MOST IMPORTANT NEWS OF WORLD

BIG HAPPENINGS OF THE WEEK CUT TO LAST ANALYSIS.

DOMESTIC AND FOREIGN ITEMS

Kernels Culled From Events of Moment in All Parts of the World— Of Interest to All the People Everywhere.

Washington

Enumeration of the nation's industries, including manufacturing plants, mines, quarries, oil and gas wells, for entry and valuation purposes, will start March 1, it was announced by Sam L. Rogers, director of the census at Washington.

• • •

Approximately 300 warships, including 56 destroyleaders, 123 and 21 flagships, 8 armored cruisers and 12 fleet submarines, will take part in the peacetime fight against the American navy after January 5, the board of control committee at Washington was told by Rear Admiral Taylor, chief of the bureau of construction and repair.

• • •

Europe, in so far as the United States government is concerned, must rely upon her own resources in preserving the financial equilibrium. This was the interpretation at Washington of the statement by Secretary of the Treasury Houston sent to a committee of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, which, through a referendum expression on the proposed interim financial report of financial and commercial leaders to discuss reconstruction problems.

• • •

The unofficial bipartisan inquiry into reservations to the peace treaty ministry continue in an end when the Democratic senators, failing in a last attempt to obtain a compromise on article 10, walked out of the conference on Washington and announced they would seek some other method of consultation.

• • •

Indictments of a widespread unrest among the farmers of the country, so thoroughly as to disturb the entire existing economic structure, is revealed in studies of the federal reserve sent out by the post office department at Washington.

• • •

Mobilization of an army of 2,000,000 men would be possible within five years after the passage of the army reorganization bill, Chairman Wadsworth of the senate military committee said in report at Washington.

• • •

For reforestation of national problems the bureau at Washington voted to appropriate $1,000,000 in addition to $2,000,000 previously granted by congress.

• • •

Secretary of the Treasury Glass at Washington consented to a reduction of the amount in the Fairmont relief bill from $150,000,000 to $125,000,000, after learning that to get $ to $50,000,000, as proposed, would be worse than nothing.

• • •

Government loans during 1921 will amount to approximately $55 for every family in the United States, Representative Lore (Rep.), Massachusetts, declared in the house at Washington.

Foreign

The Polish cabinet has signed a mobilization order, says a Warsaw report. The measure was taken, according to the address, because of the bolshevist advance.

• • •

When the new municipal council at Dublin assembled mostly of Sinn Feiners, met for the first time, it was greeted with cheers and waving caps by huge crowds as the flag of the republic was hoisted.

• • •

Approximately 5,000 acres of public land on the Shoshone (Wyo.) irrigation project will be opened to entry March 15, Secretary Lane announced.

• • •

Jules Guesde, the veteran socialist leader, battled for 60 minutes in the chamber of deputies at Paris, but in rendered a bill for the end of a general he lost the fight. The measure would give women civil, political, and economic equality with men.

• • •

A Berne special says the Swiss government has addressed a note to the League of Nations asking that the question of Swiss neutrality be the first one dealt with at the meeting of the council of the league.

• • •

Three hundred and seventy-five thousand of the 500,000 Austrian Hungarian prisoners of war taken by Russians, have returned to their homes, smallpox and typhus according to Vienna dispatch quoting an announcement by Red Cross headquarters at Geneva.

• • •

M. Takoff, former bolshie minister of public works and minister of the interior in the Malinoff cabinet of 1918, was assassinated at Paris, says a near Philippopolis, January 24. The assassin is described as a young fanatic.

• • •

A wireless dispatch from Moscow says a declaration signed by Premier Lenine, Foreign Minister Tchitcherin and Minister of War Trotzki, has addressed to the Polish government on behalf of the soviet government of the commissaries, invites a friendly conference with a view to the settlement of standing between Poland and soviet Russia.

• • •

The police barracks at Ardmore, County Waterford, were fired, and destroyed for two hours. One person was injured.

SOLONS WILL SET FAST PACE

EACH HOUSE WILL SEEK TO WORK OUT LEGISLATIVE PROGRAM QUICKLY.

AFTER THE USELESS OFFICE

Senate Appoints Committee to Assist Governor Morrow to Prepare Business Program—Various Offices—Wage Bill Hearing Is Planned.

Frankfort—Two sessions of the Legislature each day, beginning next week, will be advocated by members who are eager to put through the administration legislative program.

Steps were taken in the direction of two sessions when the senate decided to hear the calendar read into the records of the day. As a result House bills and resolutions will meet on even terms and there will be a race for the record of the speaker in the which body turns out legislation the quickest.

Monopoly of the House position was broken by introduction of Captain Morgan F. Shepherd, of Mercer, one of Kentucky's war heroes. Speaker Jouett Russell, in introducing him, declared said that Captain Shepherd had enlisted more than 100 Germans, Austrians and others, and that he had been wounded in action on the battlefield.

Dennis Wooten, ward of Representative Ed Wooten, was made sergeant at arms for the day. He is Kentucky's youngest.

After Useless Offices.

Senator Eric H. Harris offered a resolution to abolish the office of governor's secretary. Senator Harris declared the office was useless and that the duties could be performed by Governor Morrow's private secretary. Senator Frank objected to the resolution on the ground that the office was not intended to authorize further appointments and was effective for that term, he withdrew his objection and the resolution was put on the calendar for one day passage. The resolution was passed.

The senate defeated the 112 of Senator Frank Haly, Democrat, of Boone county, providing for the appointment of criminal lawyer to assist the attorney general. This was the first in order of business for the afternoon session.

The Committee on Insurgation and Labor has set a date for a hearing on the minimum wage bill offered in the house by Representative Ed Wooten, of Mercer.

Favorable reports were made by the senate on the bill of Senator Frank Rives to permit corporations to fund their indebtedness, the bill to provide registration of automobiles and the bill of Senator Jacob Metz, requiring a license to operate motor boats, and increasing owners responsibility for accidents caused by operation of boats. Senator Newton Pettit, chairman of the Committee for the State Law of Senator Pettit, reported favorably on the bill to regulate challenges to defendants in felony cases and there is controversy over, of Senator Bronstetter, forming the office of Special Commissioner of Statutes, and another by Senator Bronstetter, fixing penalty for welcoming girls less than 16 years old to farm or work in 24 hours.

School Legislation.

School legislation proposed in both Houses of the General Assembly will be discussed by State Superintendent George Colvin as a part of a general survey of the operation of the public school system. Economy bureau, the establishment of a common suffrage, to select the county superintendent by appointment by arrange or re-arrange districts, and the establishment of a uniform salary for each, were provided in bills measures introduced by Senator Arlie Porter and Representative Trimble, both upper and lower House, respectively. The bill provided for a minimum tax rate of 20 cents for the counties and 40 cents for the 51, formerly rates of 15 and 30.

Changes Expected.

Predictions that the high cost of living is going to lead to some important changes in municipal and county government, Legislative investigation of the high cost of living, the conduct and condemnation of their investigations, and the end of a number of the present session. Prediction has been made that the present year will be the last year that the present, police courts and justices of the peace will be the only existing judgeships. Increased living costs have made the salaries of these courts officials inadequate to support them.

Seek Annual Assessment.

Representatives of cities of the second class met last night and agreed to push a bill to provide for annual assessment of property instead of every four years as at present in second-class cities. Senator Ben Comingore, of Owensboro, opposes, that under the present plan of assessing for taxation purposes property often changes value during the intervening periods, and therefore pay too much or too little tax. An effort will be made to have the annual assessments made in July instead of January.

Librarian Elected.

After the address of Governor Hoeing the senate went into joint session and elected Mrs. Grace Garnett Hanna as state librarian to succeed Miss Lucy Price Hall, resigned, as librarian of the Kentucky Library Commission. Mrs. Hanna is a daughter of Judge Thomas Garnett, Democratic Commissioner of Garnett, Kavanaugh has been succeeded with the State Library 28 years. His term of office does not expire until June 7. It is understood that Mrs. Maud Tinsley Marcum, of Owensboro, will be appointed Assistant Librarian.

Colors in Soft Shadings.

Pastel colors are going to take the place of the vivid colors that we have become accustomed to within the past few years. That is, if one can prophesy correctly from what is already being worn and overlaid with such indication at Palm Beach and other winter resorts. There will be very pretty blue and soft rose green, sky blue and light violet, salmon or apricot pink and just plain baby pink—in short, all the colors will be there, but they will be in their soft shadings.

Fur Neckpieces.

Fur neckpieces, with practically no exception, are made in straight scarf form, in various lengths and widths. Collarette and fancy shoulder capes have some representation.

Full Gathered Skirts.

Some flare-ons drapeau feature full gathered skirts.

Like Accordion Pleated Skirts.

Accordion pleated skirts are in high favor.

Novelty Miser Bag.

A miser bag in black screen seal with a novelty made with double compartments, space for visiting cards and two purses. The wrist strap is of leather.

Tortoise Buckles on Hats.

Buckles of tortoise shell are used on small hats.

Coat Has Bloused Back.

The coat of the mode has a bloused back.

May Investigate High Costs.

A joint resolution introduced in the house by Representative Hebron Lawrence provides for the erection of a committee of five members, two of which shall be appointed by Lieutenant Governor S. Thruston Ballard and two by Speaker Joseph F. Haworth to investigate the cause of the present high cost of living and report to the Legislature not later than February 25. The resolutions also calls for an investigation as to whether the school officials of this state are being charged more for text books than those being sold for the books in other states.

The resolution of Representative John T. Murphy, of Covington, introduced yesterday, seeks to refund to liquor dealers the unearned portion of the state license fee, which has been reported an expression of opinion. It had been referred to the Committee on Appropriations.

Representative H. H. Barnes, of Lexington, laid before the House a memorial of the Kentucky State Labor Ivey, President of the University of Kentucky, favoring the passage of an appropriation for the next two years.

Representative Hebron Lawrence, of about McVey father.

Senator Ballard as an equivalent to the Federal Road, additional to the $2,000,000 appropriation, 1921, $2,000,000, 1922, $2,000,000.

Agricultural experiment station, $50,000.

Agricultural experiment station, $50,000.

Agricultural College, 1921, $35,000; 1922, $35,000. Miscellaneous, 1921, $150,000; 1922, $170,000.

Favors Referendum.

By a vote of 16 to 15 the Senate accepted the minority report of Senator Harris, of the Committee on Military Affairs, on his bill for submitting to the people of the state for a referendum before action by the Legislature of federal appropriations for the next biennial session of the committee, by a vote of 16 to 15 the Senate accepted and a report to that effect was ordered sent to the House. The action was on passing the plan. The action was contrary to the report of the committee, which had still was ordered read and the bill was ordered read and the bill be passed on by the Senate.

The committee also voted a resolution by Senator Sims reciting the fact that the state has a surplus of $1,000,000 accumulated against in the matter of the Senate Committee on Appropriations and Revenue, and requesting the committee to prevent such discrimination in appropriations as are now offered, in the bill.

Senator Sims also introduced a resolution to abolish commencing the second class where 2213-3 per cent of the assessed valuation is collected. The bill also provides that upon the abolition of the office the duties on the bailiwicks shall be taken by the bailiffs, collected.

Lynching Is Prevented.

Frankfort—Prevention of the lynching of Jerry Gaines, a negro, was brought to the attention of the House in the form of a resolution introduced by Representative Brock—felt for new Board of Control of the penitentiary and reformatory farms of the state. (This is the kind of a resolution that should be passed, it was published in the Fort Wedding Bells.)

Two Are Approved.

The resolution of Representative Brock, of Hopkins, and Representative Hall, of Logan, requesting the representatives in Congress to obtain the release of Sergeant Sidney Fahrney 12, the birthday of Abraham Lincoln, was passed by the House and sent to the senate for concurrence.

The resolution providing for a committee to investigate the high cost of living was published in the Fort Wedding Bells.

Bills receiving their first reading before the House include bills to increase the salaries of the Lexington police judge, and to increase the salaries of the Lexington police judge, and to increase the salaries of the Lexington police judge, and