PUBLIC SALE OF FIFTY-ONE ACRES LAND

Having decided to change my location, I will offer my farm of about 51 acres, situated about three-fourths mile from East Union on the Somerset pike, to the highest and best bidder, on

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1920
at 10:30 o'clock, sharp

The improvements consist of a good six room dwelling, four on main floor and two upstair rooms. This house has been built recently and is three years old. Good cistern, milk house, smoke house, garage, coal house, two house corn crib and a new four bent barn.

The land is in a high state of cultivation and practically all in grass.

This farm is situated within three quarters of a mile from the East Union Graded School and is likewise close to church, blacksmith shop and one of the best mercantile stores in the county.

I will take pleasure in showing the farm to anyone in advance of the sale. Here is a bargain for a person who desires a small farm.

LOCALS

TONIGHT—THURSDAY

Comes Ethel Clayton in "A City Sparrow." This is a dandy picture and story; don't miss it.

FRIDAY—Comes a double header of "The Third Eye." You will see the 7th and 8th episodes, and will not miss anyof the serial. Don't fail to see this double header. Jane Novak and Carmelo.

SATURDAY—Blanche Sweet in "Sporting Chance." Say, this is some picture, a Western; it is simply a big picture, come and see for yourself.

MONDAY—William S. Hart in "The Cradle of Courage." This is different from most Hart pictures. It is a dandy good picture and you will like it.

TUESDAY—Alice Brady in "Sinners." I know you want to see this one, as don't forget "Way Down East."

WEDNESDAY—Madeline Traverse in "Lost Money." You will see this one; it is no mushy story, but a story full of romance and action, and you will enjoy it and all other pictures we show.

We publish our program in The Mercury for the benefit of all and we want to reach all, and we think this is the best and only way. We would send you advertising letters through the mails, but you would probably lay it aside and not read it. We want our programs read, so we use The Mercury, knowing that to be the best way To reach you. We know everybody reads it and we believe in home print. Just look at the time; there is where we make our money, be it little or much, at home and in where we spend it with the people that patronize us. We depend on you and you on us, so that is the way it goes, and if you want to know what we will show all you have to do is to get your Mercury and you will find our program in its usual place, and then come to the Lyric Theatre and see the best pictures on the screen.

LYRIC THEATER

A disastrous fire visited Cadiz Monday, entailing a loss of over $250,000.

Attorney J. H. Rose is acting county judge this week in the absence of Judge Harry Kennedy.

Miss Maymie Jackson has resigned her position as bookkeeper for Effron Harper Garage, and Mrs. Ina Brady has been selected to fill the vacancy.

The merchants of Carlisle are displaying holiday goods, and the stocks are very complete. Remember, only 25 more shopping days until Christmas.

Elsewhere in this issue will be found the statements of the four banks of Nicholas county, which show all of these institutions to be in a flourishing condition.

George Williams, colored dry cleaner, was fined $5 and costs in police court Monday morning on the charge of disorderly conduct, it being alleged he struck his wife.

A new recruiting office was here this week and secured several recruits. Both young men whose names we were unable to learn, were sent to the Great Lakes training station near Chicago.

The coal situation in Carlisle has been relieved considerably and a good many coal yards in town has a supply. However, the coal men still have not been prepared for the market. It is expected that when the market opens here it will carry the 1920 crop will be rapidly marketed and every sale will find full floors.

The political pot in Nicholas county has begun to boil, and it is more than likely that several offices in the Nicholas county will be strongly contested next August. While no formal announcements have been made, a few persons have made known their intentions of being candidates.

Mr. J. H. Tebbs, of Los Angeles, California, writing Mr. John F. Powell, a boyhood friend, of this city, to renew his subscription to The Mercury says: "I have not received an issue of The Mercury for four weeks, but suppose I have been without my paper since I started taking it over fifty years ago."

Last Thursday night Mrs. Ed Bowen was taken severely ill at her home on West Main street and since that time has been in a critical condition with little hope entertained for her recovery. On Sunday of this week she suffered a stroke of partial paralysis and has been in an unconscious condition since that time.

While hauling corn into the barn from the field last week, Mr. George Read, of near East Union, met with a painful accident. Mr. Read was riding on the wagon loaded with corn and when a wheel struck an obstruction in the field the jar caused Mr. Read to fall. He sustained a badly fractured leg, from which he has suffered much pain.

The pupils of the Carlisle high school have organized a basket ball team, and will at once schedule games with Cynthiana, Millersburg and other teams. While the official line-up for the team has not been announced, there are several applicants for each position and no doubt the local team will be a strong one this season.

The sheriff's office was a very busy place Saturday, Monday and Tuesday with persons paying their taxes before the penalty went on. Over $50,000 was collected Monday and Tuesday. The delinquent list this year is very slight and Sheriff Myers is grateful for the results of the collection. Many persons were under the impression that they had until January 1 to pay their taxes and consequently a very slight part of the tax was collected until this week.

While scuffling with some companions at Mike & Donnelly's confectionery Sunday evening Sterling Kerns received a painful injury when he was shoved through a large pane in the front door. The glass in the door was shattered, and the palm of Kerns' hand was laid open to the depth of several inches. Sunday night a falling glass struck him in the face, cutting a few minor gashes. He was taken to Dr. Martin's office, where his wounds were dressed.

Following a stroke of apoplexy which left her partially paralyzed, Mrs. Madeline McDowell Breckenridge, 45, years old, wife of Capt. Desha Breckinridge, editor of the Lexington Herald, died at her home in Lexington early last Thursday morning.

Mrs. Breckenridge was a great granddaughter of Henry Clay, and was an internationally known suffragist and civic leader. During the recent political campaign she spoke in several states in the interest of the Democratic party. She was one of the most widely known and esteemed women in Kentucky.

James Hasselrigg, the seven year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hasselrigg, of Millersburg, suffered a narrow escape last Wednesday afternoon when he was struck and knocked down by an automobile driven by Robert Woodford, deputy sheriff of the school at Miranda. The accident occurred on the little fellow's way home from the Miranda school house. The child was picked up in an unconscious condition and carried to the home of his father, where medical attention was given, but it was necessary to remove the home of his parents. No bones were broken, and he is recovering nicely.
