An Invitation

Due to the fact that W. F. Tins, proprietor of The City Store, is retiring from business, and that after next Saturday night the doors of that old established stand will be closed, we take this opportunity of extending a cordial invitation to all of its patrons, to make our store your headquarters while in the city, where you will find a carefully selected stock of Dry Goods, Notions, Shoes, Etc.

We promise you most courteous treatment and the best service we can render you. Come in and look over our stock and get our cash prices and we feel sure we can serve your every want.

Make us a visit whether you wish to buy or not. You will always find a hearty welcome.

COOPERATIVE LAND & DEVELOPMENT COMPANY-Incorporated.

The Oil Company that never uses the word "If"

We do not have thousands of acres of "wildcat" land under lease, for a company paying rentals on a large amount of worthless acreage is only wasting their surplus. We drill only in proven territory and buy proven royalties.

MR. BELL, the President and General Manager of this Company, is a native of Kentucky, and has won a reputation for himself as one of the most successful oil producers in the State. Mr. Bell organized the Bourdon Oil & Development Co. eighteen months ago, and in that time has made his initial stockholders twenty-four hundred percent on their investment. A large number of the citizens of Nicholas County are receiving monthly dividends from this Company.

The Cooperative Land & Development Company is less than thirty days old; and has drilled in two producing wells. Our No. 3 well is set for sale as we are on the pipe line. This Company has made a record that no other oil in less than thirty days. We are expecting our No. 3 well in the week of the famous Prendergast farm. We have contracted for seven more wells to be drilled at at once on our Ross Creek property in Bell County.

The stock in this Company is now selling at twenty cents per share—par value $1.00, and will advance again without notice.

Now is the Time to Buy—Do Not Delay

One Hundred and Forty Thousand Shares of Cooperative Land & Development Stock sold in Nicholas County from 1st to 10th of January.

Phone your order at once as a letter may not reach the office before stock advances again in price.
