seats, and if the five missing districts were to be conceded to them they still would lack 18 votes of the number necessary for control of the House.

The contests which will decide the actual composition of the house were very close. As the Senate stands Republicans have 49 seats counted and Democrats 47. Republicans and 47 Republicans.

In Michigan the race between Henry Ford and Truman H. Newberry for a senate that it was said an official count would be necessary to decide the election. Both parties were claiming the seat.

In Illinois, where Thomas Sisson of Democrat, and Lawrence Sherman, Republican, were contesting for the state candidate for re-election, was held in doubt. Republicans claimed the election by 5,000 votes.

In Indiana, where Tinkam nine of the Republican candidates for congressional seats, Senator Beveridge, Republican state candidate for re-election, was defeated Frank B. Willis, Republican governor-elect by 15,000 votes.

In Nevada Democrats retains their seat in the House of Representatives, with Key Pittman, Democrat, Democrat, as candidate for the Senate, running 2,000 votes ahead.

Rhode Island had a Republican, Democrat, and Democrat, Democrat, Democrat,