BALD HILL NEWS

Mrs. Wm. Rogers (nee Nancy Mae Hazzard), is very low.

Mrs. Clarence Alexander is improving.

Mrs. Thos. Hyman, who was in Louisville undergoing treatment, has returned home much improved.

Bald Hill church is about to secure the services of a pastor. Rev. Hall, formerly pastor of the Christian church at Mason, Georgia, but now located at Ewing, Ky. We deem we are very fortunate in securing the service of an experienced pastor and desire that all interested will come out this coming Sunday and hear him in person. We have been informed that going around with the article that the services might be second for two Sundays, so if you would like to hear preaching two Sundays in the month come with the intention of helping to support him, or increasing your subscription if necessary.

Last Sunday being Sunday School seemed to have taken on new life. The coming Sunday is "Go To Sunday School Day." Everyone come and some one from some where please come with the intention of teaching a class. The rest of the year. Is it not a shame that the Sunday School when the youth needs to be trained in right living and thinking, Sunday School teachers can not be found? Are we our brothers keepers?

EAST UNION

Last Sunday being the 64th birthday of Mrs. Amanda Duvall, of East Union, her children surprised her with a nice birthday dinner. About forty-six relatives and friends were present, all having well filled baskets of good things to eat. Dinner served on, after which many games were played. All enjoyed a very pleasant day. Mr. and Mrs. James W. Myers, Mrs. Ida Whaley and Mrs. Harvey Gross attended a total discontinuance of supplies. Something had to be done and they quickly. The author did something—he took a famous four-letter word to which he happened to be accustomed to lunch at the most expensive and conspicuous restaurant in town. When it was over he walked home for lack of another nickel.

"I've not an inkling in my mind as to why he may be," he patiently explained to the proprietor, "but I've just had my bereaved quarter. Several of my friends have died at that price, and I have they named twenty-five cents as the price of Paris last month in good for at least 90 days at season on my account."

ALICE JOYCE

Most of the children were sent away from the city when they have had their names changed to Alice Joyce.

Alice Joyce seems destined to have the same distinction. The Virginia Theatre has had several offerings, but, as all other motion picture stars, she has been without a role that stood out above the rest. Recently she starred in "The Sapphire of Brandt," adapted from Rex Beach's powerful story adapted by Mr. and Mrs. George Hull and directed by Mr. Hull, and she has the best role of her lovable career.

Heartbeat Runs on Farms.
