Now All You Good Fellows, Come Fill Up Your Pipes

15c

If ever men are "Tom" and "Burr" in each other, it's when good pipes are going. For ever good pipes go their best, 'tis when Vetvet's in the bowl.

For eight long seasons Vetvet "militates" in wooden highlands, throwing of the rawness of "young" tobacco—truly "aging in the wood." Out Vetvet comes—cool, calm and generous—the tobacco Nature made good, kept good and made better.

Vetvet's sweetness is the sweetness of good tobacco, not "put on" like "rosing" on a cake. It's mildness comes from natural aging, not from having the life baked out. Its fragrance is true tobacco fragrance, not a perfume. And Vetvet makes an A Number One cigarette. Roll one.

So good old Vetvet Joe says: "It's just when friendly thoughts, 'Y' mouth with friendly smoke—An' let the old world woe."
