FREIGHT WRECK ON L. & N.

A northbound freight train of Nashville freight trains, loaded with stock and watermelons, was wrecked on Saturday night, between Falmouth and Butler, when the engine and seven cars, pulling the cars over and smashing them, carloads of sheep and hogs were killed, the sheep being finally shipped Saturday by Cayward & McCarthy, stockmen, to the Cincinnati Chicago. A wrecking crew from Falmouth was also destroyed. The wreck caused a delay in traffic of several hours, until the tracks were cleared by the wrecking crews. No one was hurt in the accident.—Bourbon News.
