News of the Week Cut Down for Busy Readers

Washington

President Wilson at Washington today sent his first veto message to the Republican house to save 3,500,000 settlers who have been starved by the "short sighted policy of the last congress." He announced that he would veto every twenty of these bills once.

Operation of the United States postal service for the fiscal year 1920 resulted in a deficit of $17,370,467, Postmaster General Burleson announced in his annual report to the President of Washington.

The Johnson immigration bill, as amended by the senate committee, providing for a period of one year, was passed by the house at Washington. The vote was 296 for the bill and 41 against. Six members voted "present."

Repeal of four of the wartime laws were voted by the house at Washington, which adopted the Volstead resolution for that purpose after two hours of debate. The vote to suspend the rules on the resolution was unanimous.

The senate at Washington passed unanimously a concurrent resolution declaring the revival of the war finance corporation necessary to provide credits to farmers.

Preliminary negotiations for the peace treaty between the United States of Representative Alvan T. Fuller, Massachusetts, and Senator Lawrence Sherman, at Washington.

Personal

Stanley Schuyler (Mrs. Cora-wright Schuyler), the outlaw, is dead at Lodi.

The funeral of Marquis John Armsby Shaffer, brother of Pope Benedict, was held in St. Charles' church at Rome.

Horace E. Dodge, automobile manufacturer, died at his winter home in Palm Beach, Fla. He had been in poor health since he suffered an attack of influenza a year ago.

The twelfth grandchild of the late Theodore Roosevelt, a girl, was born to Mrs. Richard Derby, youngest daughter of the former President.

Domestic

Robbers who smashed their way into the vault of the First State bank of Glasgow, Crete county, Oklahoma, escaped with $5,000.

A woman's terror was found in New York bay, off Staten Island. It was Mrs. Lillian Lonergan and a police investigation began.

Five men were killed and seven injured in an explosion at the Atlas Powder company's plant at Kenvil, near Dover, N. J. Lake Hopatcong's ice pack was broken by the gunpowder blast.

Stranger Lewis took the county's prize pumpkin and was pleased as Punch at Strocker at New York by a head last week. In 1 hour, 41 minutes and 46 seconds.

Two misdemeanors are held on the station ship, Ernest Merveten, as the Annapolis (Md.) naval academy authorities continue with alleged hazing, according to Rear Admiral Scales, superintendent of the institution.

Herbert C. Hoover arrived in Marion and went direct to Thursday at the short Harding's home. Mr Hoover gave the President-elect first-hand information on conditions in Europe preparatory to his duties.

George Brooks confessed slayer of Mrs. Frank Wolf, Will Hunter, was hanged at the state prison at Canon City, Col.

Four persons were killed, four more probably fatally injured and 20 injured, seriously when a Country Club train overran a car full of oil on a hill at Kansas City, Mo.

Charles Dorsey, a retired farmer of Ashland, who's wagon load of wood was struck by a train, died beneath the wheels of the engine.

The American Sugar Refining company of New York increased the price of sugar 1c per pound, making the fifth reduction of 10 per cent in wages which will mean more than 2 cents between the refineries, refineries, and is effective from December 1.

Franklin D. Roosevelt, Democratic candidate for vice president at the recent election, was appointed Assistant Secretary of the navy by President Wilson at the executive office in Union Square, New York, to succeed Truman H. Newberry, who resigned.

One of the five acts of the act of Congress of 1916 providing for co-operation with Germany and repeal the war act of Congress of 1916 providing for co-operation with Germany and repeal the war act of Congress of 1916 providing for co-operation with Germany and repeal the war