REPUBLICAN WRITER SEES COX VICTORY IN KENTUCKY

Coming like a thunderbolt to the Republicans in the State was an article sent out from Louisville last Saturday by David Lawrence, noted political writer, in which he concedes Governor Cox will carry Kentucky by at least 10,000 majority.

Mr. Lawrence is one of the foremost Republican political writers of the day and has heralded over the United States making predictions as to how each State would vote in the Presidential election. All along Mr. Lawrence has favored the Republican nominee and his articles have been accepted by the Republican press of the country. Republicans generally have taken his word as being final authority, and the Republican press in Kentucky failed to publish Lawrence's article. Below is the article as sent out by Mr. Lawrence after a careful study of the situation in the State:

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 25—If Chairman Will Hays is basing his prediction of Republican success in the nation on the factors that are expert-ed in Kentucky, he make Kentucky a Republican State, then there is something wrong about the information at Republican National headquarters.

Something like a religious fervor is sweeping against the new issue of increasing salaries for school teachers. The State has been flooded with them, and many school teachers who are seeking to know the truth have written to State Headquarters to learn whether Senator Beckham has ever made such a speech.

The matter brought to Senator Beckham's attention brought the following statement by him:—"The entire thing is a falsehood. I have never mentioned this law in my speeches during this campaign. I will say further that the men who are publishing and causing this leaflet to be distributed are wilful and malicious liars, and they know they are when they are taking such action."

The fiction published in this leaflet is further belied by the non-partisan school development campaign conducted by the Louisville Board of Trade. At the solicitation of James Speed of Louisville, Chairman of this Board of Trade Committee, Senator Beckham wrote a statement early in September which the political campaign opened, endorsing the new school law.

In the course of this general endorsement he said; "I am truly glad too, that provision has been made for increasing salaries for our school teachers. Considering the work they do, so important and so far reaching, training the morals and characters of our children, they have been paid intolerably little salaries, and no class of people deserve increased salaries more than they do."

This statement has been scattered broadcast throughout the Kentucky press, and had the distributors of the leaflet given it a moment's thought they would have realized what a futile thing they were doing after Senator Beckham had publicly on record on this question for over two months.

SCHOOL NEWS

The School Fair at Moorefield was a decided success. A similar one will be held at Blue Licks on Nov. 12, by Division 3, and 8.

All teachers are given the privilege of closing school while they go to the polls to vote.

The new method of electing the 13th County Board of Education does not seem to be thoroughly understood. There will be ten names in the ballot. Select the five whom you think will make the most efficient Board Members. Do not vet for six as that will ruin a ballot.

CARDINAL GIBBONS TO SUPPORT LEAGUE OF NATIONS

New York, Oct. 27—To the list of 15,200 American clergymen who have published a firey stand for the League of Nations, is now added the name of His Eminence, James Cardinal Gibbons, who bases his support chiefly on the moral effect of the League, declaring that all States "should unite in one league."

The distinguished prelate, in an interview with Col. Stephen, Bonsal of the Baltimore Sun, declined to discuss political conditions, but talked freely about his earnest desire for world peace.

Church bodies and Christian statesmen generally have pus nomenclature behind the League of Nations as a practical issue.

In a recent number of The Christian Work it was declared that a petition had been signed by 15,200 clergymen, urging prompt ratification of the Peace Treaty and the entrance of the United States into the Christian Nations.

Eight hundred and sixteen clergymen declined to sign the petition because they opposed the league.

On that basis the ministers of this country are eighteen to one for the league, and Republican preachers are joining an imposing majority.

An analysis of the religious affiliations of the first 14,400 signers of the petition, circulated by the Christian Work, is a follows:

Methodist, 4,019; Congregational, 1,387; Federated Churches, 16; Presbyterians, 2,409; Lutheran, 644; Baptist, 1,784; Episcopal, 1,078; Reformed Christ, 1,162; Roman Catholic, 214; Jewish, 212; Unitarian, 138; Universalist, 125; Episcopal, 811; United Brethren in Christ, 32; miscellaneous, 162.

NORTH MIDDLETOWN CHILDREN VISIT HISTORIC NICHOLAS

Very recently a large number of North Middletown children were taken on an journey by the Mothers Club of North Middletown, a journey which they are not likely to forget in a hurry. The historical pilgrimage was made in Blue Licks, historic in the early history of the State. The party of about two hundred children motored grounds in automobiles early in the morning. Reaching the grounds a most beautiful dinner was spread near the bank of the Licking river, on the old Blue Licks grounds.

In the afternoon the old battlefield was visited. The children were told by early settlers and their search for salt and the battle that took place that became the Maysville turnpike. Mr. Hamilton Stamps, one of the pioneer homes, interesting rock formations, Indian relic, etc., were viewed and examined. A stop was made at the former home of Governor "Blone-hamhead" Metcalfe, where he told in Collins' History of Kentucky.

The party reached home at dark very tired and dusty, but thoroughly happy and enthused with the part they set in the romantic historical past of Kentucky—Boerton News

YOUTHFUL POETS WRITE HALLOWEEN JINGLES

Two of the youthful members of the Carlisle City School have handed in for publication poems which they have written on Hallowe'en. One of the poems has been signed his name, the other modestly requested us to omit the name in having it printed. We credit the poem lastly, and it "wasn't modest, good. Here are the jingles:

HALLOWEEN

I

On Hallowe'en we have lots of fun
On Hallowe'en, On Hallowe'en
On through the dark we run
On Hallowe'en, On Hallowe'en.
Through the dark we go
As the dark we run through
We are likely to have to run
On Hallowe'en, On Hallowe'en.

II

Let's all cheer for Hallowe'en
For Hallowe'en, For Hallowe'en
On that let's yell and scream
For Hallowe'en, For Hallowe'en
And the Christian Nations
And that day I'll never forget
I'll always cheer for it, you bet
For Hallowe'en, For Hallowe'en.

III

I know we all like Hallowe'en
Like Hallowe'en, Like Hallowe'en
And why I don't know scream
Like Hallowe'en, Like Hallowe'en
I wish it would come every day
Hallowe'en

IV

How did we come to have Hallowe'en
Have Hallowe'en, Have Hallo- 'een
Why do we come we will have
Have Hallowe'en, Have Hallowe'en
When I get scared and when I have
Have Hallowe'en, Have Hallo-'een

ON HALLOWE'EN

You had better watch your swing
We are likely to have some on each way.
We will take it to the creek
And you will not see it for a week.

We will tick tack on your shutter
And when you hear it you will shutter.
For it will squeak
And then you will squeal till your weak.

Every one seemingly tries to put ex-President Taft in a hole. But the only hole big enough for that man is the White House.

In the election next week those Republicans who have Democratic leanings will find the female of the species more heady than the male.

Every time the League of Nations approaches Senator Harding's cheerful front porch he swats it with a brick then calls it to him and pats it on the back.

Let those who would destroy the League of Nations read again—

"Blessed are the dead, short days we We lived, knew dawn, felt sunset', and Loved and were loved, and now we rest."

In Flanders Fields.

"Is you from failing hands we throw the torch; be yours to hold it high. If ye break faith with us who die We shall not sleep, though poppies grow

In Flanders Fields."

Thomas Russell was tried before Judge Kennedy Wednesday morning on the charge of shooting on the public highway and disorderly conduct. A fine of $50 and costs was assessed against him for shooting on the 31st day and $10 and costs on the other charge.

POWELL PUBLISHES GOVERNOR'S LETTER

Elizabeth, Ky., Oct. 24—Refusal of Governor Edwin P. Morrow to allow the State auditor to pay the claim of Deputy Sheriff G. W. Powell, of Fluvanna county, for expenses incurred in bringing back Grant Smith, negro, from Michigan to Fleming county, is made known in correspondence between Governor and Deputy Powell, made public by Mr. Powell here today. The negro, charged with rape of a white country woman, was in the officer near Paris and hanged by a mob.

The correspondence follows.

"Office of the Governor

"Frankfort,

G. W. Powell,

"Deputy Sheriff,

"Elizaville, Ky.

"Dear Sir:

"All of the papers in connection with your claim against the State Auditor for expenses incurred in the matter of the extradition of the negro Grant Smith from Michigan to Fleming county, Kentucky, for payment have been turned over to me. I have directed the Auditor to disallow the claim. I have made this error because the prisoner Grant Smith was not delivered to the proper Fleming county; he was taken from your custody by a mob. So far as I am advised, you and the other peace officers of the State made no attempt to stop the mob; never struck a blow in defense of the law of Kentucky, and apparently no effort to defend the law with it was your duty to uphold.

"For these reasons the claim is disallowed.

"I am returning the papers to you.

Yours truly,

EDWIN P. MORROW,

"Governor."

Elizaville, Ky.

Mr. Edwin P. Morrow,

"Governor of Kentucky,

"Via Ohio, Ind., and Ill.)

"Frankfort, Ky.

"Dear Sir:

"Your very sarcastic letter of this date, received and while you state that "I have directed the Auditor to disallow your claim" you failed to set for to any section of the Kentucky Statute for your authority, taking it for granted that I would suppose that "it is entirely sufficient.

"I am aware that the prisoner was not turned over to the jailer of Fleming county, but I assure that you well know and I deny any insinuation that you or any officer failed to do the proper guarding of the prisoners. Such precautions were taken for his safe keeping.

"When surrounded by the mob at Ewing I was informed by several of different guns from all directions, it was impossible to hold the negro and Chief Link and myself were entirely taken by surprise, for reasons you go and say that we should have tried to at least commit suicide. I see nothing more fot I am frank to say that while the Gentleman who now occupies the Governor's chair is nearly all back I the executive office and say what I please to whom I please, I am free to say that I think that under the same circumstances you would have acted just what we did do.

"You stated that the prisoner should have been delivered to the jailer or Flemingsburg and I say to you that all that could be done under the circumstances was done. Everybody is cordially invited to come and take a look at them.

"Yours truly,

"G. W. Powell,

"Deputy Sheriff,

"Fleming County, Kentucky."

The selection of a formal day which shall annually be set aside to commemorate our participation in the World War will seem day doubtless be effected through legislation and already Memorial Day, rich in heroic memories has acquired additional significance as being appropriate also to the remembrance of the heroes of the World War. I am, however, so heartily in favor of the suggestion that has been made that I take this occasion to express publicly my approval of the idea.

Washington, Oct. 8.—President Wilson today directed that on Sunday, November 14, the American flag be displayed at half mast on all public buildings and that suitable and military posts "as a token of the nation's participation in the memorial services held for the heroic American soldiers, sailors, marines and others who gave their lives to their country in the World War."

In connection with the order, the President authorized this statement:

"There has been transmitted to me a suggestion that I name Sunday, November 14, as Armistice Sunday in order that the religious services held throughout the country on that day may be given a special note of remembrance for the heroic services and sacrifices of those who died for America in the world war.

"The selection of a formal day which shall annually be set aside to commemorate our participation in the World War will seem day doubtless be effected through legislation and already Memorial Day, rich in heroic memories has acquired additional significance as being appropriate also to the remembrance of the heroes of the World War. I am, however, so heartily in favor of the suggestion that has been made that I take this occasion to express publicly my approval of the idea.

Richness of the Sea.

Every ton of water contains one grain of gold. There are over four thousand million tons of water in a square mile of the ocean, and enough salt to contain three hundred million cubic miles of water. Thus it is easy to reckon the amount of gold in the sea. It is estimated at $100,000,000,000.
