Important News Events of the World Summarized

Washington

Increase in pay of postal employees to the extent of approximately $30,000,000 were passed by the senate at Washington. The senate adopted an amendment providing for expenses for fourth class postmasters.

Top-notch Germans and thousands of Americans are awaiting an opportunity to leave their native countries, according to official dispatches presented to the house immigration committee at Washington.

Enactment of the prohibition enforcement bill was completed at Washington when the house, 321 to 78, adopted the conference report already agreed to by the senate, it now goes to the president.

Japan is sending the largest delegation of any of the nations to the international labor conference to be held at Washington October 29, the party including more than sixty persons.

Inquiry into alleged cases of hazing at the naval academy at Annapolis has been ordered by Secretary Daniels at Washington.

An immediate investigation of the vocational education board was demanded by Representative Rogers of Massachusetts before the house rules committee at Washington.

Voting on the harassing amendment to the peace treaty having been postponed yesterday, the senate at Washington is prepared to start on a round of speech making and continued reading of the treaty text.

Fifty dollars a month should be the minimum pay for army enlisted men, the house naval committee at Washington was told in America's behalf by commander of the Atlantic fleet, Rear Admiral Wahington, Chief of navigation.

The bill for enforcement of wartime and constitutional prohibition was agreed to in conference was adopted by the senate at Washington without discussion.

Domestic

Five young gunmen from Chicago lined up 100 men at Kewanee (Ill.) assembling house, robbed them of $12,000 in cash and $12,000 in jewelry, and escaped.

First Lieut. Edwin W. Maynard, piloting a De Havilland 4 airplane, won the air derby, arriving safely in San Francisco. His flying time was 25 hours from Hazelhurst Field.

Heads were broken on Fifth avenue, New York, when a parade of 5,000 clerged in a mob of several thousand radicals who attempted to parade up the avenue without a permit.

Two persons were killed and 25 injured, many of them children, which struck the business district of Hoisington, a town of 2,000 people, near Great Bend, Kan.

Three men were killed by the fall of a meteor in the Bear Creek district, near Sedalia. The victims were Roy Hollingsworth, Ed Hall and Virgil Hall. Relatives, Cole, Scott, Swearingen and Clayton H. Scholl, Pettis, county.

Heads were broken on Fifth avenue, New York, when a parade of 5,000 clerged in a mob of several thousand radicals who attempted to parade up the avenue without a permit.

Two persons were killed and 25 injured, many of them children, which struck the business district of Hoisington, a town of 2,000 people, near Great Bend, Kan.

Three men were killed by the fall of a meteor in the Bear Creek district, near Sedalia. The victims were Roy Hollingsworth, Ed Hall and Virgil Hall. Relatives, Cole, Scott, Swearingen and Clayton H. Scholl, Pettis, county.

Mail Pt. H. Chrisney was killed at Baron Lake Park in the Ozark mountains when he attempted to land. First Class Private Ralph Hall, observer, was killed on the way to the hospital.

Two thousand one hundred dollars was the price paid for Grand Champion Pet Hen, weighing 3,300 pounds, sold by auction to the last biggest hog in the world.

More than 9,000 veterans assembled at Atlanta, Ga., at the grave of Joseph E. Johnston, commander of the United Confederate Veterans, the occasion being the 92nd anniversary of their general's birth.

Six robbers held up the paymaster of the Detroit Edison company, Detroit, in the lobby of a Detroit avenue building at 10 o'clock in the morning and escaped with pay roll envelopes containing $16,000.

Bartholomew Hill, fifty-seven, and his three sons, Ora, seventeen; Leonard, fifteen and Walter, eighteen, are dead as a result of their automobile having hit by a train operated by the Illinois Central railroad at Gibson City, Ill. Four daughters remained broken legs and one lost an eye.

Fail to test the constitutionality of the war time prohibition act was the decision in the federal district court at Louisville, Ky., in the case of the Brown-Forman Co. of Chicago and Marshall Baillie of Louisville.

Six hours and forty-five minutes from Mineola flying field, New York, to Ashburn Field, Dallas, Texas, a total of miles in 26 minutes. That's just a little faster than Lieut. Maynard, Lieut. Belvin W. Maynard, R. S. A., made the record in a De Haviland 4.

Foreign

The imperial Japanese privy council has approved the peace treaty and has submitted it to the emperor for his signature, it is announced at Tokyo.

Disorders due to the recent uprising of peasants in Sicily continue, according to reports from Palermo. A group of peasants, supported by soldiers, are still trying to invade all estates of the wealthy.

The state of war in France and Alsace-Lorraine is expected to be ended and the censorship lifted by two presidential decrees signed Saturday, which become effective Monday through publication in the Official Journal at Paris.

The Danish government at Copenhagen will present to the next parliament a measure providing for fighting in the national laws of the nation. The most important purpose is to abolish the king's power to declare war.

Four hundred members of the Irish republican army are in a Sinn Fein meeting attended by 10,000 persons at Ballinasloe.

Ukrainian troops have been surprised and attacked by a Russian volunteer army and are being driven back in progress, according to the Ukrainian legation at London, quoting advices received from Poland.

Two strikers, both foreigners, were killed and state policemen arrested when a battle between the two groups of striking steel satke rioting at Indiana Harbor.

Tandem heads of the Rowden boy church forces are embarrassing to the Rowden boy church forces are embarrassing to the Rowden boy church forces are embarrassing to