Important News Events of the World Summarized

Washington

Congress at Washington was asked formally to appropriate $420,127,841 to wind up the affairs of the railroad administration. Walker D. Hines, railroad administrator, urged the need of auditing from the government's experience in liberal estimates at $900,000,000.

A reduction of $37,500,000 in the national debt—more than double the amount by which the debt was lowered during any previous month—was accomplished during March, the treasury reported at Washington. The national debt now stands at $24,826,000,000.

A tentative agreement has been reached by leaders of the senate and house at Washington to have congress take a recess of about three months beginning in the early part of June.

Wage negotiations between the conference committee representing the railroads and the unions were broken off at Washington.

The Socialists carried the Davenport (Ia.) city election, electing all city officers and five out of eight aldermen.

Foreign

A Canadian air force is to be formed immediately, says a dispatch from London. The personnel will be drawn from volunteers from the ranks of the overseas forces and the royal air force resident in Canada. The force will be organized immediately in the beginning of about 5,000 men.

It is announced at Barcelona, Spain, that the Spanish loan of four years ago to the city is virtually free from strikes. The last general strike was in 1919.

A General dispatch says thousands of German refugees, the majority of them wealthy, are gathering on the Dutch and Belgian frontier and numerous flatly-demanding entrance into Holland.

A Dublin dispatch says Easter Sunday, the fourth anniversary of the Sinn Fein uprising, passed without a repetition of the result. However, orders were issued that throughout Eire, beginning Sunday evening, to the Sinn Fein Easter week, to the government's Easter display of force. This authorization consists of the week-end leave throughout Ireland was given. Sixty-four per cent of the police force of Dublin and 21 revenue offices raided and their records seized.

The French government at Paris decided to arrange with French troops the control of the city of Frankfort, Germany. Hamburg and Hanau and their surroundings, the full force of the French army of occupation in Germany. This action is reported for the invasion of the Ruhr district by the French and German government troops is violation of the Versailles treaty and an infraction of their withdrawal.

On the Caucasian front the bolshevist forces have driven the Ossets from Mount Nikolayevskaya northward of Vladikavkaz, according to a Moscow official report sent out by the soviet government at Moscow.

Eighty members of American Red Cross food, clothing, medicine and hospital units, the first to enter Germany, have arrived at Vienna from Berlin, according to a dispatch passing this and destitute in that city.

The house of commons at London has passed the budget bill by a vote of 310 to 56. The vote was 384 to 94.

The Paris edition of the Chicago Tribune, filled with Paris Herald Tribune, was seized by police and the editors were ordered withdrawn at a meeting of the council of ministers.

Two thousand persons employed at ten mines in the Kansas coal fields are on strike, it was announced at Pittsburg.

Charles Ryan, forty-five, of Des Moines, died of a hanging rope in an effort at pretending. The police are trying to find his relatives.

Two men in a motorcar held up the messenger of the Bank of Commerce in the Twenty-third street, Jackson, Mich., Kansas City, Mo., and escaped with a bundle containing $15,000.

Demands of corn shoe workers for increased wages with the shoe industry at Marshalltown, Mass., seemed to be unsatisfactory.

George Roberts, negro, was taken from the city jail at Laurens, S. C., by a mob and hanged to a railroad bridge on the outskirts of the city.

Would Sound Like Business.

Cornish (speaking to new recruit trying to drill)—What was your occupation before entering the army?

Rookie—Traveling salesman, sir.

Cornish—Billy's recruit, you'll get plenty of orders here.

First Thought Wife of Home.

Pat was in the army hospital wounded and having been severely wounded. After healing at the dressmaker all about him, he asked: "How long has Ireland had home rule?"

Northcoton of the United States woman suffrage constitutional amendment was defeated in the lower house of the Delaware legislature at Dover, 19 to 17, with one not voting.

Custom receipts for the port of New York established a new monthly record during March, according to the report of Collector Newton. A total of $22,283,926 was collected.

A 44-mile gale, blowing into Chicago, brought with it a five-inch sum of snow and drowned the city in white Easter garb. It was the snowiest day for Easter in the history of the weather bureau.

Personal

Dr. William Martin, seventy-one, medical inspector of the United States public health service, who had been in contracting yellow fever in Florida and Louisiana, died on San Francisco.

Charles H. McAllister, Jr., president of the Lackawanna Steel company, died suddenly in Baltimore hospital according to a telegram received at Buffalo by officials of the company at Buffalo and Lackawanna.

The engagement of Miss phlen Taft, daughter of former President Taft, and Paul Frederick J. Manning of Yale university, was formally announced at New Haven, Conn.

Politics

The fourteenth annual three-day general conference of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints (Mormon) opened at Salt Lake City with many thousands of people present.

An uninstructed delegation to the Republican national convention was elected at Providence, R. I., without instructions as to state and district Republican conventions.

The name of President Wilson, with that of Governor Cox, was placed on Georgia's presidential preferential primary ballot, with withdrawn by action of a numbered absent at Atlanta.

Domestic

A township which arrived at Halifax, N. S., on the way from Liverpool to New York, had aboard gold valued at $10,000,000 destined for the United States subsequent to New York.

Ten persons were drowned near Lewistown, Ill., when a flatboat they used as a ferry capsized on the Sanganash river, which is about two miles above the normal stage due to recent rains.

Capt. Kit Dalton, the sole survivor of Jesse James' band of outlaws, the Quantrell raiders, and the Younger brothers band of outlaws, died at Menlo, Okla. He was eighty-two years old.

John Fisher seventy-six years old, declared to have been the inventor of the kitchen sink, died at his home here at Muskogee, Okla. There were wounds on the forehead and the upper part of the body.

Mail Gov. W. L. Silbert gave up command of Camp Gordon, near Atlanta, Ga., commanding he held retired from the army and that he would go at his farm near Bowling Green, Ky., probably would take up engineering work.

Train service throughout the Chicago district, virtually normally crippled by the heavy snowstorm, was practically disorganized by an unprecedented strike of switchmen and yardmen, called by a newly formed "patriots' union."

A flooding of Plainfield says Lower Peel was in eruption for a brief period. Water, mud and debris were ejected from the south end of the crater for about an hour.

A shipment of $75,000,000 in gold from Great Britain reached at New York, more than half of which was for banking the total received during the month. Other shipments of gold from Europe are expected soon.

Eighteen who broke into the Morgan Mortuary at Hot Springs, Ark., and looted a body, valued at $2,344 and escaped with $1,000 in cash, jewelry and cigarettes valued at $50.

The Chicago Tribune, the Chicago Herald, Food with Herald Examiner, Hearst papers, and Hearst's magazines were ordered withdrawn at a meeting of the council of ministers, it was announced at Paris.

Two thousand miners employed at ten mines in the Kansas coal fields are on strike, it was announced at Pittsburg.

One hundred and eighty-eight cows, all or nearly eight, occurred as a result of the explosion of a gasoline tank at Lawrence, Mass., on Saturday. The military are in charge of the situation.

Lemon de Lemon, president of the Irish republic, was reported in the Irish republic, was reported in the Irish republic, was reported in