West American Commission by 1,000,000 in United States

Paris, France.

New York (Special)—The annual budget of the Salvation Army, which has a budget and comprehensive report of the work of the organization in the United States, has been issued by the Salvation Army, New York, New York.

The budget for 1939 is $1,000,000, a 10 per cent increase over the 1938 budget of $900,000. The increase is due to the fact that the Salvation Army is expanding its work in the United States and is taking on a larger share of the responsibility for the care of the homeless and the unemployed.

The budget is divided into three main sections: the United States, the foreign field, and the general fund. The United States budget is $600,000, the foreign field budget is $200,000, and the general fund budget is $200,000.

The Salvation Army is a non-sectarian, non-political organization which is dedicated to the service of the poor and the needy. It is a member of the International Brotherhood of Man and is recognized by the United States government as a charitable organization.
