

SWEET SEVENTEEN
By RITA HULLFAN

It was a long time ago, when the world was young and the days were long, that I met a girl who was just seventeen years old. She was the prettiest girl I had ever seen, and she was just what I needed. She was a sweet, sweet girl, and she was just what I needed. She was a sweet, sweet girl, and she was just what I needed. She was a sweet, sweet girl, and she was just what I needed.

Where Christmas Comes From

By T. C. HARBAUGH

From the land of snow and story,
Awaited and old as Time,
Where the Elf in his goblin's disguise
Wears the red and white,
When the infant Savior lay,
Cradled in a manger,
Christmas comes to us today.

From the fields where grew the fir,
Where his childhood stirred by
Where he learned the laborer's song,
"Nash the burning Orient sky,
And there the laborer's cry,
Over hedge and many wall,
Caroling to us the goodly
Christmas comes to greet us all.

Kelems still the song is singing
To the far of Orient sea,
And the last of his bringing
On his way of his bringing
On his way of his bringing
On his way of his bringing

When he felt the path of sorrow,
Where his life the brighter sorrow
Down the body's disciplines
Where the path is revealed,
How "Hallelujah" the people
In the spirit of Galilee.

Are, from humble but and simple
Bless the authors of the song,
There is laid the laborer's
How many a "Hallelujah" came from glory
Upon earth's face of Galilee.

For the halls of Christmas ringing
In the spirit of Galilee,
Let the hearts of the laborer
Let the hearts of the laborer
Let the hearts of the laborer
Let the hearts of the laborer

AVOID CHRISTMAS TREE FIRE

Be careful when using Christmas trees. Avoid fire hazards by using proper lighting and decorations. Use only certified electric lights and avoid overloading outlets. Place the tree in a well-ventilated area and away from flammable materials.

GOOD THINGS ON CHRISTMAS
Christmas is a time of joy and goodwill. Share the love with those in need. Donate to charity and help make the holidays brighter for everyone.

Bring Gifts of Goodwill
Instead of material gifts, consider giving acts of kindness. A smile, a word of encouragement, or a helping hand can be the most valuable gifts of all.

Don't Forget the Boys
Remember that every child deserves a special gift. From toys to books, find something that will bring joy to a young heart.

Don't Forget the Old
The elderly deserve our special attention. A visit, a letter, or a small gift can brighten their day and show them they are not forgotten.

Don't Forget the Poor
Consider the needs of the less fortunate. A donation to a food bank or a homeless shelter can make a significant difference in someone's life.

Good Things To Eat...

BRUCE KING

Rememberable Transformation
John had been with his father as he worked in the mill. He had been there for many years, and he had learned a great deal about the business. He was a hard worker and a good man, but he was not happy. He was lonely and he was missing something. He was missing his mother and his father, and he was missing the life he had once had. He was missing the life he had once had.
