The Government at Washington has called upon the citizens of KENTUCKY at once to furnish the men to build or to loan from the State entered—the wonderful Camp Henry Knox, at Stithon, designed to be the greatest Artillery Training Camp in the United States.
The credit and good name of the Commonwealth of KENTUCKY must be upheld. And the State MUST NOT lose this great plant, calling for an investment on the part of the United States Government of from $15,000,000 to $20,000,000.
Up to this time the work has lagged for want of men. It is now up to the men of Kentucky to volunteer, or be forced to do so later on. There is no middle course.
