The little folks played as is characteristic for children until 2:30 oclock, when they were called to order and marched two and two into the dining room, which was decorated with cut flowers and a huge cake with twelve lighted candles, representing the age of the little lady of honor. The youngsters stood in perfect order around the table wondering what was next. Suddenly the waiters came in with plates good and full of delicious ice cream and cake for each one, which was enjoyed by all. They marched out to the beautiful lawn where they played until the sun was holding farewell therefore, closing a beautiful October day, long to be remembered by all who were there. The many beautiful and valuable presents were tokens of great love and friendship.

QUIET REIGNS IN CHINA SAYS NICHOLAS COUNTY BOY

Hsuchang, July 28, 1920.

My dear parents:—I wrote you recently about the trouble and fighting here. We have had reinforcements, 200 Chinese soldiers with factory, supplies and modern guns having arrived. There has been no fighting for a week now. There are many flying rumors, and people are still frightened, but we have great hopes that the worst is over. We are well, except ordinary colds and a little malaria now and then.

We hope to go back se school next week.

Love Gway Yum and Didee were married on July the 9th. I hope to send you some pictures in a few days showing their costumes, etc. They are living on my place for the present, in a new house I built. I am entertaining a couple of small pictures now, but wish to send better later.

Your loving son
Jim
