FRENCH CLAIMS.

France wants, first of all, Alsace-Lorraine unconditionally, and the right to discuss and ultimately to fix the French frontiers in their relation to the Rhine, which may require the creation of buffer states. One of these would be the Pan'ate and another Rhenish Prussia. France desires also to retain the bases of the Saare river, which might be called a reasonable.

France will insist that so far as the left bank of the Rhine farther to the north is concerned, the conference should forbid military works of any kind—barracks, bridgeheads, forts and fortresses in that zone. She intends to thus the people inhabiting that zone to choose to decide for itself in future whether they wish to join Germany or to remain independent and refuse to return to Germany.

The French bill for reparation is not yet complete, but it has been accepted by the chamber of deputies that it will be about 60,000,000,000 francs ($12,000,000,000).

The French government does not ask for a protectorate in Syria in the ordinary sense because it considers that the population there is too all to make a protectorate acceptable, but France on account of her traditional interests in Syria, she feels that she should be called upon to some sort of guardianship, and therefore until Syria should be fully able to govern herself.

BRITISH CLAIMS.

Great Britain's delegation believes that a society of nations is necessary and attainable and that it must be established by the present peace conference. She advocates no contractual covenant other than those of a permanent and just peace under the principles of liberty, justice and right. All these shall be interpreted according to the respect to mutuals and waterways, which is Great Britain's desire, and addition of freedom of commerce in the seas.

Great Britain will take mandatory power over the German islands south of the equator for Australia and over German possessions from the Pacific to South Africa. She will also have the mandate over Germany East Africa and some parts of Arabia, and she has particular claims in the Persian Gulf.

Great Britain will enter a pool with the other allies in the matter of indemnities, and the principle of making good damages and shipping losses

FIXING FEDERAL TAX BUDGET

REVENUE BILL TO PAY NATION'S EXPENSES AND DEBTS BEFORE THE HOUSE.

The Bill in Its Final Modified Form, Passed Done By the Conference of the Two Houses, Will Raise For the Year Ending June 30, 1919, a Total of $8,078,000,000—For the Succeeding Fiscal Year It Will Raise $4,000,000,000.

Special to Newspaper Union News Service.

Washington.—The revenue bill to pay the nation's debts and the expenses of the Government for the current fiscal year was reported by the House by Chairman Kitchin, of the Ways and Means committee, on behalf of the conference. The bill in its final modified form, agreed upon by the conferees of the two Houses, will raise for the year ending June 30, 1919, a total of $8,078,000,000. For the succeeding fiscal years it will raise $4,000,000,000. It is the largest bill ever framed by any nation, and is designed to pay, as the president has said, the cost of the war as far as possible out of current revenues.

What he has done in a generation in the way of debt he would have to do in a year.

There is no age limit of applicants for the army, as was reported in the House bill. The limit will be 21 and over.

There is no age limit of applicants for the navy, as was reported in the House bill. The limit will be 21 and over.

The bill now goes to the senate for any man's value. If the man will keep on practicing what he now preaches, he will do.

and Gowsay at first—you—but really I'm 18 years old. Ain't that fine?

A Dixie Dandruffer immediately doubles the size of his hair. Dandruff is a germ disease that, indeed, brittle and scraggy. Just moisten a clean cloth with Danderine and rub it briskly through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an irresistible lustre, softness and luxuriance.

Get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine for a few cents at any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment. Don't forget that a little Danderine dissolves all dandruff, and you can't have beautiful hair and lots of it if your hair is full of dandruff.—Advertisement.

KEEP STEP WITH PROGRESS

Age Never Has Been Bar to Man's Ability to Produce What the World Calls For.

Henry Ford is fifty-five years old.

Last year he built and equipped a factory to build 1,000 of a new type of war boat of his own design for the United States navy.

He has turned over a $25,000,000 ne hospital factory to his son so he can devote his energies to building a new factory for the manufacture of farm tractors, 12 experts in such a greater thing than his automobile business.

The auto factory will run for years on the expansion plans prepared by Henry Ilinsott.

Ford is in his spare time he is founding a weekly newspaper.

He says that he is developing a great country estate just outside the village of Dearborn.

Luther Burbank is sixty-nine years old.

He has just announced development work that will give 96 foot high, with a spread of branches of 64 feet and a girth of 8 feet at 6 feet above the ground, and will nearly 18,000 nuts a year.

Thomas Alva Edison is seventy-one years.

What he has done in a generation in the way of debt he would have to do in a year.

During the war his counsel and labors were freely given to the government.

He is still working on great inventions.

There is no age limit of applicants for the army, as was reported in the House bill. The limit will be 21 and over.
