They Know What They Do

There never was a more beautiful prayer in the history of the world than "Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do."

In praying over the bodies of women and little children murdered by the German soldiers a French priest said

"Father, forgive them not for they know what they do."

That is the horror of the whole thing. The abominable cruelties are not done by ignorant savages who don't know better, but are deliberately done in cold blood as a systematic part of the campaign of German frightfulness.

They know full well what they do and nothing will stop them until we win Victory.

The more LIBERTY BONDS you buy the quicker will we win the Victory.
