REPUBLICANS WIN BY AVALANCHE OF VOTES; WOMEN'S BALLOT MAKES TOTAL A RECORD

By E. F. CLIPSON.

Over a great portion of the country it was what has heretofore been regarded as Democratic weather, minus that inclement. The result shows that rain or shine, half or more, the Republicans stick together. In some of the Eastern states, election day opened with flurries of snow, an augury as it turned out of that which came to pass.

An avalanche of ballots swept Warren G. Harding and Calvin Coolidge into office and buried their Democratic opponents, James M. Cox and Franklin D. Roosevelt. Such a repudiation in American politics never has been witnessed before, not even when Theodore Roosevelt defeated Alton B. Parker in the campaign of 1904. It had been the habit of Republicans to refer to that memorable year and predict that the result would be duplicated in this election, but few there were who expressed any confidence that it would be extraordinarily Harding and Coolidge undoubtedly have every Northern state as well as the border states of Maryland, West Virginia and Missouri.

States normally Republican show increased majorities, while the banner states of that party strike home runs that overstep the enormous increases registered in 1918. Vermont has returned a majority of more than 50,000, today show indicated that it will have more practically men than its presidential candidates had in 1916, and 500,000 and more. New York complete returns now show the state to have won by over 800,000 majority; certainly not less than 750,000.

Women Brave the Weather.

Of course the added female vote increases in large measure for the heavy totals. But in spite of the apathy which ruled during the campaign and caused all progressionists to anticipate a downward vote, the totals from all sources indicate that it is a heavy supporting of the Republican ticket even without the women's vote. Even the weather which in many places might have been expected to have worked from the party, seem to have had little effect.

Interesting returns show that Governor Cox has not carried more than the states of the solid south with their 114 electoral votes and the addition of Oklahoma and Kentucky with 26 electoral votes. The words "doubtful" has been stricken from the dictionary, for more states that seemed to be doubtful have gone for Harding and Coolidge. In addition, the solid south, which ruled during the war and probably now, while that party will hold its own, will be reduced by the loss of representatives. By 10 p. m. the returns indicated that Coolidge had been elected by a majority of 300,000 and probably more. Later returns showed that New York, Massachusetts, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Connecticut, Vermont, Maine, Rhode Island, Illinois, Ohio, New Hampshire, Delaware, Wisconsin, Colorado, Michigan, Indiana and Nebraska with a total of 240 electoral votes were safely in the Republican column, with enough Republican states on California, the Dakotas,

Vice President-Elect Calvin Coolidge.

Iowa, Minnesota, Washington and Oregon regarded as sure.

The Republican party has been restored to the Republican by pre-election observers, Governor Cox failed to carry even the Wilson vote of 1916 while Senator Harding added to the Republican strength almost the entire enrollment of new voters. It was this added to a circumstance which enabled the Republicans to carry New York, a Democratic stronghold, by more than 800,000 votes and roll up the avalanche.

HIS CAMPAIGN FUND SMALL

Wilbur W. Marsh, Democratic National Treasurer, Gives Figures Concerning Election Expenditures.

New York—Total receipts by the Democratic National committee to October 25 for the conduct of the campaign amount to $878,-851.24, according to an announcement by Wilbur W. Marsh, the party's national treasurer.

This figure, Mr. Marsh said, was submitted, according to the requirements of the corrupt practices law, to the clerk of the United States district court for the southern district of New York on October 24, and Mr. Marsh then stated the expenditures in the closing days of the campaign at $400,000 additional. The report shows that $301,-481.35 was spent between October 16 when a report was filed with the clerk of the United States district court in Washington, and October 24, the date of today's report.

The total estimated cost of the campaign, Mr. Marsh said, probably will approximate $1,500,000.

GIRLS END LONG BOAT TRIP

Round 200 Miles on Lake Winnipeg Collecting Fossils for Canada.

A 200-mile voyage by rowboat down the desolate shore of Lake Winnipeg has just been completed by Miss Alice M. Wilson of Ottawa and Miss Ella A. Pitts of Montreal. The young women, the first of their sex to make such a journey, rowed the entire distance themselves and were "on their own" all the time, pitching their tent every night and preparing all their meals. Along the shore they skirted here is not one settlement or even a farm.

The purpose of the trip was the collection of fossils for the Dominion geological department, in which Miss Wilson has been employed for several years. Miss Pitts, who is a school teacher, went with Miss Wilson as "company" and for the novelty of the experience.

ERNST LEADS IN CLOSE CONTEST

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR SENATE IS ELECTED IN KENTUCKY.

DEMOCRATS CARRY STATE

Charges of Fraud in Mountain Districts Is Made and Complete Investigations Is To Be Made By Federal Authorities.

Louisville, Ky.—The election in Kentucky developed into a neck and neck race for senator between Senator J. C. W. Beckham, Democrat, and Richard P. Ernst, Republican, candidate for the U. S. senate.

Practically complete returns from 2,400 precincts, out of 2,600 precincts in all, show four thousand, with only a majority of approximately seven thousand.

Richard P. Ernst.

It is likely that the next count will be made from the home precincts of the two candidates, as no senator prepared to concede the election. It is believed that it will help hope that the official count will show a safe majority for the Democrat.

Agents to Investigate '16

Agents of the Department of Justice have been ordered into the mountain districts to investigate charges of fraud in illegal election frauds, which have been charged in connection with the election, according to United States District Attorney Charles I. Dawson, who has headquarters in in Covington. Instructions to the agents to Dawson from Washington, D. C., were that they were to make a thorough investigation of all charges of fraud, but sufficient evidence to warrant an investigation of prosecutions was not necessary.

Elected to Congress.

The result of the Congressional contest in the Ninth district between Democrat Ben Johnson and Republican Swope is in doubt. Democrat Johnson and the Republican four in the latest returns. The Democrat claims the election by 200 majority.

First District—Albert S. Barkley, Democrat.

Second District—David H. Kinchloe, Democrat.

Third District—Robert Y. Thomas, Democrat.

Fourth District—Ben Johnson, Democrat.

Fifth District—Charles F. Ogden, Republican.

Sixth District—A. H. Rouse, Democrat.

Seventh District—J. Campbell Cantrill, Democrat.

Eighth District—Ralph W. Gilbert, Shelbyville, Democrat.

Ninth District—John W. Langley, Republican.

Eleventh District—J. H. Rolston, Republican.

The members are incumbents except where returned to office.

Many Women Cast Ballots.

The entrance of women into the political field was the most striking feature of the day, and gone to the polls in large numbers. No serious disorder was reported and many precincts scattered over the state polled the heavy vote heretofore unknown in off years.

Both John F. Haswell, Republican, and Edward Tachau, Democrat, were elected to the Fourth District in the race for Congress.

Fayette Is Democratic.

Lexington, Ky.—Unofficial returns from all but 3 of the 24 precincts in the city of Lexington and Fayette county give Cox a majority of 1,000 and indications are that the entire county will go Democratic by a majority ever accorded a Presidential candidate.

In the city of Lexington Cox received 6,619 votes and in the county 3,330 votes, giving him a total of 12,-949. Harding in the city received 5,472 and in the county 3,332 votes, giving him a total of 11,041, giving Cox a majority of 1,908.

Victory For Alien Land Law.

San Francisco—Early returns on the California alien land law amendment from precincts scattered over the state indicate a substantial lead in favor of the amendment.

Wanderer Sentenced.

Chicago—Carl O. Wanderer was sentenced to the guilty of having murdered his young wife, their unborn child and a stranger whom he had mistakenly for Mrs. Wanderer, by Judge Joseph B. David in the criminal court here today. Wanderer will be executed December 22. Judge David set the execution date after Wanderer was convicted of murder in the first degree of the first state of emotion displayed by the slayer of his wife and child, but as the sentence was read a smile broke over his face as he bowed to the composure.
