Miss Margaret Barker

Dear Sister:—Will answer your welcome letter of a few days ago. The last of the two letters you wrote was the first to reach me. Thank you very much for sending the handkerchief. I did not have any and just now they are hard to get.

Did mother get the card I sent her a while ago to let her know I was safe and had been in the battle? I have been wounded in the left leg and am now in a hospital in the south of France. I am getting along fine and will be discharged in a few days. I am not sure where I will be sent from here but I think it will be to the U. S. A. I am glad to be going home for I have had enough of the world.

You were asking when I was coming home. I don't know but hope it won't be long. I guess dad is through stripping tobacco to be out?

COMMENT

The following letter explains a movement which has been started by the Associated Local Draft Boards of Seattle and King County, in the State of Washington, and which we hope every member of the Draft Boards in the country will heartily indorse. The movement thoughtful consideration and use his or her influence to have appropriate legislation drafted to remove a condition of affairs which should be obnoxious to every true American citizen. We have referred to this matter in a paper on "Conditions" in Sociology class, we have here recently in favor of the absolute restriction, for a term of years, at least, of all immigration from Europe, especially Southern Europe has been flooding this country with a class of foreigners that are undesirable. Instead of settling in the largest cities, they should be compelled to live over into the country, their own customs, their mode of living, their own amusements and pastimes, have remained absolutely, despite the advantages of the liberty. They are in a class by themselves, the assemblage ideals that have been the cause of the bitterest feuds between nation and nation, and have, at least, a half dozen languages that they speak in addition to the English language and half foreign. Let us have restriction for Americans let us have Americans of those who are already here and those who are coming, by those who have come to be known by the term "Americanization" to be elected. Two things will go far towards accomplishing this. They are the prohibition of immigration for a period of years and the education of every newspaper published in any foreign language in the United States to be published in the fatherland. Read the following:

Seattle, Washington.
January 14, 1919.

To Members of all Local Boards of Washington:

At recent meeting of members of all Local Boards of Seattle and vicinity, a resolution was unanimously adopted by the entire membership of the movement having for its purpose the elimination of all aliens from the draft, and the securing of a ruling that all claimed exemption from military service on account of alienage.

The exemption of aliens was the most exasperating difficulty with which Boards. The action of such aliens was peculiarly offensive to every true patriotic. Every such person immediately branded as a coward, slacker and undesirable resident. This country has been generous to the foreigner. At the very first call, when our country was torn from a crisis, these men were not willing to fight for America, but every alien so exempted a good position, and in many cases a large wage. These aliens have gained a home in peace and safety

THEY STILL RETAIN GOOD JOBS TO THE EXCLUSION OF OUR RETURNED SOLDIERS.

Organizations seem to center all their activities in the effort to have surrendered their aliens. Chas., as a member of a Draft Board, can see no difference between the alien who has surrendered his first papers and the alien who has surrendered his second papers. Both of them are unpatriotic. A man not willing to fight certainly cannot be considered a citizen. If Congress is so intent upon dragging forth from the archives of centuries first papers, then at least Congress should be willing to make impossible for an alien to become an alien who claims exemption to be naturalized.

Congress is now considering a bill to deport undesirable aliens. We suggest that Congress also consider the bill all general immigration for at least a period of five years.

The combined influence of Draft Boards can be a powerful one in securing Along and upon immigration matters. We suggest that Draft Boards write to each Congressman and Senator from their respective States, urging favorable action in the matter.

Fraternal association in the United States should be brought to bear to memorialize Congress along these lines. Get the newspapers started—do anything to generate public opinion and to keep the agitation growing.

Respectfully yours,

Members Associated Local Boards of Seattle and King County

John Bassett Moore, president of the American Society, recommends "Peace" as a substitute for alcoholic beverages. Mr. Moore is right. Peace does mean a lot more than it used to.

The Courier-Journal is to issue a "Horse Henry Edition" on March 2nd as a tribute to Kentucky's statesman. It is most fitting that this tribute be made to the man who was the author of the Kentucky Resolutions, the greatest American editor that has ever lived, the greatest statesman that has ever been a patriot and the orator of a true Kentuckian, he has left a great name for his fearless, always original and delightful style of writing and speaking.
