By DONALD F. BROWN

More history has been made in the year 1918 than in any other year in the world's annals. It was the year that the world was divided into two camps, the victors and the vanquished. It was the year that the world was divided into two groups, the winners and the losers. It was the year that the world was divided into two worlds, the world of peace and the world of war.

The year 1918 was a year of great change and great events. It was a year that saw the end of the most terrible war in the history of the world. It was a year that saw the birth of a new world order. It was a year that saw the rise of a new world power. It was a year that saw the fall of an old world power. It was a year that saw the end of an era and the beginning of a new one.
