MOST IMPORTANT NEWS OF WORLD

BIG HAPPENINGS OF THE WEEK CUT TO LAST ANALYSIS.

DOMESTIC AND FOREIGN ITEMS

Kernels Culled From Events of Moment in All Parts of the World— Of Interest to All the People Everywhere.

Peace Notes

Increased precautions have been taken at Rome to safeguard Premier Mussolini and the premiers with whom he is in daily conference.

• • •

Personal

Pope Benedict at Rome has appointed Rev. Fr. Thomas William Shahan of Cedar Rapids, Ia., to be bishop of Des Moines, Ia., Rev. Ed. Fr. Daniel Morris of Baltimore has been appointed bishop of Argyll.

• • •

August Belmont, Jr., died at New York, following an operation for intestinal trouble. He was thirty-seven years old.

Washington

The Japanese court at Washington received until April 4th 25 new documents in pending cases will be received.

• • •

A Washington dispatch says with the patriotic slogan "to finish the war" and a subscription of $3,000, Secretary of the Navy Daniels has won the distinction of having fired the first formal gun in the forthcoming Victory loan campaign.

• • •

Terms of payment in the new Victory Liberty loan, announced at Washington are the most liberal ever offered by the government. Deferred payments may be extended over a period of two months, from May 15th to July 1st.

• • •

Reporter-free freedom of the trade port Leviathan, with more than 12,000 troops aboard, the battleships Rhode Island and Virginia—all bringing units of the Eighty-fifth (Wisconsin and Michigan National army) division—and two other transports was announced by the war department at Washington.

• • •

Foreign

A Peking dispatch says many persons were killed and wounded during another anti-Japanese demonstration in Seoul, Korea. Hundreds of persons were arrested by Japanese soldiers. The situation is serious.

• • •

Drastic measures adopted by the Spanish government to suppress strikes were described in dispatches to the state department at Washington. Some firms working in the line have been mentioned in Bolivarian and a rigid newspaper censorship is maintained.

• • •

A Cologne dispatch says peace is flaming up openly in Westphalia. At Dortmund a mass meeting passed resolutions calling for the overthrow of the government, the dismissal of the responsible ministers, the arming of the proletariat and the founding of a "real national assembly at Weimar."

• • •

American troops refused to occupy areas with Belgian troops, according to the Soldiers' and Workmen's Council, which is in control of Coblenz, answering questions put to the Lokanzeiger bureau at Coblenz by a correspondent in Tokio recently sent.

• • •

Socialist Premier Hoffmann Von Fuhrer-Bohlung resigned, which is required by the constitution of Saxony, after the last three of its manufacturing places, Leipzig, Dresden and Chemnitz, have voted.

• • •

Large munitions factories have ceased operations at Berlin, Spandau and Oberschoneweide, according to dispatches received at Amsterdam from Berlin. Workmen have declared a general strike in protest against the continuation of the war.

• • •

Socialist Premier Hoffmann Von Fuhrer-Bohlung resigned, which is required by the constitution of Saxony, after the last three of its manufacturing places, Leipzig, Dresden and Chemnitz, have voted.

• • •

American troops refused to occupy areas with Belgian troops, according to the Soldiers' and Workmen's Council, which is in control of Coblenz, answering questions put to the Lokanzeiger bureau at Coblenz by a correspondent in Tokio recently sent