COHEN SPEAKS HERE

Matt S. Cohen, democratic nominee for Secretary of State, addressed a well filled house at the court house Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Cohen and the Republican party had selected him as the most available democratic nominee on for the useless expenditure of money. He severed Mr. Morrow for his attacks Mr. Morrow had made on his administration as Commissioner of Agriculture.

Mr. Cohen said, "I have been called a carpet bagger and a scalawag by Mr. Morrow and his crowd. I should think that any gentleman would seem a sweet morsel compared to a corrupt gang such as they are." Mr. Cohen said the Democratic party was going ground every day, and all that is needed is a big democratic majority next Tuesday for the Democrats to go to the polls.

"Applicants for the position of census enumerator are requested to call at the superintendent's office, Monday, November 3. There are several applicants for the place.

BARTERVILLE NEWS

Our school Literary society was well attended last Thursday afternoon. Every one voted for it by a large majority. As you remember, Mr. Editor, we have a literary society and girls should not play together at school. This was our school's first debate for the year.

Yes, it was an unusually good game of ball last Friday. The boys didn't appear elsewhere this year. The school boy played a two-game series with the picked team. The school was successful, in the game but it was decided almost to the last. They fought out next literary program Friday, Nov. 7th.

Mr. Enoch Jacobs just returned from Indiana, called on his best girl last Sunday.

C. V. Snapp, Herbert Snapp, Mrs. Grace Snapp and little daughter, Geneva spent Saturday evening with Mrs. Snapp's parents.

Our new assistant, Miss Gaither, is on appointment at the A. C. Church Sunday.

In a result of the contentious, cause, Mr. Longmire, a lodge made on our school house. Lodge rough for Coon Kentucky now. Must not stay, nor be travels just the same.

Several from this place visited Big Union last Friday. Our principal, C. V. Snapp, reports a good school at that place.

Our assistant teacher, Miss Rivers, spent Saturday and Sunday at Silver Grove Kindred.

If soon still precipitates "the word" will soon need a shave.

Last Tuesday evening our school was entertained by the following: Mrs. Dunnie Carson, Mrs. C. V. Snapp, Mrs. Lee Belcher, Mrs. Frederick Snapp, Mrs. Ida Mae Miller, of Cynthiana, Mrs. Norman Lynam and Mr. Claud Lynam.

Miss Maud Mrs. Joe Hilsbie spent from Friday until Monday with their parents at Barefoot.

VOLLEY BALL GAME AT BARTERVILLE SCHOOL

The Barterville school defeated the picked team 4 games out of 6. The game by points, however, was raiser close as the school boys received 34 points against 32 for the picked team. The score played was as follows:

Barterville School: Capt. 2; Youell, 19; Kendall Lassere, 5; Frederick, 6; and Taylor, 1.

Picked team—Mattox, Capt., 11; Taylor (Frank) 6; Kenjamin, 5; Shaup (Hance) 3; Shaw, 1; "Pike," 5. The boys would like to play a return match but some of the players made few points was not the fault of the individual, for the team just failed as a whole to land the ball in the opponent's court. Hendrick never failed to land the ball on the net, but his opponents failed to return it. We should see these scrubs at Bald Hill, Oct. 31, just after the Association adjourns.

CHARLES CRAWFORD GORST

Charles C. Gorst, "the Bird Man," presents his most unique platform offering of the present day. Purely as a vaudeville act, Mr. Gorst's act is very highest rank. But Gorst's offering is more. It is a delight to the eye and ear, instructive and educational. A lover of birds and all outdoors, Mr. Gorst has devoted years to the study of bird songs. Many of these he has learned through the medium of a music roll which he himself devised. To hear him talk of birds and bird life would be a treat. But Mr. Gorst does more than talk about birds. He sings the bird songs of the world, and imitates them, and in such a marvelous manner that the birds themselves come jealous. Of course, he whistles the songs—and doesn't sing them. If he did, he'd be the musical sensation of the world. His whistling is much nearer higher than the voice can touch. But still the limitations of Gorst's genius have not been reached. He is an artist of real merit, and has made large paper paintings, in the natural colors, of all the birds, which he uses in connection with his songs he imitates. These are shown under sharp lighting and add greatly to the charm and interest of the most extraordinary platform offering. Don't fail to hear him when he appears at School Auditorium, Nov. 6th, 1919.

C. A. PITMAN & COMPANY
CARLISLE, KENTUCKY

Elect Gov. Black Tuesday

Kentuckians! The issues are clear! On its record in State and Nation, a united Democracy asks you to answer these questions by your votes on Tuesday, November 4th.

Will a Ringing Message of Cheer go to that sick chamber in Washington, or will Kentucky go under the cloud of support of those men who are seeking to defeat America's Greatest Statesman, purely for partisan Reasons?

Will Kentucky go forward to four years of progress under the able leadership of Governor James D. Black, or will it become a pawn in the hands of A. T. Hert, whose sole use for our State is the furtherance of personal ambition?

Ballard

Self-Confessed Profiteer

Thurston Ballard, the multi-million-aire president of Ballard Stock Yards, Louisville, was the man chosen by A. T. Hert, the Republican "Boss" of Kentucky, to head the ticket as the candidate for Lieutenant Governor. A close personal and business friend of Mr. Hert's, with ample funds at his disposal for campaign purposes, it is easy to see why he was chosen for as the nominee for this office.

Admits Selling His Flour at $1.10 Less in Nine States Than in His Own State.

This is the man who is running with Mouth-Piece Morrow at the head of the Republican ticket—the man who, by his own admission, pleaded guilty to profiteering—the man charged with profiteering in the necessities of life on bottom in a stop at the people of Kentucky. The records he gave is that he sells his flour for cash in New Orleans though Kentuckians could not buy cash!

Black Fights For the League of Nations But Morrow Only Equivocates!

The Republican nominee is already listening to "His Master's Voice." To Gov. Black's repeated challenges as to his stand for or against the League of Nations, he has given only evasive answers. He dare not face the issue fairly and squarely.

Yet is there anyone who doubts that the election of Morrow will be hailed by Republicans as a victory in their fight in opposition to the League of Nations.

Elect Morrow governor and they will come out from under cover and in glaring headlines announce that Woodrow Wilson's stand for civilization has been repudiated.

By their evasion they stand against it—they make it an issue.

Kentucky gave nearly three thousand of her sons to make the world safe for democracy. Will their lives have been given in vain? Will Kentucky continue to uphold the hands of Woodrow Wilson, to whom the peoples of the world are looking for leadership? Your votes Tuesday will decide.

Shall A. T. Hert Rule Kentucky?

Hark to What Chairman Rhea Said of A. T. Hert, the Republican "Boss" of Louisville, in His Speech at the Opening of the Democratic State Campaign at Hopkinsville.

"Shall A. T. Hert, lately of Indiana, now of Kentucky, be allowed to name the members of the State Tax Commission? Shall he and his millions dominate the politics of this state for the next four years? This is the most vital issue facing the people of the State today.

"Shall Mr. Hert, with the aid of Thurston Ballard, the profiteer, and the other millionaire candidates on the Republican ticket, be allowed to take over the State government outright? Behind Mr. Morrow's booming voice is the cunning hand of Hert. Morrow is the mere mouth-piece for Hert. The voice is that of Jacob, but the hand that of Esau. Shall Hert build a bridge from the Louisville City Hall to the State Capitol? Shall the Louisville Republican machine extend its sway to Frankfort?"

Vote The Democratic Ticket and Vote It Straight

Morrow's Todays Are All Yesterdays

Seemingly, he does not know that it is Gov. Black who is his opponent in the present campaign. His entire campaign has been one of "what he would have done."

He has said he would have kicked out the School Book Commission, though even he must have known that that would have made him a lawbreaker. The question naturally arises—would he, as governor, care for the laws of the state?

He has criticized the new tax law, though he knows that he gave it his endorsement and that it bears the name of a fellow Republican. Not he—but Gov. Black instead—has made constructive criticism of this law.

He has continually talked of "cleaning house at Frankfort" and charged the maintenance of useless offices—yet to repeated demands he has not dared name one charge against any man nor specifically state one office he considered useless.

Far Out of Step With Kentucky's Progress

Morrow has gone far back to Augustus E. Willson's administration for comparison of expenditures. By doing this, he has shown a lamentable lack of knowledge of the costs of today and of the yesterday in which he has been living.

He has shown, too, a surprising lack of knowledge of the onward wave of progress that Kentucky has been making.

Seemingly he does not know that since Gov. Willson's term a Good Roads Department has been established and it has built 1,742 miles of good roads, at a cost to the state of $3,040,911.00.

Seemingly he does not know that Kentucky now has 13,000 rural schools while under the Willson administration there were but 8,000. Is it any wonder $2,800,000 more has been spent for educational purposes?

Not Too Late, Judge!

Judge Bethurum, it is not too late! You publicly stated that you would withdraw the Republican nominee if there were but 8,000. Is it any wonder $2,800,000 more has been spent for educational purposes?

At the same time your candidate was admitting that he wrote a letter opposing the pardon of the five farmers convicted. You need even take his word for it. Attorney General Palmer will tell you, as he has told all of Kentucky in a public letter, that the fact is on file over at Washington show that Morrow did oppose the pardon that was rightfully granted these men.

Make good your word. Your candidate's guilt is proven. It is up to you.

NURSE OFFERS HER OPINION OF TONIC'S MERITS

"TRUTONA WORKED LIKE MAGIC IN MY CASE," MRS. RICHEY ASSERTS.

Paducah, Ky., Nov. 8.—A. Richey, 66 years old, of 641 South Sixth st. has been a resident of Paducah the past twenty-seven years, two of which she has been employed as nurse, as a practical nurse. These years of experience as a nurse have given to Mrs. Richey a thorough knowledge of many different medicines, a fact which is well lend inestimable force to her indorsement of Trutona, the perfect tonic.

"Trutona has worked like magic in my case," is the tribute paid the perfect tonic by Mrs. Richey.

"I've had kidney trouble for several years," she said. "This caused pain in my back so severe at times that I could hardly endure it. Also I had stomach trouble, too. After each meal I'd feel bloated and would be annoyed by a shortness of breath. Because of my weakened kidneys I would have to get up seven or eight times during the night.

"Since I have received from Trutona what has been veritable, I never have to get up in the night now, on account of my kidneys. The pain in my back has disappeared. And my stomach—well, it's fine now. Because of my weakened kidneys I had been afraid to eat many things, but now I'd feel bloated and would be annoyed by a shortness of breath. Because of my weakened kidneys I would have to get up seven or eight times during the night.

"Since I have received from Trutona what has been veritable, I never have to get up in the night now, on account of my kidneys. The pain in my back has disappeared. And my stomach—well, it's fine now. I feel that I enjoy my meals as much as anyone. I'm glad to say that every thing I have said about Trutona is the sincerest thank I can say. I hope others suffering as I did will try it."

Trutona is being manufactured and explained at Tureman & Son's Drug Store.

PRINCE ALBERT

the national joy smoke

Copyright 1919 by R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co.

NEVER was such right-handed-two-fisted smokejoy as you puff out of a jimmy pipe packed with Prince Albert! That's because P. A. has the quality!

You can't fool your taste apparatus any more than you can get five aces out of a family deck! So, when you hit Prince Albert, coming and going, and get up half an hour earlier just to start stoking your pipe or rolling cigarettes, you know you've got the big prize on the end of your line!

Prince Albert's quality alone puts it in a class of its own, but when you figure that P. A. is made by our exclusive patented process that cuts out bite and parch—well—you feel like getting a flock of dictionaries to find enough words to express your happy days sentiments!

Tongue and lungs, take and thine, handsome pound and half-pound tin humidors and that classy, practical pound crystal glass humidor with sponge moistener top that keeps the tobacco in such perfect condition!
