MISS ANNA GORE HAS THRILLING EXPERIENCE

Miss Anna Gore had a narrow escape from death last Monday afternoon, when she was gored by a maddened cow.

Miss Gore, together with her sister Miss Maymo Gore, and a loved man friend, had gone to the pasture lot, just to see a young calf, and while they were looking at the calf a cow broke down the bar, frightening the calf and its mother. The cow turned to Miss Gore and hooked her in the arm and side, cutting a severe gash, although not dangerous, it is quite painful and inflictional serious. In falling Miss Gore's collar bone was broken, also she was otherwise bruised and shaken up.

At first it was feared her injuries would prove fatal, but her attending physician, Dr. Scott, has hopes of her recovery under severe complication arise.
