MOST IMPORTANT NEWS OF WORLD

BIG HAPPENINGS OF THE WEEK CUT TO LAST ANALYSIS.

DOMESTIC AND FOREIGN ITEMS

Kernels Culled From Events of Moment In All Parts of the World—Of Interest to All the People Everywhere.

Personal

Maj. Gen. George W. Goethals, builder of the Panama canal, received the John Fritz medal awarded by the four national societies of civil, mining, mechanical and electrical engineers of New York. This medal represents the highest honor which can be paid by the engineering profession.

Washington

Payments of past due and current allotments to families of soldiers and sailors and dependents of Civil war veterans will be made by the war risk insurance bureau at Washington without waiting for the formal signing of the urgent deficiency bill by President Wilson.

Total subscriptions to the Victory Liberty loan were announced by the treasury at Washington at $7,538,000,300, an oversubscription of nearly $3,000,000,000.

• • •

Withdrawal of the American forces from Archangel is actually under way, according to cable advices to the war department at Washington, which stated that members of the Three Hundred and Thirty-ninth infantry were awaiting evacuation.

• • •

Bills for enforcing war-time and constitutional prohibition were introduced in the house of representatives by Representative Lineal D. Tague and Joseph (Sen.) of Washington.

An attempt was made to demobilize the American legion building at San Jose, Costa Rica, Monday night by a bomb, according to advices to the state department at Washington.

• • •

The war cost the United States $21,769,000,000 up to April 30, 1919, according to an estimate furnished to the statistics branch of the war department at Washington.

• • •

The senate at Washington passed without debate an amendment to the deficiency appropriation bill, adopted Thursday by the house, appropriating $40,000 for war risk bureau nurses to care for sick soldiers and sailors and for dependents of Civil war veterans.

• • •

The attack on the league of nations began in the senate at Washington with an address by Senator Sherman (Rep.) of Illinois, bitterly criticising President Wilson for his conduct of the peace negotiations.

• • •

Repeal of the cavalry section of the law to be incorporated in the agricultural appropriation bill which will be shortly reported by a subcommittee appointed by the agriculture committee at Washington.

• • •

Foreign

Thousands of discharged soldiers and sailors out of employment, armed with stones and other missiles, marched toward the house of the premier in London. They came into conflict with the police barring the approaches, however, and were scattered. Later the premier was reported to have marched toward Buckingham palace, the royal residence, but the dispersion strike was reported by the Winnipeg Tribune. There was no disorder there.

• • •

A Christiania dispatch says the Norwegian government has issued a decree prohibiting the publication of news appears on Sundays and holidays.

• • •

A commission of American businessmen is en route to Berlin to arrange a loan to Germany, according to information received from an unfortunate source.

• • •

A dispatch to the London Exchange Telegraph Company from Copenhagen reported on good authority that the Bolshevik forces captured Pskoff on May 31.

• • •

A Berne dispatch says one hundred and thirty men, including a number of officers, have been executed in Hungary, while 1,000 others are in prison awaiting trial. Many of the executions took place in the prison yards, it is said.

• • •

Frank Lawton was found guilty of murder and sentenced to death for the killing of Lieut. Col. Frederick Guy Aprill A. No notice was given until the killing. Lawton pleaded guilty.

• • •

The Polish diet, according to a report from Warsaw, has unanimously adopted the principles of a land reform bill, it is stated. The bill provides for the expropriation of large estates.

• • •

The first town council elected in Bulgaria was named by the peace conference. It is to have jurisdiction over the great naval station at Pirieus, Greece, where the Bulgarian prisoners are confined, and it is composed of 224 members, 124 of whom are Greeks, preliminarily at least.

• • •

The Ukraine republic formed their laws following the French model, it is declared in a message from Bolshevik headquarters at Moscow to the state department at Washington.

• • •

Lieutenant Roget, the French aviator, left Paris for Berlin Thursday morning on the first leg of his projected round-the-world flight via Paris to Brazil, landing at an airdrome at night at Kenitra, 124 miles from Rabat. He covers 2,750 kilometers (1,705 miles) on the trip.

• • •

No More Items.

One of the curious forms of compensation is the use of fringe in place of hems. A recent importation from Paris shows long panels hanging from the shoulders, fringed on all edges and caught in at the waist with a fringed girdle. The fabric used is serge, and the effect is particularly good.

• • •

Stylish Suggestions.

Pockets are shirred at the top so as to appear very full. Dark tailored dresses are relieved by collars and cuffs of white organdie, which is a striking wash of black tulle finish with metal trims. Tunics which droop to points at the side are very graceful. Some of the new tailored costumes provide a heavy dress with much effect.

• • •

When women kiss each other it seems as much as a boisterous epithet.

• • •

Don't try to put on too many airs and make your friends sick.

WHERE THE BUSINESS OF THE PANAMA CANAL IS HANDLED

A general view of the large shops and drydock at Balboa, the Pacific entrance to the Panama canal. Everything is in full readiness here to handle the increased traffic which is bound to come with peace conditions.

DOUGHBOYS' THREE DAYS OFF IN NEUWIED IS ONE RIOT OF JOY

Smiles of Six Jolly American Girls and Ice Cream and Cake Galore Give Homesick Soldiers New Spirit to Keep the "Watch am Rhein"—Visit Points of Interest and Are Royally Entertained.

By WILBUR FORREST.
(In the New York Tribune.)

Neuwied, Germany.—Three days away from the American soldiers' favorite diversion is a "Watch am Rhein" holiday. Germany is to be envied by those who have hurried back through the French winter months to home and friends. The homegoers are possibly well informed, but the last, but the "stay-aheads" are beginning to come into their own.

The American army and the Y. M. C. A. have combined into a harmonious partnership here at Neuwied-on-the-Rhine. This gives great opportunities for entertaining foreign service. It is hard to find a more delightful place than Neuwied, a modern sporting city 15 miles from the Rhine-terrace theater—continuous performance afternoon and evening—and when all this does not appeal there is always the Rhine itself to fall back on a nearby field. From 7:30 to 9:30 a. m. and 4 to 6 p. m. and late and calm in the recreation hall at the Y. M. C. A. there are dances, games inside or outside, and the latest movies every evening at 8 p. m.

Then ends is brief outline the first of a three-day leave for the "stay aheads" here in Neuwied. In addition to the Y. M. C. A. there are 2 Red Cross and plenty of baths for those who wish to take advantage.

Soldiers Lack Popularity.

These Americans in Neuwied Soldiers are not barred from drinking and the saloons are open until 10 p. m. There is also here no ice cream cake and no farther starting full blast for the exclusive benefit of American soldiers.

Neuwied's open saloons are not patronized by American soldiers because Frenchwomen in the saloons have been practically all removed. The Germans have learned that one of the greatest attractions to American youth and the wholesome is the presence of girls. Frenchwomen who have inspired with their surround ings have been removed from Neuwied. Instead wholesomeness is desire to the Germans have imported 1,200 girls to attend the American soldier in New Neuwied. Six of these girls were among those brought in the minds of the boys from the Stars and Stripes. Their coming was begins just after breakfast. Four of these girls with a truck load of ice cream and cake were assigned to the Rhine. It ends with a grand ice cream and cake smokers party in the recreation hall. The river excursion, with girls and ice cream, is the most talked about easy chairs, dinner and "lazy-lurch" set tasting the great event. It is flanked on two sides by big red brick buildings where cheery fires and hot cocoa are burning. He is assigned a place in a double-deck bunk in which he puts his blankets aboard and returns to the mess to bed.

Perhaps the six dress at a time and the six girls who are to be the guests of the day are chosen by lot. Then he moves a friend and plays a game of billiards or pool or the entertainment committee has a list of the names of those who are to be guests of the day.

There some one suggests that he stroll down to "Uncle Sam's Hotel" on the place that used to be known as the millions house." Here the Uncle Sam of the Y. M. C. A. accommodates the soldiers for his and his 1,000 companions the Rhine. Here he can get a room for 2 F.

Crockery Suffers Sadly.

This "crockery," as the soldiers generally call it, is in reality an excellent grade of German china, and the Y. M. C. A. W. Seldenfuth, "commander in chief" of Uncle Sam's hotel, has suffered heavy shortages at the hands of some soreys. He has been charged 1 mark (25 cents) per cent a meal, or nearly 100 per cent a month. But it is Uncle Sam's party, and the boys enjoy it.

Then there is the dance hall and what is at a hotel in Cleveland would be called Sam-drafted film. His home however is in Stamford, Conn., and he has not drawned the attractive waitress here from the state of Illinois with a request that him here to run "the biggest strop hotel in Germany," where nearly 900 soldiers can "eat" simultaneously at a single meal and 1,500 if necessary drop in at two sittings for any meal of the day.

Besides the hotel the recreating soldier wanders back to the recreation hall which now occupies the principal points of orientation. Here he chats with Frenchwomen about their work and their poor and the afternoon's entertainment. Then comes the Sunday concert, presenting German pianos, a good orchestra and a German soprano who sings Wagner and Schubert. Then the Mittelsterne