Germany is still up to her old tricks, like "refusers" to accept the Allied peace terms. She evidently believe that Americans would fig ure, upon it.

The worst thing about this draft-evading crowd we have having to deal with is that they have the heart to go to it. Why don't they have the grit to hold high as the price of hats?

Had we taken the trouble to telephone to Lexington, where all the democratic leaders of the state were in convention assembled, perhaps we would have learned that Edwin C. Morrow was selected as standard bearer of his party, with Hollis Thrasher, of Louisville as his running mate.

SCHOOL NEWS

Teachers' Examination will be held in Circuit Court room on May 16-17 beginning at 9 a. m. Two examinations on Agriculture will be held on Saturday afternoon.

Eighteen pupils got pink cards certificates of Diploma Examination on last Friday afternoon. Thirteen have successfully finished the highest grade here and will graduate with the Senior Class. The second, 87.5-10, by Miss Bessie Brannagan of Mooresfield. Several others made fine grades. The boys and girls who passed, deserve a great deal of praise for this being a most trying year for school work.

HELP YOUR COUNTY HISTORIAN

The Kentucky Council of Defense is putting on a big campaign during the month of June for the purpose of collecting data which will give a complete record of the part played by the people of each county in the World War.

All ladies and men are asked to do something toward the preservation of this work. The following individuals and organizations are urged to cooperate:

Retired soldiers and sailors, Mothers, soldiers or sailors, other relatives and friends of soldiers and sailors.

Red Cross Chapters.
Knights of Columbus.
Jewish Welfare Board.
Women's Clubs.
Boy Scouts.
Camp Fire Girls.
Farm Bureau.
Secretaries will please send in reports.

This is a great and important work but you must do your part. Quite a number of counties in the state have by Editorial in the War Record Number why have we done so much and why have we done so little? Why do you delay? The author of the history must be completed by June 30th. Watch's stave and fill your blank.

Best Government

IN MEMORY

The death angel visited our home February 3, 1919, and took from our darling little Howard, Mooresfield, age 1 years. "While our hearts are powerfully in sorrow, we are not weakening and we know that some day we shall meet that girl in heaven."

He was our little baby girl, loved by one and all.
Little Howard left us all alone and broken hearted.
Some day my eyes shall see the beautiful home of heaven.
I loved my home dear,
Howard K.'s hand and eye,
Brother,
His little laugh we hear no more,
And all that I left behind,
Is his little grave on the hill.

Mother.

FORMER NICHOLAS WOMAN DIES IN OKLAHOMA

The following is one of the death of a former Nicholas county woman is taken from an Horton (Kansas) paper—The death of Mrs. A. N. Turner which occured at her home in this city Monday, April 28, 1919. She was a check to her friends in Horton, former home. Mrs. Turner was ill with a second stroke of paralysis on Wednesday April 30, and never regained consciousness. She was born Mary Elizabeth Clarence Quintel and wife, 24 years, 8 months and 23 days. Mrs. Turner was an exceptionally clever woman and during the years that she lived in Horton she surrounded herself with hosts of fast friends.

Mrs. Turner was married July 8, 1867, in Carlisle, Nicholas county, Kentucky. She was married to James Blair, Jan. 27, 1895. Mr. Blair died and she was married to W. C. Barlow in Horton, Kansas, in 1905. To this union was one child, a daughter, Mary Agnes. The marriage took place in Horton, June 7, 1911, and shortly after they moved to Shawnee, Okla. Mrs. Turner survived by her husband and the following children: Mrs. Mattie Blair, Shawnee, Okla., Mrs. Mary Blair and Fred Blair, Shawnee, Okla., also survived by her father, H. C. Quintel, Carlisle, Kentucky, and the following brothers: Joseph Quintel, of Antioch, Neb.; Mrs. Pearl Small, of Whiting, and two brothers—James M. Quintel, of Louisville, Ky., and Edgar Barnett, of Mooresfield, Ky.

Mrs. Turner was a member of the Christian church and a devout Christian lady. Her life was a fine example of a faithful Christian woman. The funeral services were held at the Christian church in Horton Sunday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Mr. W. J. Lloyd. The Order of the Eastern Star attended in a body and conducted the service at the Horton cemetery.

Mrs. Turner has numerous relatives in Nicholas county. Her father is a brother of Mr. John G. Blair.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to thank the many friends for the kindness shown us during the illness and death of our beloved husband and father, Charles F. Wood. We have no means to express thanks to Dr. Scott for his great, kind and faithful service. We thank the ladies and all who sang hymns of sympathy and to all who sent flowers and assisted in the funeral arrangement.

Mrs. Wood and Children.

THE BRYSON FARM AGENCY

Office—BRYSON BUILDING, Opp. Court House.

CARLISLE, KENTUCKY.

MINE, SAID HE, OUR TREES ARE THE OVERHANGING BRANCHES, THE LEAVES THAT FALL AND FILL THE GUTTERS, THE BIRDS' NESTS WHICH HANG LIKE THE MANE OF HEAVEN OVER YOUR HEAD. NOW, FELLOW CITIZENS, WHAT DO YOU SAY? SHALL WE CUT OFFOUR NOSE TO SPITE OUR FACE?

THE ANSWER WAS A UNANIMOUS "NO!" AND THE SUGGESTION WAS PROMPTLY VOTED DOWN. THEN THE MAYOR SAID: "WELL, GENTLEMEN, WHAT ARE YOU GOING TO DO? ARE YOU GOING TO MAKE GOOD?" AND THE CITIZENS FELL TO WORK AND DID IT. THAT'S WHERE I STAND. WHERE IT STOOD BEFORE, AND THE SUREST WAY TO GET ME TO CHANGE MY MIND IS TO SHOW ME THAT I'M WRONG. I'M NOT A MAN OF STRAW, AND I'M NOT A MAN OF WORDS. I'M A MAN OF ACTION. I'M A MAN WHO IS IN FAVOR OF DOING SOMETHING. I'M A MAN WHO IS IN FAVOR OF DOING SOMETHING NOW. I'M A MAN WHO IS IN FAVOR OF DOING SOMETHING RIGHT
